religion their administrative system They may have derived their belief in the life giving properties of jade from the Elamites or have come to attach a magical value to its presence from the Babylonian miners but for neither of these peoples was it the vehicle of supernatural beliefs and penetrate as far back as we may into pre history we cannot find a time in China in which jade was not used for religious purposes What perhaps emphasises the peculiar position of jade in Chinese culture is the fact that other early peoples used jade although for them it had no significance greater or even as great as gold or pearls Jade was dug and worked in many parts of Europe Hatchets have been found in Switzerland nephrite celts in South Italy and France Germany Dalmatia and Hungary Jade celts too were discovered by Schliemann at Hissarlik but by no people save the Chinese has jade been made the nucleus and the shrine of a civilisation although its use was distributed in Turkestan Persia Siberia India Lake Baikal and Japan and to a minor degree the substance was prized by most Asiatic peoples It is only during the last two decades that collectors have begun to realise the enormous importance of jade Dr Laufer broke new ground when in 1912 he published his great work A Study in Chinese Archzology and Religion His object in writing this book was rather ethnological than artistic He himself calls it a contribution to the l Anthropology Encyclopzia Britannica

Duchess of Berwick Ah what indeed dear That is the point He goes to see her continually and stops for hours at a time and while he is there she is not at home to any one Not that many ladies call on her dear but she has a great many disreputable men friends my own brother particularly as I told you and that is what makes it so dreadful about Windermere We looked upon him as being such a model husband but I am afraid there is no doubt about it My dear nieces you know the Saville girls don t you such nice domestic creatures plain dreadfully plain but so good well they re always at the window doing fancy work and making ugly things for the poor which I think so useful of them in these dreadful socialistic days and this terrible woman has taken a house in Curzon Street right opposite them such a respectable street too I don t know what we re coming to And they tell me that Windermere goes there four and five times a week they see him They can t help it and although they never talk scandal they well of course they remark on it to every one And the worst of it all is that I have been told that this woman has got a great deal of money out of somebody for it seems that she came to London six months ago without anything at all to speak of and now she has this charming house in Mayfair drives her ponies in the Park every afternoon and all well all since she has known poor dear Windermere
