Lampman's Sonnets Margaret Whitridge, 1976-01-01 Lampman's Sonnets 1884-1899 Archibald Lampman, 1976 Archibald Lampman Eric Ball, 2013-05-01 Treasuring the past savouring the present and wanting to do right by the future Archibald Lampman was a poet keenly focused on the workings of time He was also a thinker of mystical predisposition His goal was not to transcend time but to find redemptive meaning within it Archibald Lampman Memory Nature Progress explores the ways in which Lampman pursued this goal in relation to the three faces of time Memory fascinated Lampman He relished the alchemy by which the dross of past experience could be left behind and the gold preserved Nature compelled his mind and emotions and his clear eyed observations of both countryside and wilderness settings gave rise to a self evolved poetics of inclusiveness In his celebrations of nature in all its manifestations mild or bleak he anticipated the work of iconic Canadian painter Tom Thomson and he forecasted the environmentalism of our own time Progress for Lampman spelled societal rectification By forwarding the cause of social betterment one was part of a movement larger than oneself and this expansion too was redemptive Archibald Lampman Memory Nature Progress is the first book on this foundational figure in Canadian literature to appear in over twenty five years and the first thematically focused study Combining close analysis with biographical context it shows how Lampman's oeuvre was shaped by his responses to his physical surroundings and to his social intellectual milieu as filtered through his stubbornly independent outlook Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Lampman's Sonnets. 1884-1899. Complete Sonnets of Archibal Lampman Archibald Lampman, 1976 Index ,1975

Lampman's Kate, Late Love Poems of Archibald Lampman, 1887-1897 Archibald Lampman, 1975 Major Canadian Authors David Stouck, 1988-01-01 Canadian literature in English presents a wealth of imaginative experience that belies the colonial status sometimes accorded the world's second largest country. This revised and expanded edition of Major Canadian Authors provides an entrance into that realm Stouck's carefully integrated essays introduce the life and writings of eighteen foremost Canadian authors including Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Sinclair Ross and Alice Munro The second edition adds a new chapter on Margaret Atwood updates the text and expands the reference guide to include more than sixty Canadian authors Queen's Quarterly, 1901 Book Buyer ,1899 Canadian Books in Print, 2003 The Book Buver ,1899 Our Intellectual Strength and Weakness John George Bourinot, 1898 An English Canadian Poetics: The Confederation poets Robert Hogg, 2009 Essays on poetic theory written by Canadian poets from the late 19th century to 1918 The Concise Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature William Toye, 2001 The concise version of the critically acclaimed second edition of The Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature offers all the authority of the original in a smaller more affordable format Entries have been updated and over sixty new entries have been added making it an indispensable Archibald Lampman L. R. Early, 1986 International Books in Print ,1991 Canadian Bookman .1927 resource Poet and the Critic Robert L. McDougall, 1983-01-15 These letters give a unique glimpse into publishing history in Canada and tell a human story of two Canadian men of letters one in his prime the other at the end of his life Our Intellectual Strength and Weakness John George Bourinot, Thomas Guthrie Marguis, 1973-12-15 These three works displaying marked differences in purpose tone and effect are all classics of Canadian literary and cultural criticism John George Bourinot was a man of letters an Imperialist and a biculturalist who was confident of his knowledge of the Canadian identity and felt it to be his public mission to align reality with his own personal vision Writing in 1893 to the lite represented by the members of the Royal Society he described his work as a monograph on the intellectual development of the Dominion describing the progress of culture in a country still struggling with the difficulties of the material development of half a continent Two decades later Thomas Guthrie Marguis and Camille Roy wrote what were in contrast specialized assignments contributions to the compendium history Canada and Its Provinces 1913 Addressing a far larger audience and treating a vastly enlarged body of Canadian literature their work comes much closer to contemporary scholarship with greater clarity organization and sheer bulk of information but with the loss of some of the charm and assurance of Bourinot's wide sweep In further contrast to Bourinot's determined biculturalism and will to unity Roy and Marguis essays display vivid differences in the emotional allegiances and convictions of the founding cultures Marguis starts by asking the question Has Canada a voice of her own in literature distinct from that of England Roy treats French Canadian literature in its Roman Catholic contexts Canadian Writers and Their Works Robert Lecker, Jack David, Ellen Quigley, 1983
