Historical Dictionary of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin, 2017-12-18 Malaysia is one of the most intriguing countries in Asia in many respects It consists of several distinct areas not only geographically but ethnically as well along with Malays and related groups the country has a very large Indian and Chinese population The spoken languages obviously vary at home although Bahasa Malaysia is the official language and nearly everyone speaks English There is also a mixture of religions with Islam predominating among the Malays and others Hinduism and Sikhism among the Indians mainly Daoism and Confucianism among the Chinese but also some Christians as well as older indigenous beliefs in certain places This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Malaysia contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malaysia

Fiction and Faction in the Malay World Mohamad Rashidi Pakri, 2013-02-14 This book offers a variety of essays and perspectives on some of the foreigners and traders who came to the Malay World and wrote fiction and faction writing that portrays real people or events in a dramatised manner during their sojourn regardless of whether they continued to stay in the region returned to their home country or migrated to another country The essays tend to cross generic and disciplinary boundaries as the contributors of this book are drawn from various fields within the arts and humanities including history geography language and literature and translation All of them however deal with colonial texts the Malay World or primarily cover the period from the 18th to the 20th century Including readings of fiction diaries vignettes letters written by traders or colonial officers the uniqueness of this book lies in the personal private and or informal nature of the various documents studied The encounters of these outsiders with the natives not only offer fascinating historical insights into the Malay World but to a significant degree vividly express the views and personalities of the writers themselves as mediated through their assigned commercial and colonial roles

A Merry Senhor in the Malay World R.M. Dumas, 2022-11-28 Around a century ago a Malay poem which tells of a foreigner always indicated as Sinyor in Southeast Asia who elopes with Lela Mayang the wife of a wealthy Chinaman The latter sets out in pursuit of the couple and engages in a naval battle with the Sinyor in an attempt to get his wife back The Syair Sinyor Kosta as the poem is known presents us with fascinating pictures and glimpses of Malay society in this case a nineteenth century society in transition It reflects changing literary tastes a pluriform society and the beginning modernization of Malay culture In its variegated transmission through both manuscripts and early printings it is an illustration of the continuous interaction between Malay authors and audiences In particular it is a remarkable piece of early evidence of literary coexistence between Malays and Chinese who must have enjoyed this story of the merry Sinyor each in their own way as is apparent from the continuing process of creation reception and recreation of the text This book presents editions of four versions of the Syair Sinyor Kosta of which two are translated into English The texts are preceded by a lengthy introduction which deals with the manuscripts their history and provenance and their writers The book closes with a detailed chapter with a comparative study of the four versions an investigation of the historical setting and an analysis of the language used in the texts The print edition is available as a set of two volumes

9789067182164 Arabic Literary Culture in Southeast Asia in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries A.C.S. Peacock, 2024-02-06 This groundbreaking work studies the Arabic literary culture of early modern Southeast Asia on the basis of largely unstudied and unknown manuscripts It offers new perspectives on intellectual interactions between the Middle East and Southeast Asia the development of Islam and especially Sufism in the region the relationship between the Arabic and Malay literary traditions and the manuscript culture of the Indian Ocean world It brings to light a large number of hitherto unknown texts produced at or for the courts of Southeast Asia and examines the role of royal patronage in supporting Arabic literary production in Southeast Asia The Cambridge Handbook of Language Contact Salikoko S. Mufwene, Anna María Escobar, 2022-06-30 Language contact the linguistic and social outcomes of two or more languages coming into contact with each other has been pervasive in human history However where histories of language contact are comparable experiences of migrant populations have been only similar not identical Given this how does language contact work With contributions from an international team of scholars this Handbook the first in a two volume set delves into this question from multiple perspectives and provides state of the art research on population movement and language contact and change It begins with an overview of how language contact as a research area has evolved since the late 19th century The chapters then cover various processes and theoretical issues associated with population movement and language contact worldwide It is essential reading for anybody interested in the dynamics of social interactions in diverse contact settings and how the changing ecologies influence the linguistic outcomes Early History of Penang (Penerbit USM) Editor Muhammad Haji Salleh, History states and defines rights A history that is one sided that tends to be on the side of the colonizers and disregards the actual truths is an erred discourse which nullities the rights self identity and pride of a nation This book aims to correct the lopsidedness and neglect Penang and Seberang Perai have kept ancient proofs of population long before the arrival of Francis Light For the sake of uncovering a history that reaches further in the past and unearths more truths this book presents three scholars and well known experts who reveal these early proofs They are Dr Mokhtar Saidin an archaeologist Dr Mahani Musa a historian and Dr Noriah Mohamed a linguist Their researches begin from the early proofs and lead us to the earlier decade of the arrival of East India Company Liberalism and the British Empire in Southeast Asia Gareth Knapman,Anthony Milner,Mary Quilty,2018-10-10 This collection of essays collects the leading scholars on British colonial thought in Southeast Asia to consider the question what was the relationship between liberalism and the British Empire in Southeast Asia The empire builders in Southeast Asia Lord Minto William Farquhar John Leyden Thomas Stamford Raffles and John Crawfurd to name a few were fervent believers in a liberal free trade order in Southeast Asia Many recent studies of British imperialism and European imperialism more generally have addressed how the anti imperialist tradition of Eighteenth century liberalism was increasingly intertwined with the discourses of empire freedom race and economics in the nineteenth century This collection extends those studies to look at the impact of liberalism on British colonialism in Southeast Asia and early nineteenth century Southeast Asia we see some of the first attempts at developing multicultural democracies within the colonies experiments in free trade and attempts to use free trade to prevent war and colonisation The Literature of Brunei Ooi Keat Gin,Kathrina Mohd Daud,2025-02-18 This book presents an overview of the literature of Brunei surveying literary traditions innovations and new approaches as well as historical and contemporary issues and challenges This book highlights the unique characteristics of Bruneian literature including its approach to bilingualism Brunei Malay and English its historical intertwining with monarchs and myths and how its emerging developments can be charted in the twenty first century Gathering together the work of both established and emerging scholars of Bruneian literature and history this book brings detailed scholarship to an English speaking audience some of which was originally written in the Malay language and highlights a Bruneian perspective In drawing out the peculiar traditions innovations and challenges of Bruneian literature this collection of essays is not only original in concept but also a pioneering endeavour The Literature of Brunei will be of interest to researchers in World and Asian Literature in particular Southeast Asian literature Old Muslim Calendars of Southeast Asia Ian Proudfoot,2018-12-24 It has been said that a modern arrogance has blocked our access to the history of the Muslim calendar in Southeast Asia Without at least the outlines of that history we simply do not understand the basis of dates found in Malay sources Also without a history of Malay calendars we are denied an understanding of the context from which the Javanese Muslim calendar arose This volume the result of combining empirical evidence with a sound understanding of the structural requirements of calendar making and of the mechanisms through which these needs could be met for the first time explains how these old octaval calendars actually worked It traces the history of Muslim calendars in Southeast Asia and attempts to put them into their historical and cultural context Understanding the old calendars will at last throw light on a number of essential aspects of older Malay science and culture An accompanying interactive CD ROM presents the reader with a tool for converting Malay and Javanese dates with access to the range of variant calendars British Traders in the East Indies, 1770-1820 W. G. Miller, 2020 An in depth study of the British traders who extended British commercial activity beyond the area controlled by the East India Company
