Legends of Maui W. D. Westervelt, 2019-09-26 The Hawaiian island of Maui is the origin of one of the greatest myths wherein the demigod Maui creates Hawaii by hauling the islands up from the ocean and sees that this new land prospers Maui's many exploits are given in this translation which is adapted from the original Hawaiian script derived from the telling of the Maui legend through many generations Though no exact date for the origin of the Maui story can be known it is certain that the fundamental structure of his narrative dates back centuries with various stories and other exploits being added by successive storytellers over many generations Evidence for the mythos is found on most of the larger Hawaiian Islands with the entire culture knowing and perpetuating the Maui with great consistency The great strength and benevolence of Maui is told while ostensibly a chieftain he possesses supernatural powers that allow the harnessing of the ocean and sun for his own ends In many respects Maui is an outsized version of an ideal traditional Hawaiian in his prime with a fantastic understanding of the weather outstanding skill at fishing and a benevolent leader to his family and clan Even in acts that seem destructive his killing of the long eel Tuna a new sprout blossoms the burial of Tuna s body results in the first coconut tree

Legends of Maui: A Demi God of Polynesia and of his Mother Hina William Drake Westervelt, Four brothers each bearing the name of Maui belong to Hawaiian legend They accomplished little as a family except on special occasions when the youngest of the household awakened his brothers by some unexpected trick which drew them into unwonted action The legends of Hawaii Tonga Tahiti New Zealand and the Hervey group make this youngest Maui the discoverer of fire or the ensnarer of the sun or the fisherman who pulls up islands or the man endowed with magic or Maui with spirit power The legends vary somewhat of course but not as much as might be expected when the thousands of miles between various groups of islands are taken into consideration Maui was one of the Polynesian demi gods His parents belonged to the family of supernatural beings He himself was possessed of supernatural powers and was supposed to make use of all manner of enchantments In New Zealand antiquity a Maui was said to have assisted other gods in the creation of man Nevertheless Maui was very human He lived in thatched houses had wives and children and was scolded by the women for not properly supporting his household The time of his sojourn among men is very indefinite In Hawaiian genealogies Maui and his brothers were placed among the descendants of Ulu and the sons of Kii and Maui was one of the ancestors of Kamehameha the first king of the united Hawaiian Islands This would place him in the seventh or eighth century of the Christian Era But it is more probable that Maui belongs to the mist land of time His mischievous pranks with the various gods would make him another Mercury living in any age from the creation to the beginning of the Christian era The Hervey Island legends state that Maui s father was the supporter of the heavens and his mother the guardian of the road to the invisible world In the Hawaiian chant Akalana was the name of his father In other groups this was the name by which his mother was known Kanaloa the god is sometimes known as the father of Maui In Hawaii Hina was his mother Elsewhere Ina or Hina was the grandmother from whom he secured fire The Hervey Island legends say that four mighty ones lived in the old world from which their ancestors came This old world bore the name

Ava iki which is the same as Hawa ii or Hawaii The four gods were Mauike Ra Ru and Bua Taranga It is interesting to trace the connection of these four names with Polynesian mythology Mauike is the same as the demi god of New Zealand Mafuike On other islands the name is spelled Mauika Mafuika Mafuia Mafuie and Mahuika Ra the sun god of Egypt is the same as Ra in New Zealand and La sun in Hawaii Ru the supporter of the heavens is probably the Ku of Hawaii and the Tu of New Zealand and other islands one of the greatest of the gods worshiped by the ancient Hawaiians The fourth mighty one from Ava ika was a woman Bua taranga who guarded the path to the underworld Talanga in Samoa and Akalana in Hawaii were the same as Taranga Pua kalana the Kalana flower would probably be the same in Hawaiian as Bua taranga in the language of the Society Islands
