Culture et action chez Georges Pompidou Jean-François Sirinelli, Association Georges Pompidou, 2000

Il est toujours malais pour l'historien de faire part dans l'analyse des processus de prise de décision politique entre les données personnelles concernant l'homme d'État lui-même et les forces profondes constituant la configuration historique dans laquelle s'exerce son action Ce problème classique posant l'intelligence historique se complique encore quand cette prise de décision politique porte sur le domaine culturel Comment dans ce cas distinguer ce qui relève des goûts de l'homme privé et les arbitrages que l'homme public doit donner dans le cadre de ses fonctions par rapport aux analyses et impulsions des services concernés Et cette question est d'autant plus complexe que l'homme privé pour ce qui concerne sa sensibilité culturelle est toujours difficile à saisir rétrospectivement par l'historien et que dans le cas de Georges Pompidou sa formation son premier milieu et ses centres d'intérêt en font intrinsèquement un homme de culture On saisit donc bien l'intérêt de cet ouvrage Il ne s'agit pas en effet d'une histoire du ministère de la Culture l'époque de Georges Pompidou mais d'une analyse des interactions entre l'action publique d'un homme et les rouages complexes des politiques et institutions culturelles situées dans le contexte de la grande mutation socioculturelle des années 1960 et du début de la décennie suivante Une telle analyse est portée par les acquis récents de l'histoire culturelle une branche de l'histoire culturelle française actuellement en développement rapide
