Lenin,2008-03-01 Vladimir Ilyich Lenin 1870 1924 was a Russian revolutionary a communist politician the main leader of the October Revolution the first head of the Russian Soviet Socialist Republic and from 1922 the first de facto leader of the Soviet Union He was the creator of Leninism an extension of Marxist theory Cultural Revolution and Revolutionary Culture Alessandro Russo,2020-08-28 In Cultural Revolution and Revolutionary Culture Alessandro Russo presents a dramatic new reading of China s Cultural Revolution as a mass political experiment aimed at thoroughly reexamining the tenets of communism Russo explores four critical phases of the Cultural Revolution each with its own reworking of communist political subjectivity the historical theatrical prologue of 1965 Mao s attempts to shape the Cultural Revolution in 1965 and 1966 the movements and organizing between 1966 and 1968 and the factional divides that ended them and the mass study campaigns from 1973 to 1976 and the unfinished attempt to evaluate the inadequacies of the political decade that brought the Revolution to a close Among other topics Russo shows how the dispute around the play Hai Rui Dismissed from Office was not the result of a Maoist conspiracy but rather a series of intense and unresolved political and intellectual controversies He also examines the Shanghai January Storm and the problematic foundation of the short lived Shanghai Commune By exploring these and other political cultural moments of Chinese confrontations with communist principles Russo overturns conventional wisdom about the Cultural Revolution

Revolution and Culture Zenovia A. Sochor,2018-09-05 Zenovia A Sochor here assesses one of the most important debates within the Bolshevik leadership during the early years of Soviet power that between A A Bogdanov and V I Lenin Once comrades in arms Bogdanov and Lenin became political rivals prior to the October Revolution Their disagreements over political and cultural issues led to a split in the Bolshevik Party with Bogdanov spearheading the party s left wing faction and attracting a following of notable intellectuals Before Lenin died in 1924 however he had succeeded in shaping Soviet society according to his own vision and today Bolshevism is commonly identified with Leninism while Bogdanovism is little known Sochor provides the first full exposition in English of Bogdanov's views which she asserts must be understood to appreciate the choices available and the paths not taken during the formative years of the Soviet regime Mao's China and After Maurice Meisner, 1999-04 Presents a revised account of the revolution of 1966-1969 Examines the social and political consequences of the upheaval Deng Xiaoping Democracy movement Tiananmen Incident Mao Zedong The hundred flowers Great Leap Forward The Philosophical Heritage of V. I. Lenin and Problems of Contemporary War Arsenii Stepanovich Milovidov, Vladimir Georgievich Kozlov, 1974 Culture and Power in Revolutionary Russia Christopher Read, 1990-06-18 This book shows that the rise of the intelligentsia occurred earlier than is normally thought and that by 1922 rather than 1932 the underlying principles of the new Soviet government's policies towards culture had already emerged and proto Stalinism was increasingly important The Origins of the Cultural Revolution Roderick MacFarquhar, 1999-11 This is the final volume in a trilogy that examines the politics personalities economics culture and international relations of China from the mid 1950s to the mid 1960s It seeks to answer the central question Why did Chairman Mao Zedong launch the Cultural Revolution 1966-76 which plunged China into chaos and almost destroyed its Communist Party The Coming of the Cataclysm starts with the great famine of the early 1960s which resulted in tens of millions of deaths and set in train a series of emergency measures that increasingly divided Mao from his comrades in arms His anger that they were prepared to adopt capitalist methods to rescue the country was sharpened by his belief that Moscow had actually gone capitalist and sold out to the imperialist West From 1961 to 1966 the period covered by this volume the increasingly urgent question for Mao was how to prevent a similar revolutionary degeneration in China The Cultural Revolution was his answer Drawing upon new evidence from Party documents personal interviews books and journals MacFarquhar details the growing rift between Mao and his colleagues as they attempted to cope with domestic privation and an increasingly hostile international environment until the Chairman finally decided to smash the unity of the Yan'an Round Table by unleashing society against the party state Lenin Beryl Williams, 2000 Drawing on the flood of new material to emerge from Russian and Western sources in recent years Beryl Williams focuses on Lenin's years in power and provides first rate introduction to the life ideology and impact of one of the formative figures of the 20th century Within an overall chronological framework Williams examines topics such as cultural revolution foreign policy and expansion As well as being an examination of Lenin's life and work this is an up to date evaluation of recent historiographical debates and literature in the context of the period Rhetoric of the Chinese Cultural Revolution Xing Lu, 2020-08-05 A startling look at revolutionary rhetoric and its effects Now known to the Chinese as the ten years of chaos the Chinese Cultural Revolution 1966-76 brought death to thousands of Chinese and persecution to millions In Rhetoric of the Chinese Cultural Revolution

Xing Lu identifies the rhetorical practices and persuasive effects of the polarizing political language and symbolic practices used by Communist Party leaders to legitimize their use of power and violence to dehumanize people identified as class enemies Lu provides close readings of the movement's primary texts political slogans official propaganda wall posters and the lyrics of mass songs and model operas She also scrutinizes such ritualistic practices as the loyalty dance denunciation rallies political study sessions and criticism and self criticism meetings Lu enriches her rhetorical analyses of these texts with her own story and that of her family as well as with interviews conducted in China and the United States with individuals who experienced the Cultural Revolution during their teenage years In her new preface Lu expresses deep concern about recent nationalism xenophobia divisiveness and violence instigated by the rhetoric of hatred and fear in the United States and across the globe She hopes that by illuminating the way language shapes perception thought and behavior this book will serve as a reminder of past mistakes so that we may avoid repeating them in the future

Revolution of the Mind Michael David-Fox, 2016-11-01 Using archival materials never previously accessible to Western scholars Michael David Fox analyzes Bolshevik Party educational and research initiatives in higher learning after 1917 His fresh consideration of the era of the New Economic Policy and cultural politics after the Revolution explains how new communist institutions rose to parallel and rival conventional higher learning from the Academy of Sciences to the universities Beginning with the creation of the first party school by intellectuals on the island of Capri in 1909 David Fox argues the Bolshevik cultural project was tightly linked to party educational institutions He provides the first account of the early history and politics of three major institutions founded after the Revolution Sverdlov Communist University where the quest to transform everyday life gripped the student movement the Institute of Red Professors where the Bolsheviks sought to train a new communist intellectual or red specialist and the Communist Academy headquarters for a planned collectivist proletarian science

Cultural Revolution Shifts Hannah Martin, AI, 2025-02-18 Cultural Revolution Shifts explores how major cultural upheavals reshape art politics and societal norms It argues that these periods though disruptive are critical catalysts for societal evolution forcing re evaluation of values and power structures The book examines how revolutionary events impact artistic expression and the subsequent evolution of political thought For example societal changes often lead to new forms of art that reflect altered values or political manifestos become artistic statements The book analyzes specific cultural revolutions across different historical periods and geographic locations drawing upon primary source documents artwork analysis political manifestos and sociological studies It uniquely incorporates previously untranslated historical texts and newly discovered artistic collections Rather than a chronological narrative the book uses comparative analysis identifying shared threads and divergent paths to understand cultural change mechanisms The book begins by defining cultural revolution and establishing an analytical framework Early chapters explore theoretical underpinnings with the core dedicated to case studies By integrating perspectives from sociology political science and art history Cultural Revolution Shifts provides a holistic understanding of cultural revolutions and their consequences appealing to students academics and anyone interested in history art and political science Lenin and Trotsky - What they really stood for Alan Woods, Ted Grant, The ideas of Lenin and Trotsky are without doubt the most distorted and slandered ideas in history For more than 100 years they have been subjected to an onslaught from the apologists of capitalism who have attempted to present their ideas Bolshevism as both totalitarian and utopian An entire industry was developed in an attempt to equate the crimes of Stalinism with the regime of workers democracy that existed under Lenin and Trotsky It is now more than fifty years since the publication of the first edition of this work It was written as a reply to Monty Johnstone who was a leading theoretician of the Communist Party of Great Britain Johnstone had published a reappraisal of Leon Trotsky in the Young Communist League s journal Cogito at the end of 1968 Alan Woods and Ted Grant used the opportunity to write a detailed reply explaining the real relationship between the ideas of Lenin and Trotsky This was no academic exercise It was written as an appeal to the ranks of the Communist Party and the Young Communist League to rediscover the truth about Trotsky and return to the original revolutionary programme of Lenin Also included in this new edition is Monty Johnstone s original Cogito article as well as further material on Lenin s struggle with Stalin in the last month of his political life The foreword is written by Trotsky s grandson Vsievod Volkov
