From an Antique Land. Ancient and Modern in the Middle East, Etc. [With Plates.]. Julian Huxley, 1954 The Genesis Enigma Andrew Parker, 2009-10-08 An acclaimed paradigm shifting evolutionary biologist shows how the biblical story of Genesis uncannily reflects recent scientific discoveries and finds room for divine inspiration within Consider this Genesis recounts the story of creation step by step Let there be light Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together into one place and let the dry land appear Let the earth bring forth vegetation Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life God created the whales And God created every winged fowl For thousands of years Judeo Christian belief has accepted this progression as truth And now thanks to recent scientific discoveries the scientific community does too though without the mention of God In The Genesis Enigma respected evolutionary biologist Andrew Parker explains each parallel between Genesis and science in detail and the closer he looks the more amazing the parallels become But the Genesis account has no right to be correct The author or authors could not have known these things happened in this order and with the highlights science has come to recognize Ultimately Parker argues it must be divine inspiration that guided the writing of the Bible This startling conclusion will make The Genesis Enigma a must read for believers and scientists alike

Land Between the Rivers Bartle Bull, 2024-09-10 The epic five millennia history of the region between the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers that was the birthplace of civilization and remains today the essential crossroads between East and West At the start of the fourth millennium BC at the edge of historical time civilization first arrived with the advent of cities and the invention of writing that began to replace legend with history This occurred on the floodplains of southern Iraq where the great rivers Tigris and Euphrates meet the Persian Gulf By 3000 BC a city called Uruk from which Iraq is derived had 80 000 residents Indeed as Bartle Bull reveals in his magisterial history if one divides the 5 000 years of human civilization into ten periods of five centuries each during the first nine of these the world's leading city was in one of the three regions of current day Iraq or to use its Greek name Mesopotamia Inspired by extensive reporting from the region to spend a decade delving deep into its history Bull chronicles the story of Iraq from the exploits of Gilgamesh almost certainly an historical figure to the fall of the Iraqi monarchy in 1958 that ushered in its familiar modern era The land between the rivers has been the melting pot and battleground of countless outsiders from the Akkadians of Hammurabi and the Greeks of Alexander to the Ottomans of Suleiman the Magnificent Here by the waters of Babylon Judaism was born and the Sunni Shia schism took its bloody shape Central themes play out over the millennia humanity's need for freedom versus the co-eternal urge of tyranny the ever-present conflict and cross-fertilization of East and West with Iraq so often the hinge We tend to view today's tensions in the Middle East through the prism of the last hundred years since the Treaty of Versailles imposed a controversial realignment of its borders Bartle Bull's remarkable sweeping achievement reminds us that the region defined by the land between the rivers has for five millennia played a uniquely central role on the global stage American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 15:2 Ataulлах Bogdan Kopanski, Fida Mohammad, Abdel-Qader Yassine, Mohammed Awais Refudeen, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double-blind peer-reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam

The Course of Life: Infancy and early childhood, 1980 Masculine Shame Mary Y. Ayers, 2013-03-01 How does the image of the succubus relate to psychoanalytic thought Masculine Shame From Succubus to the Eternal Feminine explores the idea that the image of the succubus a demonic female creature said to emasculate men and murder mothers and infants has been created out of the masculine projection of shame and looks at how the transformation of this image can be traced through Western history mythology and Judeo-Christian literature Divided into three parts areas of discussion include the birth of civilization and the evolution of the succubus the image of the succubus in the writings of Freud and Jung the succubus as child-killing mother to the restoration of the eternal feminine Through a process of detailed cultural and social analysis the author places the image of the succubus at the very heart of psychoanalytic thought highlighting its presence in both Freud's Medusa and Jung's visions of Salome As such this book will be of great interest to all those in the fields of analytical psychotherapy and psychoanalysis Empires of the Imagination Holger Hoock, 2010-07-09 Between the mid 18th and mid 19th centuries Britain evolved from a substantial international power yet relative artistic backwater into a global superpower and a leading cultural force in Europe In this original and wide-ranging book Hoock illuminates the manifold ways in which the culture of power and the power of culture were interwoven in this period of dramatic change Britons invested artistic and imaginative effort to come to terms with the loss of the American colonies to sustain the generation long fight against Revolutionary and Napoleonic France and to assert and legitimate their growing empire in India Demonstrating how Britain fought international culture wars over prize antiquities from the Mediterranean and Near East the book explores how Britons appropriated ancient cultures from the Mediterranean the Near East and India and casts a fresh eye on iconic objects such as the Rosetta Stone and the Parthenon Marbles

Curiosity and the Aesthetics of Travel-Writing, 1770-1840 Nigel Leask, 2002-01-10 The decades between 1770 and 1840 are rich in exotic accounts of the ruin strewn landscapes of Ethiopia Egypt India and Mexico Yet it is a field which has been neglected by scholars and which unjustifiably remains outside the literary canon In this pioneering book Nigel Leask studies the Romantic obsession with these antique lands drawing generously on a wide range of eighteenth and nineteenth century travel books as well as on recent scholarship in literature history geography and anthropology Viewing the texts primarily as literary works rather than transparent adventure stories or documentary sources he sets out to challenge the tendency in modern academic work to overemphasize the authoritative character of colonial discourse Instead he addresses the relationship between narrative aesthetics and colonialism through the unstable discourse of antiquarianism exploring the effects of problems of creditworthiness and the nebulous epistemological claims of curiosity a leitmotif of the accounts studied here on the contemporary status of travel writing Attentive to the often divergent idioms of elite and popular exoticism Curiosity and the Aesthetics of Travel Writing plots the transformation of the travelogue through the period as the baroque particularism of curiosity was challenged by picturesque aesthetics systematic geographical narrative and the emergence of a transcendental self axiomatic to Romantic culture In so doing it offers an important reformulation of the relations between literature aesthetics and empire in the late Enlightenment and Romantic periods
