From Class To Culture Social Conscience:

Questions of Consciousness Anthony P. Cohen, Nigel Rapport, 2003-12-16 First published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Writing a New Society V. Matheson-Hooker, 2021-10-01 Writing a New Society is the first extended study of the novel in Malay and is a groundbreaking study of the relationship between social change and literary practice The book traces the emergence of the genre from the 1920s and drawing on 26 of Malaysia's best known novels argues that the form was developed as a vehicle for transforming Malay ideas about themselves and their society Virginia Hooker focuses on the underlying anxiety about racial identity which underpins much of Malay writing and examines how ethnic identity is constructed and expressed In a radical break with the traditional notion of Malay society as being totally dependent on the Sultan the book shows how the novelists centre their writings on descriptions of ordinary Malays and present the household as the primary site of change Here the novels develop and describe a private sphere where Malays who previously had no rights begin to exercise their initiative The concept of social equality which inspires the novelists subverts many of the themes of modern Malay politics

Majulah! Zainul Abidin bin Rasheed, Norshahril Saat, 2016 The Malay Muslim community is an integral part of the formative years of modern Singapore The Singapore Malay Muslim community comprises approximately 13% of Singapore's population of about 5.5 million people More than 90% of Singaporean Muslims are Malays while the remaining are Indians Arabs Chinese and members of other ethnic groups This book highlights the progress of the community its contributions and also the challenges for the last 50 years since 1965

The Invention of Politics in Colonial Malaya Anthony Milner, 2002-07-18 This innovative book is a pioneering study of political debate in an important Southeast Asian society Now available in paperback it re-examines the formative period in Malay nationalism and argues against using nationalism as the paradigm of analysis This magnificent book is certainly essential reading for Malaysianists and Malaysians interested in the intrigues and mystique of Malay politics in the past and at present Shamsul A B Asian Studies Review The Invention of Politics in Colonial Malaya is a model of its kind and will undoubtedly become a landmark in Malaysian studies and an example to those in other fields It is a stylish and highly readable essay in cultural history William R Roff Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies

The Malays Anthony Milner, 2011-03-25 Just who are the Malays This provocative study poses the question and considers how and why the answers have changed over time and from one region to another Anthony Milner develops a sustained argument about ethnicity and identity in an historical Malay context The Malays is a comprehensive examination of the origins and development of Malay identity ethnicity and consciousness over the past five centuries Covers the political economic and cultural development of the Malays Explores the Malay presence in Brunei Singapore Indonesia Thailand Cambodia Sri Lanka and South Africa as well as the modern Malay show state of Malaysia Offers diplomatic speculation about ways Malay ethnicity will develop and be challenged in the future

according to one pop music expert Another laments that rock music is metamorphosed into the musical wallpaper of ten thousand lifts hotel foyers shopping centers airport lounges and television advertisements that await us in the 1990s Whatever its current role and significance in Anglo American society popular music has been and remains a tremendous social and cultural force in many parts of the world This book explores the connections between popular music genres and politics in Southeast Asia with particular emphasis on Indonesia the Philippines Thailand Malaysia and Singapore City and Nation Michael Peter Smith, Thomas Bender, 2017-11-30 This compendium offers a textured historical and comparative examination of the significance of locality or place and the role of urban representations and spatial practices in defining national identities Drawing upon a wide range of disciplines from literature to architecture and planning sociology and history these essays problematize the dynamic between the local and the national the cultural and the material revealing the complex interplay of social forces by which place is constituted and contributes to the social construction of national identity in Asia Latin America and the United States These essays explore the dialogue between past and present local and national identities in the making of modern places Contributions range from an assessment of historical discourses on the relationship between modernity and heritage in turn of the century Suzhou to the social construction of San Antonio s Market Square as a contested presencing of the city s Mexican past Case studies of the socio spatial restructuring of Penang and Jakarta show how place making from above by modernizing states is articulated with a claims making politics of class and ethnic difference from below An examination of nineteenth century Central America reveals a case of local grassroots formation not only of national identity but national institutions Finally a close examination of Latin American literature at the end of the nineteenth century reveals the importance of a fantastic reversal of Balzac s dystopian vision of Parisian cosmo politanism in defining the place of Latin America and the possibilities of importing urban modernity

Reclaiming Adat Gaik Cheng Khoo, 2011-11-01 In the early 1990s the animist and Hindu traces in adat or Malay custom became contentious for resurgent Islam in Malaysia Reclaiming Adat focuses on the filmmakers intellectuals and writers who reclaimed adat to counter the homogenizing aspects of both Islamic discourse and globalization in this period They practised their project of recuperation with an emphasis on sexuality and a return to archaic forms such as magic and traditional healing Using close textual readings of literature and film Khoo Gaik Cheng reveals the tensions between gender modernity and nation Khoo weaves a wealth of cultural theory into a rare analysis of Malay cinema and the work of new Malaysian anglophone writers Reclaiming Adat makes an essential contribution to our knowledge of the complexities embedded in modern Malaysian culture politics and identity The book will be a useful source for students interested in postcolonial film and literature Asian culture and gender studies as well as the general reader keen to learn about contemporary Malaysia

Building Cultural Nationalism in Malaysia Timothy P. Daniels, 2013-03-07 This text contains an examination of processes of cultural citizenship in peninsular Malaysia In particular it focuses upon the diverse residents of the southwestern state of Melaka and their negotiations of belonging and incorporation in Malaysian society Following political independence and the formation of the Federation of Malaysia in 1957 Malaysian citizenship was extended to most members of these diverse social identities In this post colonial context Timothy P Daniels examines how public celebrations and representations religious festivals and patterns of social relations are connected to processes of inclusion and exclusion

Modern Dreams Beng-Lan Goh, 2018-05-31 A fascinating ethnographic study of the cultural politics of urban redevelopment in Kampung Serani one Penang community in the 1990s Through interviews newspaper reports and other records Goh considers changing notions of culture ethnic identity and urban space

Local Cultures and the New Asia C.J.W.-L Wee, 2003-08-01 Southeast Asia until the Asian economic crisis of 1997 2000 was a high economic growth area However despite the neo liberal and globalizing logic of capitalism local conditions and cultures determine that capitalism will spread in ways not entirely consonant with its Western origins Capitalism is not a free floating entity it is a socially embodied phenomenon that needs to function in various cultural contexts Consequently the tension between the universal status that some claim capitalism now occupies in the post Cold War world and the particularities of the local cultures it enters should be of great concern

The Hadhrami Diaspora in Southeast Asia Ahmed Ibrahim Abushouk, Hassan Ahmed Ibrahim, 2009 This volume originates from the proceedings of an international conference convened by the Department of History and Civilization International Islamic University Malaysia in collaboration with the Embassy of the Republic of Yemen in Kuala Lumpur from 26 to 28 August 2005 Twelve out of thirty five papers presented at the conference have been reviewed thoroughly revised and published in this volume The introduction and the twelve chapters address the question of Hadhrami identity in Southeast Asia from various perspectives and investigate the patterns of Hadhrami interaction with diverse cultures values and beliefs in the region Special attention is paid to Hadhrami local and transnational politics social stratification and integration religio social reform and journalism as well as to economic dynamism and the cosmopolitan character of the Hadhrami societies in Southeast Asia

Singapore Malay/Muslim Community, 1819-2015 Hussin Mutalib, Rokiah Mentol, Sundusia Rosdi, 2016-06-29 Singapore s Malay Muslim community constituting about 15 per cent of the total population and constitutionally enshrined as the indigenous people of Singapore have had its fair share of progress and problems in the history of this country While different aspects of the vicissitudes of life of the community have been written over the years there has not been a singularly substantive published compendium specifically about the community in the form of a Bibliography available This academic initiative fills this obvious literature gap The scope and coverage of this Bibliography is manifestly comprehensive encompassing the different sources of information print or non print about the many facets of life of the Republic s Malays Muslims such as education economy politics culture history health language religion arts and more The result is a Bibliography that is arguably the most expansive if not exhaustive treasury collection about the community ever available anywhere Scholars and researchers in particular and the public in general should find this Bibliography a highly valuable indispensable source of information about the rich and varied life of Singapore s Malay Muslim community stretching a period of two centuries from the time of Stamford Raffles in 1819 until today The Editors Hussin Mutalib Ph D a senior academic with the National University of Singapore Rokiah Mentol and Sundusia Rosdi former senior librarians with Singapore s National Library Board are assisted by professional and experienced librarians
