From Ink Lake Canadian Stories:

From Ink Lake, 1995 This highly acclaimed anthology is an unexpected and discerning mix of traditional short stories and untraditional tales as selected by one of Canada's most beloved writers Michael Ondaatje. He has chosen 49 stories by a wide array of writers including Alistair MacLeod, Margaret Laurence, Carol Shields, Dionne Brand, Mavis Gallant, Stephen Leacock, Glenn Gould, Alice Munro, Rohinton Mistry, David Adams Richards, and many more. Full of diversity and surprise, these writings reveal the geographical, emotional, and literary range of the country. Above all, Michael Ondaatje's personal selection offers good reading and great entertainment.

From Ink Lake Michael Ondaatje, 1992 Ranging from fable to chronicle to intimate moment and from the early days of the century to the present, these fifty stories by well-known authors reveal the geographical, emotional, and literary range of Canada.

The Canadian Short Story John Metcalf, 2018-09-25 No other person has done more to celebrate and encourage the short story in Canada than John Metcalf. For more than five decades, he has worked tirelessly as editor, anthologist, writer, critic, and teacher to help shape our understanding of the form and what it can do. The long-time editor of the yearly Best Canadian Stories anthology as well as a fiction editor at some of the pre-eminent literary presses in the country for more than forty years, he has worked to support and champion several generations of our best writers. Literature in Canada would be far less without his efforts. Sifting through a lifetime of reading, writing, and thinking about the short story in this country and where it fits within the larger currents of world literature, Metcalf's magisterial The Canadian Short Story offers the most authoritative book on the subject to date. Most importantly, it includes an expanded and reconsidered Century List, Metcalf's critical guide to the best Canadian short story collections of the last 100 years. But more than a critical book, The Canadian Short Story is a love letter to the form, a passionate defense of the best of our literature, and a championing of those books and writers most often overlooked. It is a guide not only to what to read but also one of its author's most fervent desires, which aims to make better readers of us all.

Transient Questions, 2021-09-20 Mavis Gallant has been a leading literary figure in Canada since her first short story published in 1951 and has grown to be considered internationally as a modern master of the genre. Her writing is nuanced, sensitive, gifted, deep, and concise. She leaves everything open for the hidden potential that can always be discovered. Times change, society, history, politics may develop out of recognition. Cultures metamorphose. Literary landscapes and theories are renewed. But the classics of our time stay where they are, pillars of that which is solidly about us. Mavis Gallant's work is of that calibre; her writing will remain interesting and relevant no matter what else happens. This book is an exploration of what Gallant's readers are thinking now, where they place her in the panorama of literature, and what meaning she has for them now. Scholars continue to probe into the stories, their characters, the capsules of history they present and continue to find them challenging. As with Shakespeare, no amount of scrutiny will yield the final answer. That is how complex Gallant's writing is. Especially now, when the positioning of her characters is a more prominent condition in general, we need to review Gallant's artistic insights. As Francine Prose says in Harper's Magazine Gallant's cast of characters are a motley assortment of refugees fugitives and travelers and displaced persons scrambling on the margins of a society they will never belong to This is the modern condition As with other great writers Gallant shows herself to be prophetic in cutting down to the roots of the sensibility of our era We are reading her work and we are thinking about it and talking about it This book is part of that large conversation Contributors are Neil Besner Di Brandt Nicole C t John Lent Gerald Lynch Maria No lle Ng Peter Stevens Simone Vauthier Per Winther Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research Mapping with Words Sarah Wylie Krotz, 2019-03-27 Mapping with Words re conceptualizes early Canadian settler writing as literary cartography Examining the multitude of ways in which writers expanded the work of mapmakers it offers fresh readings of both familiar and obscure texts from the nineteenth century Margaret Atwood Shannon Hengen, Ashley Thomson, 2007-05-22 Authors Shannon Hengen and Ashley Thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed Canadian author Margaret Atwood since 1988 including her novels Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace and the 2000 Booker Prize winner The Blind Assassin Rather than just including Atwood's books this guide includes all of Atwood's works including articles short stories letters and individual poetry Adaptations of Atwood's works are also included as are some of her more public quotations Secondary entries i e interviews scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation The individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories Atwood's Works Adaptations Quotations Interviews Scholarly Resources Reviews of Atwood's Works and Reviews of Adaptations of Atwood's Works The book also includes a chapter entitled Atwood on the Web as well as extensive author and subject indexes This new bibliography significantly enhances access to Atwood material a feature that will be welcomed by university public and school librarians Margaret Atwood A Reference Guide 1988 2005 will appeal not only to Atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of Canada's greatest writers The Comeback John Ralston Saul, 2014-10-28 Once again John Ralston Saul presents the story of Canada

s past so that we may better understand its present and imagine a better future Historic moments are always uncomfortable Saul writes in this impassioned argument calling on all of us to embrace and support the comeback of Aboriginal peoples This he says is the great issue of our time the most important missing piece in the building of Canada The events that began late in 2012 with the Idle No More movement were not just a rough patch in Aboriginal relations with the rest of Canada What is happening today between Aboriginals and non Aboriginals is not about guilt or sympathy or failure or romanticization of the past It is about citizens rights It is about rebuilding relationships that were central to the creation of Canada These relationships are just as important to its continued existence The centrality of Aboriginal issues and peoples has the potential to open up a more creative way of imagining ourselves and a more honest narrative for Canada Wide in scope but piercing in detail The Comeback presents a powerful portrait of modern Aboriginal life in Canada in contrast with the perceived failings so often portrayed in politics and in media Saul illustrates his arguments by compiling a remarkable selection of letters speeches and writings by Aboriginal leaders and thinkers showcasing the extraordinarily rich moving and stable indigenous point of view across the centuries

Do You Want to Be Happy and Write? Robert Lecker, 2023-09-01 Michael Ondaatje has achieved international prominence and recognition in a way that few other writers have let alone Canadian writers This popularity is most pronounced for works of historical fiction such as The English Patient winner of the Golden Man Booker Prize and In the Skin of a Lion set in 1930s Toronto shortlisted for the Governor General's Award and winner of the Canada Reads competition in 2002 But Ondaatje has been writing for over fifty years and his innovative works include some of the most accomplished poetry in the English speaking world Taking its title from a question in his poem Tin Roof Do You Want to Be Happy and Write reassesses Ondaatje's writing and the role of the poet from his troubled explorations of the self reflexive artist to his most recent novels Comprehensive in both approach and coverage this new collection offers groundbreaking analysis informed by an understanding of Ondaatje's entire oeuvre placing early poetry collections like The Collected Works of Billy the Kid and There's a Trick with a Knife I'm Learning to Do alongside the full range of his novels and his extensive work as a literary editor The book highlights the transnational postcolonial and diasporic issues that have become increasingly apparent in Ondaatje's work Contributors explore key interests that have reappeared and been rethought across his fiction and poetry the construction of identity the nature of memory and its relation to family origins and history the human body as a site of contestation and struggle the contrast between Eastern and Western values and the Southeast Asian diaspora the writer's responsibility in depictions of war psychic trauma and genocide and an ongoing fascination with the visual and the media of photography and film An eclectic celebration of an iconic author Do You Want to Be Happy and Write offers an authoritative reference point for scholars and students of literature and reveals new facets of a major author to his readers around the world

Crosstalk Diana Brydon, Marta Dvořák, 2012-07-24 What are the fictions that shape Canadian engagements with the global What frictions emerge from these encounters In negotiating aesthetic and political approaches to Canadian cultural production within contexts of global circulation this collection argues for the value of attending to narratorial lyric and theatrical conventions in dialogue with questions of epistemological and social justice Using the twinned framing devices of crosstalk and cross sighting the contributing authors attend to how the interplay of the verbal and the visual maps public spheres of creative engagement today Individual chapters present a range of methodological approaches to understanding national culture and creative labour in global contexts Through their collective enactment of methodological crosstalk they demonstrate the productivity of scholarly debate across differences of outlook culture and training In highlighting convergences and disagreements the book sharpens our understanding of how literary and critical conventions and theories operate within and across cultures

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Floating Voice Stan Dragland, 1994 The writing of Duncan Campbell Scott has long represented a sympathetic understanding of Canada's Native peoples perhaps mistakenly so however as in his work as a bureaucrat Scott put in place white paternalistic policies that Native peoples resist to this day Floating Voice examines Scott's contradictions with renewed consideration of his best Indian fiction and poetry

Dominant Impressions Gerald Lynch, Angela Robberson, 1999 Canadian critics and scholars along with a growing number from around the world have long recognized the achievements of Canadian short story writers However these critics have tended to view the Canadian short story as a historically recent phenomenon This reappraisal corrects this mistaken view by exploring the literary and cultural antecedents of the Canadian short story Published in English

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

Temerity & Gall John Metcalf, 2022-05-31 Metcalf's talent is generous hectoring huge and remarkable Washington Post In Temerity surveys with no punches pulled the current state of

CanLit and offers a passionate defense of the promise and potential of Canadian writing In a 1983 editorial letter to the Globe and Mail celebrated Canadian novelist W P Kinsella railed that Mr Metcalf an immigrant continually and in the most galling manner has the temerity to preach to Canadians about their own literature Forty years later in spite of Kinsella s effort to discredit him in the name of a misguided nationalism both embarrassing and familiar John Metcalf still has the temerity and gall to preach to teach and to write passionately and uproariously about literature in Canada Part memoir meditation and apologia part criticism and pure Metcalf the present volume distills a lifetime of reading and writing thinking and collecting and continues his necessary work kicking against the ever present pricks As is the case with all of his critical work Temerity Gall will challenge delight anger and inspire in equal measure and is essential reading for anyone interested in literature in Canada and its place within the wider tradition of writing in English Temerity Gall is printed in a limited paperback edition of 750 copies signed and numbered by the author

Keepers of the Code Robert Lecker,2013-01-01 Robert Lecker explores the ways in which these anthologies contributed to the formation of a Canadian literary canon the extent to which this canon was tied to an ideal of English Canadian nationalism and the material conditions accounting for the anthologies production
