Joseph Ogden, 2009-09-02 The Island is somewhat fantasy somewhat biographical It is a tale I hoped I would not have to tell but it became an enormous source of inspiration Abigail Cagney dances her way through life in a most painful and disturbing waltz She wants to remain hidden derelict out of everyone s reach because she feels unworthy Everyone she sees knows her past Everyone whispers about her around the watercooler They point fingers laugh shake their heads in astonishment She is the core of evil for her world All she can do is imagine herself hidden and ignore the whispers But they stay in the back of her mind She must endure them as part of her punishment She swings on her front porch and watches the world She could be so happen among them But no She must keep her distance She is dirty She is vile She is what is wrong with the world In her mind But within is a woman longing to be free to join in the world she watches She finds a man someone interested in her as no man had been before She allows him into her world and tries to stand halfway in his But she cannot serve God and mammon She cannot stand half in shadow and half in light She must choose but she refuses the choice Until God strengthens His call for her soul She finds a letter intended for another but left for her to find part of the wisdom of her deceased mother It speaks of things she has not given thought to in years the Faith of her youth the remains of her family It tells her what she must do to find a better path to step into the light she already half occupies Even when she makes the choice to try it could be too late Her pain may be too strong The obstacles might prove too mighty But if she can find that mustard seed that moves mountains anything will be possible She journeys across the ocean into a world insane to her and foreign to many of her small town home There she finds her only living relative a bartender with accented wit a cabby with giant features and a love of hamburger a woman seeking a family and losing the pursuit a mentor whose heart needs the precious love of children and will risk anything to save Abby They all have lost something They all need something They ve come to the right place All will find what they need alone with God on The Island The ocean is waiting DIRE ENCOUNTERS Dolph C. Volker, 2015-03-08 It was a time prior to the last Ice Age where mammalian mega fauna and jumbo flora dominated the landscape Man was far from the dominant species on the planet Unknown centuries had passed since the last of the up rights had been eradicated or banished to the fringes of the great desert History faded with time as well as the knowledge about the wars between the two factions man and wolf Some of the written history remained in the form of legendary petroglyphs and pictographs located inside primitive caves dotting sporadically along the base of the northern and southern ranges of the Ormod Mountains The writings recorded great battles between the species and even among themselves What remained of the cave writings revealed a stagnation of war and hatred between Dire wolves and their enemy the up rights No wolf knew why they were enemies of man only that the ancient inscriptions publicized the hostilities between the species Conflict was the only definable moment in their historical relationship Pack leadership and the elders reinforced the lessons taught by the ancient writings that were scribed on the walls of their caves Man was the enemy and there would be no reconciliation

The Animal Dialogues Craig Childs, 2007-12-12 From one of the finest nature writers at work in America today a lyrical dramatic illuminating tour of the hidden domain of wild animals Whether recalling the experience of being chased through the Grand Canyon by a bighorn sheep swimming with sharks off the coast of British Columbia watching a peregrine falcon perform acrobatic stunts at 200 miles per hour or engaging in a tense face off with a mountain lion near a desert waterhole Craig Childs captures the moment so vividly that he puts the reader in his boots Each of the forty brief compelling narratives in The Animal Dialogs focuses on the author's own encounter with a particular species and is replete with astonishing facts about the species behavior habitat breeding and lifespan But the glory of each essay lies in Childs's ability to portray the sometimes brutal beauty of the wilderness to capture the individual essence of wild creatures to transport the reader beyond the human realm and deep inside the animal kingdom

El Sombre Davy L. Moody, 2009-09 In El Sombre Shadow of the Mast sequel to El Sombre Shadow of the Saguaro the author has attempted to use as background the Porfiorio Diaz regime in the early 1800s in Mexico Some of the characters in this fictional account are actual historical personages but the dialogues are completely fictional and not intended to reflect any strengths or weaknesses in the character of these individuals personally However in this fictional account they are used in abstract to portray the usual conflict of democracy and dictatorship the predator and the prey the oppressed and the oppressor with the fate of the innocent hanging in the balance This conflict of the ages will continue until the second appearance of The King of Kings and the Lord of Lords but in the meantime when the cause is just and the time critical God will always have his valiant man of the hour to help mankind cope with the occasion such a man as El Sombre Except for the Biblical truths contained herein the opinions expressed in the book are not those of the author but the opinions of a shadowy and mysterious figure known as El Sombre code name Shadow man who worked in that era under the auspices of a private enterprise known as High Command Liaison which in turn either accepted or rejected assignments at its own discretion from a world wide organization known as High Command which would later become known as the League of Nations and would Evolve into what we know today as the United Nations
