Building Synergy for High-Impact Educational Initiatives Janine Graziano, Lauren Chism Schmidt, 2016-05-17

Published in partnership with the Washington Center for Improving the Quality of Undergraduate Education First year seminars and learning communities are two of the most commonly offered high impact practices on U S campuses The goals of these initiatives are similar helping students make connections to faculty and other students improving academic performance and increasing persistence and graduation As such it is not surprising that many institutions choose to embed first year seminars in learning communities This volume explores the merger of these two high impact practices In particular it offers insight into how institutions connect them and the impact of those combined structures on student learning and success In addition to chapters highlighting strategies for designing teaching in and assessing combined programs case studies offer practical insights into the structures of these programs in a variety of campus settings Building a High-Impact Board-Superintendent Partnership Doug Eadie,2019-08-21 Building a High Impact Board Superintendent Partnership will consist of 11 brief chapters each covering a critical question that practitioners need to answer in building the board superintendent partnership Dynamics and Predictability of Large-Scale, High-Impact Weather and Climate Events Jianping Li,Richard Swinbank,Richard Grotjahn,Hans Volkert,2016-03-24 This book examines the dynamical processes between high impact weather and climate events and between atmospheric and ocean phenomena Developing and Sustaining Successful First-Year Programs Gerald M. Greenfield,Jennifer R. Keup,John N. Gardner,2013-07-29 Developing and Sustaining Successful First Year Programs First year programs and interventions have become critical launching pads for student success and retention in higher education However these programs often flounder not because of what they are trying to do but because of the ways in which they are implemented Developing and Sustaining Successful First Year Programs offers faculty academic administrators and student affairs professionals a comprehensive and practical resource that includes step by step guidance for developing new first year programs and enhancing existing programs The book explores the key elements that contribute to sustained student success and the programs that have the capacity to continue to meet student needs while making the most of scarce resources The authors show how to create and sustain critical partnerships put in place the needed organizational structures and include strategies for developing effective assessments and evaluations Developing and Sustaining Successful First Year Programs is filled with illustrative examples and profiles of successful programs from a range of institutions that vary in size type selectivity and culture Examples of common programs and interventions include summer bridge programs student orientation first year seminars learning communities residential programs developmental education and many more Based in scholarly literature theory and practice the book highlights the initiatives that facilitate the transition learning development and success of new college students Temporomandibular Disorders National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Health and Medicine Division,Board on Health Care Services,Board on Health Sciences Policy,Committee on Temporomandibular Disorders (TMDs): From Research Discoveries to Clinical Treatment,2020-06-01 Temporomandibular disorders TMDs are a set of more than 30 health disorders associated with both the temporomandibular joints and the muscles and tissues of the jaw TMDs have a range of causes and often co occur with a number of overlapping medical conditions including headaches fibromyalgia back pain and irritable bowel syndrome TMDs can be transient or long lasting and may be associated with problems that range from an occasional click of the jaw to severe chronic pain involving the entire orofacial region. Everyday activities including eating and talking are often difficult for people with TMDs and many of them suffer with severe chronic pain due to this condition. Common social activities that most people take for granted such as smiling, laughing and kissing can become unbearable. This dysfunction and pain and its associated suffering take a terrible toll on affected individuals, their families and their friends. Individuals with TMDs often feel stigmatized and invalidated in their experiences by their family, friends and often the health care community. Misjudgments and a failure to understand the nature and depths of TMDs can have severe consequences: more pain and more suffering for individuals, their families and our society. Temporomandibular Disorders: Priorities for Research and Care calls on a number of stakeholders across medicine, dentistry and other fields to improve the health and well-being of individuals with a TMD. This report addresses the current state of knowledge regarding TMD research, education and training, safety and efficacy of clinical treatments of TMDs and burden and costs associated with TMDs. The recommendations of Temporomandibular Disorders focus on the actions that many organizations and agencies should take to improve TMD research and care and improve the overall health and well-being of individuals with a TMD. Department, 2014-05-27. This Detailed Assessment of Observance of Basel Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision on Ireland reflects the regulatory and supervisory framework in place as of the date of the assessment. This assessment has been prepared according to the Revised Core Principles Methodology issued by the Basel Committee of Banking Supervision (BCBS). The Irish authorities chose to be assessed against the Essential and Additional Criteria but to be graded against only the Essential Criteria. Although there is no observed interference, the legislation provides for the approval of the Minister for Finance for setting the levy structure to fund supervision, denying a license application, involuntary revocation of a banking license. The Central Bank of Ireland (CBI) undertakes supervisory activities to understand the overall structure of the banking group for which it is ultimately responsible and supervises and monitors material activities including nonbanking activities conducted by entities in the wider group, both domestic and cross-border. Facilitating with Ease! Ingrid Bens, 2017-10-18.
