Holy Siege:

The Holy Bible ,1826 The Battle Rhetoric of Crusade and Holy War, c. 1099–c. 1222 Connor Christopher Wilson,2022-11-25 This book examines Latin narratives produced in the aftermath of the First Crusade and challenges the narrative of supposed brutality and amorality of warfare in this period instead focusing on the moral and didactic concerns surrounding warfare and violence with which medieval authors wrestled The battle oration a rousing harangue exhorting warriors to deeds of valour has been regarded as a significant aspect of warfare since the age of Xenophon and has continued to influence conceptions of campaigning and combat to the present day While its cultural and chronological pervasiveness attests to the power of this trope scholarly engagement with the literary phenomenon of the pre battle speech has been limited Moreover previous work on medieval battle rhetoric has only served to reinforce the supposed brutality and amorality of warfare in this period highlighting appeals to martial prowess a hatred for the enemy and promises of wealth and glory This book through an examination of Latin narratives produced in the aftermath of the First Crusade and the decades that followed challenges this understanding and illuminates the moral and didactic concerns surrounding warfare and violence with which medieval authors wrestled Furthermore while battle orations form a clear mechanism by which the fledgling crusading movement could be explored ideologically this comparative study reveals how non crusading warfare in this period was also being reconceptualised in light of changing ideas about just war authority and righteousness in Christian society This volume is perfect for researchers students and scholars alike interested in medieval history and military studies The Holy Land Peter Connolly,1998 Text pictures photographs and maps present the history of the Jews in Judea from the reign of Herod the Great through the governance of Pontius Pilate to the destruction of the Temple and the siege at Masada
