Home And Away Travel Stories:

Home and Away Neville Krasner, 2011 Although I have penned the odd verse since I was a youngster I started writing regularly when I married For the past forty three years I have composed for my wife Marion a poem for our anniversary her birthday on the following day and for Valentines Day She calls me a dreamy romantic and I probably am but I don't apologise for it The tradition has progressed so that I usually provide a piece for birthdays of my family occasionally for friends and also for special occasions These have been my main inspiration Two other stimuli act as my muse a love of travel and a love of Nature Professionally and on vacation I have travelled widely and on all modes of transport I am not particularly knowledgeable about Nature but I love observing the cycle of the seasons and their effect on birds and small animals in the area where I live

Home and Away Anny Scoones, 2011-07-06 In her best selling first book Home Tales of a Heritage Farm 2005 Anny Scoones introduced readers to historic Glamorgan Farm In Home and Away Anny presents more stories about the joys and sorrows excitements and mishaps and also takes readers farther afield sharing with them her travels to other parts of Canada to New York and to such places as Malaysia and Belarus Her travel tales offer not only her keen observations on what she sees and experiences while away but also her perspective from afar on the importance of having a place to return to that truly is home Anny has owned Glamorgan Farm since 2000 Located in North Saanich B C it's one of the original farms and homesteads on Vancouver Island established in 1870 by Richard John She is restoring the historic structures and raising heritage breeds of livestock The front meadows are gardened by an herb gardener and a group of mentally challenged adults who grow organic heirloom varieties of flowers and produce Anny writes candidly and colourfully about real things from visits with her family she is the daughter of internationally acclaimed artists Molly Lamb Bobak and Bruno Bobak to simple pleasures like arranging bowls of pears and hearing the owls in the woods at dusk She writes about making bonfires sitting with a dying horse playing with a 700 pound sow and visiting the SPCA Some of her tales are told with humour some in sadness but all tell the truth about living observing and creating whether at home or away

Home and Away Leigh Anne Howard, 2021-11-29 Home and Away explores how performative writing serve as a process that critically interrogates space place in relation to personal social cultural and political understanding By combining aesthetic expression and inquiry with critical reflection the contributors in this volume use a variety of narrative strategies autoethnography mystoriography creative cartography the lyric essay fictocriticism collage the screenplay and poetics to position place as the starting point for the aesthetic impulse The anthology showcases the power and potential of performative writing to illustrate the ways we interact with and in place provides examples of the ways one can express lived experience and demonstrates the ways discourses overlap while extending our understanding of identity and place whether one is home or away Although the chapters are fixed by their literary form in this volume many of chapters are best realized in a performance or shared publicly via an oral tradition This collection will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance communication
