

The Apple TV+ logo is positioned at the top center of the image. It features the iconic white Apple logo followed by the text "tv+" in a clean, sans-serif font. The background of the entire image is a moody, cinematic photograph of a man and a woman on a rocky beach at dusk or dawn. The man is crouching on the left, looking towards the camera, while the woman stands on the right, holding a camera up to her eye as if taking a picture. The ocean is in the background with gentle waves, and several seagulls are flying in the sky. The overall color palette is cool, with blues, greys, and the brown of the woman's coat.

becomes Los Angeles's Renowned Lesbian Dominatrix in this searing and darkly funny memoir that upends our ideas about desire class and power The dominatrix is the id of American femininity She says the words that we all wish we could say when we find ourselves frozen in the presence of men No is principal among them So writes Chris Belcher who appeared destined for a life of conventional femininity after she took first place in an infant beauty contest a minor glory that followed her around a working class town of 1 600 people in rural West Virginia But when she came out as queer the conservative community that had once celebrated its prettiest baby turned on her A decade later living in Los Angeles and trying to stay afloat in the early years of a PhD program Belcher plunges into the work of a pro domme Branding herself as Los Angeles's Renowned Lesbian Dominatrix she specializes in male clients who want a domme to make them feel worthless shameful and weak all the abuse regularly heaped upon women for free A queer woman whom men can trust with the unorthodox sides of their sexualities Belcher is paid to be the keeper of the fantasies that they can't enact in their everyday relationships But moonlighting as a sex worker also carries risks like the not so submissive who tries to turn the tables and the jealous client out for revenge As Belcher moves between the embodied world of the pro domme and the abstract realm of academia she discovers how lessons from the classroom apply to the dungeon and vice versa Still fear that her doctoral program won't approve burdens her with a double life Pretty Baby is her second coming out In this sharp and discerning memoir we see through Belcher's eyes how power and desire can be renegotiated or reinforced Putting Family First William J.

Doherty, Barbara Carlson, 2002-08-02 The founders of a lauded family advocacy organization present a guide for reclaiming family life even in the most hectic households In the past twenty years children's free time has declined by twelve hours a week time spent on structured sports activities has doubled family dinners are down by a third and the number of families taking vacations together has decreased by 28 percent When William J Doherty and Barbara Z Carlson observed this trend in their own families and community they took action and founded Family Life First an organization committed to helping parents reclaim family time Doherty and Carlson offer realistic ways to regain valuable family connections and embark on more balanced meaningful relationships at home Drawing on their years of hands on experience they share tips for time crunched parents on how to get everyone to sit down for family meals make bedtime a meaningful end to the day plan family outings and vacations make time for your marriage More than just a time management manual this book delves into the issues that lie at the heart of all family related choices revealing innovative ways to address scheduling conflicts competitiveness and the many other situations that cause daily angst Offering a new perspective on a fraying institution Putting Family First restores a sense of fulfillment fun and security to the family once again Wallace's Farm and Dairy, 1910
