Home A Home History Of An Idea:

Home Witold Rybczynski, 1987-07-07 Walk through five centuries of homes both great and small from the smoke filled manor halls of the Middle Ages to today's Ralph Lauren designed environments on a house tour like no other one that delightfully explicates the very idea of home You'll see how social and cultural changes influenced styles of decoration and furnishing learn the connection between wall hung religious tapestries and wall to wall carpeting discover how some of our most welcome luxuries were born of architectural necessity and much more Most of all Home opens a rare window into our private lives and how we really want to live

At Home Irene Cieraad, 2006-09-28 In a volume that brings together a wide range of disciplines art history sociology architecture cultural anthropology and environmental psychology Irene Cieraad presents a collection of articles that focuses on the practices and symbolism of domestic space in Western society These essays go beyond the discussion of conventional issues such as aesthetics and social standing At Home takes an in depth anthropological look at how different cultures use their homes as a visual model of the culture's social structure

Home Witold Rybczynski, 1988 Home Alison Blunt, Robyn Dowling, 2022-05-30 Home articulates a critical geography of home in which home is understood as an emotive place and spatial imaginary that encompasses lived experiences of everyday domestic life alongside a wider and often contested sense of being and belonging in the world Engaging with the burgeoning cross disciplinary interest in home since the first edition was published this significantly revised and updated second edition contains new research boxes illustrations and contemporary examples throughout It also adds a new chapter on Home and the City that extends the scalar understanding of home to the urban The book develops the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of a critical geography of home drawing on key feminist postcolonial and housing thinkers as well as contemporary methodological currents in non representational thinking and performance The book's chapters consider the making and unmaking of home across the domestic scale house as home the urban city as home national nation as home and homemaking in relation to transnational migration and diaspora Each chapter includes illustrative examples from diverse geographical contexts and historical time periods Chapters also address some of the key cross cutting dimensions of home across these scales including digital connectivity art and performance more than human constructions of home and violence and dispossession The book ends with a research agenda for home in a world of COVID 19 The book provides an understanding of home that has three intersecting dimensions that material and imaginative geographies of home are closely intertwined that home power and identity are intimately linked and that geographies of home are multi scalar This framework the examples used to illustrate it and the intended audience of academics and students across the humanities and social sciences will together shape the field of home studies into the future

Fictions of Home Martin Mülheim, 2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics

Home: The Foundations of Belonging Paul O'Connor, 2017-11-22 Questions of home and belonging have never been more topical Populist politicians in both Europe and America play on anxieties over globalisation by promising to reconstitute the national home through cutting immigration and taking back control Increasing numbers of young people are unable to afford home ownership a trend with implications for the future shape of families and communities The dominant conceptualisations of home in the twentieth century the nation state and the suburban nuclear household are in crisis yet they continue to shape our personal and political aspirations Home The Foundations of Belonging puts these issues into context by drawing on a range of disciplines to offer a deep anthropological and historical perspective on home Beginning with a vision of modernity as characterised by both spiralling liminality and an ongoing quest for belonging it plumbs the archaic roots of Western civilisation and assembles a wide body of comparative anthropological evidence to illuminate the foundations of a sense of home Home is theorised as a stable centre around which we organise both everyday routines and perspectives on reality bringing order to a chaotic world and overcoming liminality Constituted by a set of ongoing processes which concentrate and embody meaning in intimate relationships everyday rituals and familiar places a shared home becomes the foundation for community and society The Foundations of Belonging thus elevates home to the position of a foundational sociological and anthropological concept at a moment when the crisis of globalisation has opened the way to a revaluation of the local

Stories of Home Devika Chawla, Stacy Holman Jones, 2015-09-17 Stories of Home Place Identity Exile offers a window into the distinct ways that home is theorized and conceptualized across disciplines The essays in this volume consider how people speak and story home in their everyday lives why home is central to our notion of who we are and how making home a unit of analysis in research makes a strong conceptual contribution to the field of communication This collection engages home from diverse contexts and disparate philosophical underpinnings at the same time the essays converse with each other by centering their foci on the relationship between home place identity and exile Home how we experience it and what it says about the selves we come to occupy is an exigent question of our contemporary moment Stories of Home Place Identity Exile delivers timely and critical perspectives on these important questions

The American Idea of Home Bernard Friedman, 2017-05-02 Over thirty leaders in American architecture discuss the most significant issues in the field today Home is an idea Meghan Daum writes in her foreword a story we tell ourselves about who we are and who and what we want closest in our midst In The American Idea of Home documentary filmmaker Bernard Friedman interviews more than thirty leaders in the field of architecture about a constellation of ideas relating to housing and home The interviewees include Pritzker Prize winners Thom Mayne Richard Meier and Robert Venturi Pulitzer Prize winners Paul Goldberger and Tracy Kidder American Institute of Architects head Robert Ivy and legendary architects such as Denise Scott Brown Charles Gwathmey Kenneth Frampton and Robert A M Stern The American idea of home and the many types of housing that embody it launch lively wide ranging conversations about some of the most vital and important issues in architecture today The topics that Friedman and his interviewees discuss illuminate five overarching themes the functions and meanings of home history tradition and change in residential architecture activism sustainability and the environment cities suburbs and regions and technology innovation and materials Friedman frames the interviews with an extended introduction that highlights these themes and helps readers appreciate the common concerns that underlie projects as disparate as Katrina cottages and Frank Lloyd Wright Usonian houses Readers will come away from these thought provoking interviews with an enhanced awareness of the under the hood kinds of design decisions that fundamentally shape our ideas of home and the dwellings in which we live

Home Territories David Morley, 2002-09-11 Home Territories examines how traditional ideas of home homeland and nation have been destabilised both by new patterns of migration and by new communication technologies which routinely transgress the symbolic boundaries around both the private household and the nation state David Morley analyses the varieties of exile diaspora displacement connectedness mobility experienced by members of social groups and relates the micro structures of the home the family and the domestic realm to contemporary debates about the nation community and cultural identities He explores issues such as the role of gender in the construction of domesticity and the conflation of ideas of maternity and home and engages with recent debates about the territorialisation of culture

Home and International Law Henrietta Zeffert, 2024-03-26 This book is about home and international law More specifically it is about the profound and frequently devastating transformations of home that are happening almost everywhere in the world today and what international law has to do with them Through three stories of home the desert home the lake home and the city home this book traces how the everyday operations of international law shape the material affective and imaginative experience of home It argues that international law s homemaking work is characterised by acts of domination practices of resistance and the production of unhomely spaces However the book also considers whether and how the liberatory potential of international law could be unlocked through the metaphor of home This book draws from fieldwork conducted by the author in Palestine Cambodia and the United Kingdom It takes a global socio legal approach to home and international law informed by feminist political theory feminist geography home studies and contemporary critical approaches to international law It is the first academic work to examine the relationship between home and international law This book s global socio legal approach to home and international law will be of interest to those teaching and studying in international law socio legal studies legal pluralism and legal geography

The Original Home School Series Charlotte Mason, 2013-06-28 This is the complete unabridged and authorized edition of the works of turn of the century British educator Charlotte Mason with a forward by Dr John Thorley of The Charlotte Mason College This six volume set includes over 2400 pages on education child training and parenting Recognized as a pioneer in home education and major school reforms Charlotte Mason s practical methods are as revolutionary today as when they were first written These books were out of print for over 80 years until Dean Karen Andreola brought them to America in while returning from a mission s trip in the spring of 1987 A Charlotte Mason educational revival soon followed Charlotte Mason s writings reflect a lifetime of experience teaching children and training teachers Her topics are meaty Her ideas radiate brilliantly in the thoughts of those who take the time to ponder them With each idea comes a practical how to for bringing up children within the educational life The power of attention moral character the discipline of habit safeguarding a child s curiosity is a tiny peek at the topics presented Although Miss Mason began writing in the 1880s her principles still apply Today s homeschool parents are seeing first hand how wonderfully they work After ten years of intense study and application of Miss Mason s principles with her own children Karen Andreola wrote A Charlotte Mason Companion Personal Reflections on the Gentle Art of Learning Now today s parents can see what a Charlotte Mason education looks like in a contemporary setting while gleaning from its many benefits

The Idea of Home in Law Lorna Fox O'Mahony, James A. Sweeney, 2016-03-03 The Idea of Home in Law Displacement and Dispossession explores an important set of legal and policy issues surrounding the concepts of home and homelessness taking a growing area of legal scholarship into the new arena of human rights and international law The collection considers the ideas concerning home both in the sense of the dwelling place as a special type of property and territorial claims to homeland which underpin many contemporary legal problems by examining a range of contexts where people are displaced or dispossessed from their homes The essays focusing on dispossession consider themes ranging from mortgage and rent arrears in the UK to responses to the foreclosure crisis in the USA and from eviction for the purposes of economic development in South Africa to the exclusion of asylum seekers from the UK's social housing and welfare provision and within the framework of the European Convention on Human Rights The displacement theme meanwhile examines transnational home issues from the experiences of exiles and refugees in areas of conflict to the impact of the broader context of economic social and cultural rights on attempts to protect housing and home through international law At the heart of each essay the contributors experts from across the fields of law policy and housing rights examine the circumstances in which displacement and dispossession take place and reconsider how law and policy respond to such circumstances with a particular focus on the impact of loss of home for the human person At a time of particular and increasing concern about security of tenure and the role of law and policy in protecting people who are vulnerable to forced eviction The Idea of Home in Law presents a bold opportunity to raise questions about the rights and norms associated with housing and home and to generate new insights for scholarship and for national and international policy debates concerning displacement and dispossession

Telling Our Stories of Home Kathy A. Perkins, 2021-12-16 What is home The answer seems obvious But Telling Our Stories of Home an international collection of eleven plays by and about women from Lebanon Haiti Venezuela Uganda Palestine Brazil India UK and the US complicates the answer The answer includes stories as far ranging as enslaved women trying to create a home one by any means necessary and one in the ocean siblings wrestling with their differing devotion to home after their mother's death a family wrestling with the government's refusal to allow the burial of their soldier son in their hometown a young scholar attempting to feel at home after studying abroad a young man fleeing home due to his sexual orientation only to discover the difficulty of creating home elsewhere and Siddis Indians of African descent continuing to struggle for acceptance despite having lived in India for over 600 years These are voices seldom represented to a larger audience The plays and performance pieces range from 20 to 90 minute pieces and include a mix of monologue duologue and ensemble plays Short yet powerful they allow fantastic performance opportunities particularly in an age of social distancing with flexible casts that together invite the theme of home to be performed and studied on the page The plays include The House by Arz Khodr Lebanon Happy by Kia Corthron US The Blue of the Island by Velyne Trouillot Haiti Nine Lives by Zodwa Nyoni UK Leaving but Can't Let Go by Lupe Gehrenbeck Venezuela Questions of Home by Doreen Baingana Uganda On the Last Day of Spring by Fidaa Zidan Palestine Letting Go and Moving On by Louella Dizon San Juan US Antimemories of an Interrupted Trip by Aldri Anuncia o Brazil So Goes We by Jacqueline E Lawton US and Those Who Live Here Those Who Live There by Geeta P Siddi and Girija P Siddi India

At Home in Diaspora Jackie Assayag, Véronique Bénéï, 2003 During the past two decades at the same time that the South Asian presence in the U S and Europe has become an increasingly visible part of mainstream social life and popular culture scholars of South Asian descent have come to occupy many prominent positions within the Western academy contributing to the development of disciplines across the social sciences and humanities In this collection of highly personal essays leading figures in anthropology history and cultural and literary studies reflect on the complex interplay between individual and collective trajectories examining their own experiences as students scholars and teachers Their narratives trace the arc of interactions between East and West from the late colonial period through Indian Independence the Cold War the radicalism of the 1960s and the development of subaltern and postcolonial studies to the current conjuncture Throughout these writers explore the past and future significance of area studies as a paradigm for education and scholarship Contributors are Shahid Amin Arjun Appadurai Urvashi Butalia Dipesh Chakrabarty Partha Chatterjee Vasudha Dalmia Prasenjit Duara Ramachandra Guha Akhil Gupta Sudipta Kaviraj Purnima Mankekar Gyan Prakash and Sanjay Subrahmanyam

The Top Books of the Year Home A Home History Of An Idea The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Home A Home History Of An Idea : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Home A Home History Of An Idea : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pappen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
