Homelands Heartlands:

The Black Homelands of South Africa Jeffrey Butler, Robert I. Rotberg, John Adams, 1978-10-09 Monograph examining the political development and economic development of the Black homelands regions of Bophuthatswana and Kwazulu Covers legal aspects of apartheid political and economic administration sources of income and public finance leadership development and homeland public administration etc and comments on relevant legislation and future development planning

Homelands South Africa. Bantu Investment Corporation, 1976      South African Homelands as Frontiers Steffen Jensen, Olaf Zenker, 2018-02-02 This book explores what happened to the homelands in many ways the ultimate apartheid disgrace after the fall of apartheid The nine chapters contribute to understanding the multiple configurations that currently exist in areas formerly declared homelands or Bantustans Using the concept of frontier zones the homelands emerge as areas in which the future of the South African postcolony is being renegotiated contested and remade with hyper real intensity This is so because the many fault lines left over from apartheid its loose ends so to speak between white and black between different ethnicities between rich and poor or differentiated by gender generation and nationality between traditions and modernities or between wilderness and human habitation are particularly acute and condensed in these so called communal areas Hence the book argues that it is particularly in these settings that the postcolonial promise of liberation and freedom must face its test As such the book offers highly nuanced and richly detailed analyses that go to the heart of the diverse dilemmas of post apartheid South Africa as a whole but simultaneously also provides in condensed form an extended case study on the predicaments of African postcoloniality in general This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies

Hate in the Homeland Cynthia Miller-Idriss, 2022-01-11 A startling look at the unexpected places where violent hate groups recruit young people Hate crimes Misinformation and conspiracy theories Foiled white supremacist plots The signs of growing far right extremism are all around us and communities across America and around the globe are struggling to understand how so many people are being radicalized and why they are increasingly attracted to violent movements Hate in the Homeland shows how tomorrow's far right nationalists are being recruited in surprising places from college campuses and mixed martial arts gyms to clothing stores online gaming chat rooms and YouTube cooking channels Instead of focusing on the how and why of far right radicalization Cynthia Miller Idriss seeks answers in the physical and virtual spaces where hate is cultivated Where does the far right do its recruiting When do young people encounter extremist messaging in their everyday lives Miller Idriss shows how far right groups are swelling their ranks and developing their cultural intellectual and financial capacities in a variety of mainstream settings She demonstrates how young people on the margins of our communities are targeted in these settings and how the path to radicalization is a nuanced process of moving in and out of far right scenes throughout adolescence and adulthood Hate in the Homeland is essential for understanding the tactics and underlying ideas of modern far right extremism This eye opening book takes readers into the mainstream places and spaces where today's far right is engaging and ensnaring young people and reveals innovative strategies we can use to combat extremist radicalization

Latino Heartland Sujey Vega, 2015-07-17 Addresses the politics of immigration in the everyday lives of one community National immigration debates have thrust both opponents of immigration and immigrant rights supporters into the news But what happens once the rallies end and the banners come down What is daily life like for Latinos who have been presented nationally as terrorists drug smugglers alien gangs and violent criminals Latino Heartland offers an ethnography of the Latino and non Latino residents of a small Indiana town showing how national debate pitted neighbor against neighbor and the strategies some used to combat such animosity It conveys the lived impact of divisive political rhetoric on immigration and how race gender class and ethnicity inform community belonging in the twenty first century Latino Heartland illuminates how community membership was determined yet simultaneously re made by those struggling to widen the scope of who was imagined as a legitimate resident citizen of this Midwestern space The volume draws on interviews with Latinos both new immigrants and long standing U S citizens and whites as well as African Americans to provide a sense of the racial dynamics in play as immigrants asserted their right to belong to the community Latino Hoosiers asserted a right to redefine what belonging meant within their homes at their spaces of worship and in the public eye Through daily acts of ethnic belonging Spanish speaking residents navigated their own sense of community that did not require that they abandon their difference just to be accepted In Latino Heartland Sujey Vega addresses the politics of immigration showing us how increasingly diverse towns can work toward embracing their complexity

Home Front in the American Heartland Patty Sotirin, Steven A. Walton, Sue Collins, 2020-05-28 This collection offers a multifaceted exploration of World War One and its aftermath in the northern American Heartland a region often overlooked in wartime histories The chapters feature archival and newspaper documentation and visual imagery from this era The first section Heartland Histories explores experiences of conscription and home front mobilization in the small communities of the heartland highlighting tensions associated with patriotism class ethnicities and locale In one chapter the previously unpublished cartoon art of a USAF POW displays his Midwestern sensibilities Section Two Homefront Propaganda examines the cultural networks disseminating national war messages notably the critical work of local theaters Four Minute Men the Allied War Exhibitions and the local commemorative displays of military relics Section Three Gender in and War highlights aspects often overshadowed by male experiences of the war itself including the patriotic mother androgynous representations in wartime propaganda and masculine violence following the war Together this volume provides rich portraits of the complexities of heartland home front experiences and legacies

Homeland Security James J. F. Forest, 2006-06-30 America is a target the homeland is under threat While Americans have been targets of terrorist attacks for quite some time September 11 2001 awoke the nation to the reality that we are vulnerable in our homes our places of work and worship and our means of public transportation And yet we must continue to function as best we can as the world's most vibrant economic and political community The current threat environment requires greater engagement with the public as the necessary eyes and ears of the nation s homeland security infrastructure However to be effective the public must be equipped with the knowledge of where and why specific locations and activities may be a terrorist target what is being done to protect those targets and how they can help This three volume set answers that need The chapters of each volume of Homeland Security revolve around a core of central questions Are we safer today than we were pre 9 11 What steps have been taken in all these areas to protect ourselves What are the threats we face and what new threats have developed since 9 11 Are we staying one step ahead of those who wish to do us harm In 2002 more than 400 million people 122 million cars 11 million trucks 2 4 million freight cars and 8 million containers entered the United States Nearly 60 000 vessels entered the United States at its 301 ports of entry Clearly the amount of activity this represents will require a long term commitment to innovation organizational learning and public vigilance to complement an already overstretched network of government agencies and security professionals

Meth Wars Travis Linnemann, 2018-08-28 How the War on Drugs is maintained through racism authority and public opinion From the hit television series Breaking Bad to daily news reports anti drug advertising campaigns and highly publicized world wide hunts for narcoterrorists such as Joaquin El Chapo Guzman the drug methamphetamine occupies a unique and important space in the public s imagination In Meth Wars Travis Linnemann situates the meth epidemic within the broader culture and politics of drug control and mass incarceration Linnemann draws together a range of examples and critical interdisciplinary scholarship to show how methamphetamine and the drug war more generally are part of a larger governing strategy that animates the politics of fear and insecurity and links seemingly unrelated concerns such as environmental dangers the politics of immigration and national security policing tactics and terrorism The author s unique analysis presents a compelling case for how the supposed meth epidemic allows politicians small town police and government counter narcotics agents to engage in a singular policing project in service to the broader economic and geostrategic interests of the United States

Blacks Greatest Homeland Jubil Aka, 2006-06

In the last six years Nigeria has broken the grip of dictatorship poverty and corruption to emerge as one of Africa s most peaceful nations A role model for other developing countries Nigeria now enjoys its position as a peace and power broker defying the odds of its past Home to the world's greatest concentration of black people and led by President Olusegun Obasanjo Nigeria now enjoys economic prosperity and the fruits of democracy But these successes were fraught with challenges The denigration and stereotyping of black people created a constant barrier to change one that was not easily overcome Dr Jubril Olabode Aka delivers a compelling portrayal of Nigeria focusing on the country's emerging force for tolerance and hope Aka discusses such topics as peaceful conflict resolution Nigeria's foreign policy the government's success in eliminating fraud and corruption and the need to eradicate discrimination Blacks Greatest Homeland examines Nigeria's history leadership and future offering an honest and positive look at the sweeping changes Nigeria has made in the last decade Place in the

Homeland? Russell King, Nilay Kilinc, 2025-02-28 What happens when the second generation the children of immigrants moves to their parents homeland A Place in the Homeland Turkish German Return Migration answers this question for the Turkish German second generation sons and daughters of the Turkish guestworkers and political refugees who migrated to Germany in the 1960s 1970s and 1980s Based on 71 in depth narrative interviews their life stories of growing up in German industrial cities and then returning to Turkey are traced through their experiences of childhood and socialisation relocation to Turkey earning a living managing family and other relationships adapting to an environment that many found challenging and developing new hybrid identities in the ancestral homeland The key finding is that place matters and experiences are compared and contrasted between second generation returnees in the megalopolis of Istanbul the tourist city of Antalya and a range of provincial urban and rural environments in other regions of Turkey Imperial Heartland David

Holland, 2023-08-17 Working class Britons played a crucial role in the pioneering settlement and integration of South Asians in imperial Britain Using a host of new and neglected sources Imperial Heartland revises the history of early South Asian immigration to Britain focusing on the northern English city of Sheffield Rather than viewing immigration through the lens of inevitable conflict this study takes an alternative approach situating mixed marriages and inter racial social networks centrally within the South Asian settlement of modern Britain Whilst acknowledging the episodic racial conflict of the early inter war period David Holland challenges assumptions that insurmountable barriers of race religion and culture existed between the British working classes and non white newcomers Imperial Heartland closely examines the reactions of working class natives to these young South Asian men and overturns our pre conceptions that hostility to perceived racial or national difference was an overriding pre occupation of working class people during this period Imperial Heartland therefore offers a fresh and inspiring new perspective on the social and cultural history of modern Britain A House of Many Mansions tripartite community in Chicago Conclusion Convergences and divergences      Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections Joleen Steyn Kotze, Narnia Bohler-Muller, 2020-12-18 Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections is a critical reflection on the key lessons of Elections 2019 in South Africa focusing on the future of the country's electoral democracy. The volume engages questions on land election campaigns, voter turnout, voter apathy and how opposition parties will be forced to co-exist in the context of declining electoral dominance the ANC once comfortably held. An important reflection on the lessons of the 2019 South African General Elections, the contributors ask Quo Vadis South Africa. The 2019 General Elections marked a watershed in South Africa's political landscape. The ANC under the banner of a narrative of regeneration and getting back on the moral path dipped below the 60 % mark for the first time in South Africa's democratic history. This decline in electoral support for the party may be interpreted as a degeneration of the ANC through the loss of its moral stature, the erosion of its integrity and disillusionment with its performance as a governing party. Opposition political parties could not capitalise on this seeming disillusionment with the ruling ANC. Caught in their own factional battles and in the midst of corruption scandals, opposition parties were unable to successfully increase their share of the vote and capture the undecided and disillusioned voter. Considering the future of South Africa's electoral democracy at 25 years of democracy, Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections will be of great interest to scholars of African Studies, South Africa Governance and Elections. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Politikon: South African Journal of Political Studies.      New Histories of South Africa's Apartheid-Era Bantustans Shireen Ally, Arianna Lissoni, 2017-06-26 The bantustans or homelands were created by South Africa's apartheid regime as ethnically defined territories for Africans. Granted self-governing and independent status by Pretoria, they aimed to deflect the demands for full political representation by black South Africans and were shunned by the anti-apartheid movement. In 1972, Steve Biko wrote that politically the bantustans are the greatest single fraud ever invented by white politicians. With the end of apartheid and the first democratic elections of 1994, the bantustans formally ceased to exist, but their legacies remain inscribed in South Africa's contemporary social, cultural, political and economic landscape. While the older literature on the bantustans has tended to focus on their repressive role and political illegitimacy, this edited volume offers new approaches to the histories and afterlives of the former bantustans in South Africa by a new generation of scholars. This book was originally published as various special issues of the South African Historical Journal.
