Homing Instinct Using Your Lifestyle To Design And Build Your Home:

Homing Instinct John Connell, 1998 For true hands on builders and armchair architects a fully illustrated guidebook to every aspect of planning designing and constructing a home written by the visionary co founder of the Yestermorrow Design Building School Includes questionnaires that help readers identify sequences of their lives Illustrated The Routledge Companion to Women in Architecture Anna Sokolina, 2021-06-28 The Routledge Companion to Women in Architecture illuminates the names of pioneering women who over time continue to foster shape and build cultural spiritual and physical environments in diverse regions around the globe It uncovers the remarkable evolution of women s leadership professional perspectives craftsmanship and scholarship in architecture from the preindustrial age to the present The book is organized chronologically in five parts outlining the stages of women s expanding engagement leadership and contributions to architecture through the centuries It contains twenty nine chapters written by thirty three recognized scholars committed to probing broader topographies across time and place and presenting portraits of practicing architects leaders teachers writers critics and other kinds of professionals in the built environment The intertwined research sets out debates questions and projects around women in architecture stimulates broader studies and discussions in emerging areas and becomes a catalyst for academic programs and future publications on the subject The novelty of this volume is in presenting not only a collection of case studies but in broadening the discipline by advancing an incisive overview of the topic as a whole It is an invaluable resource for architectural historians academics students and professionals Green Culture Kevin Wehr, 2011-05-03 Green Culture An A to Z Guide explores the on going paradigm shift in culture and lifestyles toward promoting a sustainable environment After years of discussion about the environment dating back to the 1960s counter culture the recent explosion of green initiatives has induced the general public to embrace all things green from recycling in the home to admiring green celebrities This volume assesses the green cultural transformations by presenting some 150 articles of importance to students of sociology history political science communications public relations anthropology literature arts and drama Presented in A to Z format the articles include appealing topics from green Hollywood to green spirituality green art and green restaurants This work culminates in an outstanding reference available in both print and electronic formats for academic university and public libraries Vivid photographs searchable hyperlinks numerous cross references an extensive resource guide and a clear accessible writing style make the Green Society volumes ideal for classroom use as well as for research The Perfect $100,000 House Karrie Jacobs, 2007-05-29 A home of one s own has always been a cornerstone of the American dream fulfilling like nothing else the desire for comfort financial security independence and with a little luck even a touch of distinctive character or even beauty But what we have come to regard as almost a national birthright has recently begun to elude more and more prospective homebuyers Where housing is concerned affordable and well crafted rarely exist together Or do they For years founding editor in chief of Dwell magazine and noted architecture and design critic Karrie Jacobs had been confronting this question both professionally and personally Finally she decided to see for herself whether it was possible to build the home of her own dreams for a reasonable sum The Perfect 100 000 House is the story of that quest a search that takes her from a two week crash course in housebuilding in Vermont to a road trip of some 14 000 miles In the course of her journey Jacobs encounters a group of intrepid and visionary architects and builders working to revolutionize the way Americans think about homes about construction techniques and about the very idea of community By her trip s end Jacobs has not only had a practical and sobering education in the economics aesthetics and politics of homebuilding but has been spurred to challenge her own deeply held beliefs about what constitutes an ideal home The Perfect 100 000 House is a compelling and inspiring demonstration that we can live in homes that are sensible modest and beautiful Dwell, 2005-01 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

The Emerald City and Other Essays on the Architectural Imagination Daniel Willis, 1999 In The Emerald City Dan Willis takes us on a flight of imagination that paradoxically never strays far from the most tangible even intimate subjects His essays range from the Tower of Babel to the Wizard of Oz from Christo to Christmas trees from the lightness of being to the weight of architecture This ultimately optimistic book suggests that architecture is as vital as ever It is tempting to say that our present cultural situation has rendered architecture nearly impossible if not unnecessary But it is also possible to look to what our lives at the turn of the millennium typically lack fulfillment spirituality a sense of belonging weight and to conclude that the ground for architecture has never been more fertile The texts intelligent and readable draw equally from literary sources architectural practice philosophical analyses pop culture and everyday experiences Willis s perspective as a writer architect artist and teacher informs his work his texts are at once reflective and proactive as they challenge readers to rethink their participation in the built environment Accompanying the text are the author s original illustrations which link the forms and forces surrounding architecture at the end of the twentieth century in novel thought provoking ways Fine Homebuilding, 1999

The Natural Building Companion Jacob Deva Racusin, Ace McArleton, 2012 Natural buildings not only bring satisfaction to their makers and joy to their occupants they also leave the gentlest footprint on the environment In this complete reference to natural building philosophy design and technique Jacob Deva Racusin and Ace McArleton walk builders through planning and construction The Natural Building Companion provides the tools necessary to understand basic principles of building science including structural and thermal engineering and hydrodynamics This guide offers thorough up to date and advanced installation details and performance characteristics of straw bale straw clay woodchip clay and cellulose wall systems as well as earthen and stone wall systems and a variety of framing roofing flooring mechanical system and finishing options This fully illustrated volume informs professionals making the transition from conventional building homeowners embarking on their own construction or green builders who want comprehensive guidance on natural building options The book part of the The Yestermorrow Design Build Library is accompanied by an instructional DVD Architectural Record ,1998-10 Vermont Magazine ,1994 Dwell ,2005 Build it with Bales Matts Myhrman,S.
