"Homo religiosus" in Mircea Eliade. An anthropological evaluation. - Leiden: Brill 1976. VI, 210 S. 8° John A. Saliba,1976 Pipe, Bible, and Peyote among the Oglala Lakota Paul B. Steinmetz, S.J.,1998-12-01 When Paul B Steinmetz worked among the Oglala Lakota in South Dakota he prayed with the Sacred Pipe conversed with medicine men and participated in their religious ceremonies Steinmetz describes the history belief systems and contemporary ceremonies of three religious groups among the Oglala Lakota traditional Lakota religion the Native American Church and the Body of Christ Independent Church a small Pentecostal group On the basis of these descriptions Steinmetz discusses the interdynamics of Pipe Bible and Peyote and offers a model for understanding Oglala religious identity Steinmetz maintains that a sense of sacramentalism is essential in understanding Native American religions and that the mutual influence between Lakota religion and Christianity has been far more extensive than most scholars have suggested The Concept of "homo Religiosus" in the Works of Mircea Eliade John Albert Saliba,1971 Myth and Religion in Mircea Eliade Douglas Allen,2002 This is an interesting study with a great deal of information on Eliade s main themes and a detailed account of his understanding of myth The Theology and Philosophy of Eliade C. Olson,1992-07-21 The primary focus of this study is to view Eliade as not only a historian of religions but also as a theologian a philosopher novelist and as someone engaged in cross cultural dialogue with other religious traditions Besides attempting to view Eliade s work from a variety of perspectives this study contends that the scholarly work of Eliade cannot be separated from his own personal quest for meaning

NVMEN, the Academic Study of Religion, and the IAHR Tim Jensen,Armin Geertz,2015-11-24 Nvmen publishes papers representing the most recent scholarship in all areas of the history of religions ranging from antiquity to contemporary history It covers a diversity of geographical regions and religions of the past as well as of the present The approach of the journal to the study of religion is strictly non confessional While the emphasis lies on empirical source based research typical contributions also address issues that have a wider historical or comparative significance for the advancement of the discipline Numen also publishes papers that discuss important theoretical innovations in the study of religion and reflective studies on the history of the discipline Brill is proud to present this special volume of articles compiled to celebrate the occasion of the 60th anniversary of NVMEN International Review for the History of Religions in 2014 The articles in this volume have been selected under the auspices of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR and reflect critically on the past present and future of NVMEN the IAHR and the study of the History of Religions The Human Being in Contemporary Philosophical Conceptions Nikolai Omelchenko,2009-03-26 This book is a collection of the selected proceedings of the 4th International Conference Human Being in Contemporary Philosophical Conceptions which was held under the patronage of UNESCO at Volgograd State University Russia on May 28 31 2007 In the letter to the organizers Mr Ko chiro Matsuura wrote I should like to congratulate you on this important initiative to promote philosophical reflection which is one of the central objectives of UNESCO s Intersectoral Strategy on Philosophy There is an interesting fact the 19th World Congress of Philosophy in Moscow 1993 had no session on philosophical anthropology the next Congress in Boston 1998 had one such session the 21st Congress of Philosophy in Istanbul 2003 had already four sessions and the 22nd World Congress of Philosophy in Seoul 2008 had six sessions on philosophical anthropology Obviously we may observe a new anthropological renaissance in contemporary thought This book serves the philosophical anthropology becoming as well Perhaps an idea of integral studies is the most attractive trend in the contemporary philosophy and science The book presents an experience in integral philosophy of human being Also the development of philosophical anthropology is closely connected with practical tasks Our political activities welfare projects and educational programs can become really useful only when we are guided by knowledge of what human being is what we are able to do what are own needs and what we must become Philosophical anthropology could correctly define the research purposes of all human sciences This volume includes various reflexions and styles of thinking By this all the papers demonstrate metaphysics of respect for human being The contributors scholars from the different countries are open for free discussions and fresh ideas Perspectives on Method and Theory in the Study of Religion International Association for the History of Religions. Congress,2000 This volume is the adjunct proceedings on methodology from the XVIIth Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions held in Mexico City in 1995 Taken together the essays present a thorough and coherent perspective on studying religion as an item of human culture Cosmology and Architecture in Premodern Islam Samer Akkach,2012-02-01 This fascinating interdisciplinary study reveals connections between architecture cosmology and mysticism Samer Akkach demonstrates how space ordering in premodern Islamic architecture reflects the transcendental and the sublime The book features many new translations a number from unpublished sources and several illustrations Referencing a wide range of mystical texts and with a special focus on the works of the great Sufi master Ibn Arabi Akkach introduces a notion of spatial sensibility that is shaped by religious conceptions of time and space Religious beliefs about the cosmos geography the human body and constructed forms are all underpinned by a consistent spatial sensibility anchored in medieval geocentrism Within this geometrically defined and ordered universe nothing stands in isolation or ambiguity everything is interrelated and carefully positioned in an intricate hierarchy Through detailed mapping of this intricate order the book shows the significance of this mode of seeing the world for those who lived in the premodern Islamic era and how cosmological ideas became manifest in the buildings and spaces of their everyday lives This is a highly original work that provides important insights on Islamic aesthetics and culture on the history of architecture and on the relationship of art and religion creativity and spirituality

The Garden of Reality Roland Faber, 2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bah religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistance of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality

Encyclopedia of Anthropology H. James Birx, 2006 Focuses on physical social and applied anthropology archaeology linguistics and symbolic communication Topics include hominid evolution primate behaviour genetics ancient civilizations cross cultural studies and social theories

Comparing Religions: A Limitative Approach J. G. Platvoet, 2011-11-30 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline

Science and Religious Anthropology Wesley J. Wildman, 2016-04-01 Science and Religious Anthropology explores the convergence of the biological sciences human sciences and humanities around a spiritually evocative naturalistic vision of human life The disciplinary contributions are at different levels of complexity from evolution of brains to existential longings and from embodied sociality to ecosystem habitat The resulting interpretation of the human condition supports some aspects of traditional theological thinking in the world's religious traditions while seriously challenging other aspects Wesley Wildman draws out these implications for philosophical and religious anthropology and argues that the modern secular interpretation of humanity is most compatible with a religious form of naturalistic humanism This book resists the reduction of meaning and value questions while taking scientific theories about human life with full seriousness It argues for a religious interpretation of human beings as bodily creatures emerging within a natural environment that permits engagement with the valuational potentials of reality This engagement promotes socially borne spiritual quests to realize and harmonize values in everything human beings do from the forging of cultures to the crafting of personal convictions

Archaeology and World Religion Timothy Insoll, 2002-09-11 Archaeology and World Religion is an important new work being the first to examine these two vast topics together The volume explores the relationship between and the contribution archaeology can make to the study of World Religions The contributors consider a number of questions can religious sacred texts be treated as historical documents or do they merit special treatment Does archaeology with its emphasis on material culture dispel notions of the ideal divine Does the study of archaeology and religion lead to differing interpretations of the same event In what ways does the notion of a uniform religious identity exist and is this recognisable in the archaeological record Clearly written and up to date this volume will be an indispensable research tool for academics and specialists in these fields

Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton, 2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijtihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and ijtihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary newspaper and journal
