Truth and Storytelling Emily Edwards, 2022-03-01 The goal of this book is to guide writers toward creating more authenticity in visual storytelling One of the needs for art is the mirror a reflection of human existence and what is glorious tragic wonderful and funny about life In an age of post truth where derivative and grotesquely bogus stories are abundant globally networked and digitally streamed this book examines what it means to both artists and audiences when the mirror is consistently distorted inaccurate and biased The book offers a guide for finding authenticity in fictional narrative regardless of genre or form The book is intended as a compass for writers to better understand and confront the truths they want to reveal through narrative stories and how to find legitimacy in the fictional characters and situations they create One element that sets this book apart from others is the use of storyboarding to explain ideas There are many books that teach fundamentals of writing and producing for the screen promising the reader great success through formula This book is a guide for writers in finding their unique creative voice While the emphasis of this book is on creating scripts intended for production of moving image media the guide can be adapted to the creativity of various types of storytellers working in a variety of media fields Modern Dreamwork Linda Yael Schiller, 2019-12-08 Purpose healing and creative insights

Monumental Jesus Margaret M. Grubiak, 2020-02-11 The American landscape is host to numerous works of religious architecture sometimes questionable in taste and large if not titanic in scale In her lively study of satire and religious architecture Margaret Grubiak challenges how we typically view such sites by shifting the focus from believers to doubters and from producers to consumers Grubiak considers an array of sacred architectural constructions from Touchdown Jesus at the University of Notre Dame to the Wizard of Oz Mormon temple outside Washington D C to the renamed Gumby Jesus of the Christ of the Ozarks statue in Eureka Springs Arkansas and how such constructions are confronted by the doubt and dismissiveness articulated by the more skeptical of their viewers These responses of doubt activate our religious built environment in ways unanticipated but illuminating asking us at times forcefully to consider and clarify what it is we believe Opening up new avenues of thinking about how people deal with theological questions in the vernacular Grubiak's book shows how religious doubt is made manifest in the humorous satirical blasphemous and popular culture responses to religious architecture and image in modern America Midcentury Architecture Landscape Urbanism and Design
