Judgement Of Love:

The Judgment of Love James M. Matarazzo Jr, 2018-10-19 This book seeks to explore the concept of divine judgment in Christian eschatology. It contends that this judgment is salvific rather than destructive. This notion can be described aphoristically as iudicandus est salvandus to be judged is to be saved. The provocation to Christian eschatology is that human beings are not saved from judgment but are saved within it. The exploration begins defining the context and moves into a review of the symbols and problems of judgment through a reappraisal of De novissimis concerning the last things, the last section found in traditional works of Christian dogmatics. This is followed by a critical engagement with the soteriological optimism posited by four twentieth and twenty-first century theologians: Sergei Bulgakov, Hans Urs von Balthasar, J. A. T. Robinson, and Marilyn McCord Adams. The event of the judgment is then defined as the event of absolute recognition that it is within the eschatic recognition of God, the self, and the other that transformation and glorification of human persons occur in a way that avoids a dual outcome of salvation and damnation. The book concludes by proposing that we may approach divine judgment with faith, hope, and love not only for ourselves but for the human race as a whole.

Phenomenologies of Love, 2025-03-13 This edited volume offers a comprehensive view of various possible phenomenological approaches of the experience of love ranging from classical historical perspectives up to contemporary and critical viewpoints. It explores both the crucial importance of the question of love for the history of phenomenology as well as the rich potential of phenomenology for a deeper insight in the experience of love and its various dimensions such as its affective, relational, but also ethical and religious aspects.

God of Love and God of Judgement Stephen K. Moroney, 2009-07-06 How can a God of love also be a God of judgment? If God loves everyone, what is the point of judgment? Does God change from being wrathful in the Old Testament to loving in the New Testament? Can we discern God's judgments in current events such as hurricanes and personal tragedies? Is it ever right for humans to judge? These are not just daunting issues for theologians to ponder. They are urgent questions for everyone. Our answers profoundly affect how we relate to God and how we live with one another. Coming to grips with these issues is vital for our spiritual journeys. Many people today emphasize God's love and downplay his judgment. The problem with this approach is that God's judgment is taught in Scripture from the beginning of Genesis to the end of Revelation, and it is a core part of the gospel preached by Jesus and his apostles. There are problems at the other end of the spectrum too when we believe in a God of judgment who is not also a God of love. It is impossible for us to find spiritual peace when we live in constant dread of God pictured as a harsh judge whom we can never please. This book calls us to embrace a more full biblical image of God, one that joins his love and judgment together. Additionally, the book shows that as those who are made in God's image, we can fuse love and judgment together constructively in our own daily lives. To a world of smiley-faced bumper stickers assuring us that God is love, Stephen Moroney bravely asks: What do we do with the judgment, justice, and wrath of God all occurring in rather impressive numbers throughout Scripture? His well-crafted and engaging answer is that we do a disservice to God as well as to ourselves when we try to have one either a God of love or a God of judgment without the other

Political Judgement Ronald Beiner, 2013-06-17 Originally published in 1983 One of the basic capacities of man as a political being is his faculty of judgement Yet for all the books on concepts like freedom equality and authority surprisingly little attention has been given to this topic in the tradition of Western political thought What is the nature of political judgement What endows us as human beings with the ability to make reasonable judgements about human affairs and to judge the common world we share with others By what means do we secure validity for our judgements What are the underlying conditions of this human capacity and what implications does it have for the understanding of politics These questions central as they are to any reflection on politics have rarely been addressed in a systematic way This book examines Kant's concept of taste and Aristotle's concept of prudence as well as recent works of political philosophy by Arendt Gadamer and Habermas all crucially influenced by Kant and Aristotle

Reasons to Hope Werner G. Jeanrond, 2020-02-20 Werner G. Jeanrond approaches hope from the perspective of a theology of love He distinguishes human hopes from the hope which God has given to humanity Jeanrond discusses the challenges of a Christian praxis of hope in today's world and invites both a new conversation on a future with God and a reassessment of the potential of hope for Christian discipleship Jeanrond argues that memory is important for hope and that nobody can hope for herself or himself alone Hope thus invites personal communal political and global participation and transformation Moreover it gives rise to a powerful constellation of symbolic expressions including judgement heaven hell and purgatory that call for ongoing interpretation Ranging from radical hope and the hope for salvation to the power of judgment and contemporary fears about the future of nations humankind and the world Jeanrond's latest work offers a theological contribution to the multireligious conversation on hope death and the human future in our universe

Hegel and the Logical Structure of Love Toulia Nicolacopoulos, George Vassilacopoulos, 2010 This study presents an original interpretation of the meaning and complex inter relationship of the concepts of love sexuality family and the law It argues that they should be understood as forms of interplay between the subjective and the objective necessity and contingency and unity and difference A comprehensive elaboration of these forms is to be found in Hegel's Science of Logic the conclusions of which he used to organise his ethical and political thought The argument is introduced with a discussion of the relevance of Hegel's speculative philosophy to modernity The authors then explore the relationship between thought being and recognition in Hegel's philosophical system and offer an interpretation of the Science of Logic This interpretation forms the basis of a re-assessment of Hegel's treatment of love sexual relationships the family and law A Hegelian account of familial love is employed to review recent debates within a range of discourses including feminism family law and gay and lesbian studies As well as addressing current concerns about sexual difference and the ontology of homosexuality the study provides a guide to reading Hegel in an original and productive way It will be of interest to philosophers feminists theorists of sexualities ethical and legal theorists

Finding Tomorrow Sharalyn Drayton,2025-06-18 Through Sharalyn s unflinching honesty we come to understand that grief is not a dead end but a radical opening It strips away illusion burns through our defences and delivers us to the edges of everything we thought we knew about love life and death It leads us into a realm of radical love radical acceptance and the most radical truth of all the possibility of a living relationship with the dead Her story is a gift for anyone who has grieved who has loved and lost It is a hand held out across the abyss a quiet fierce reminder that in the deepest chambers of grief lies a truth love doesn t die It transforms And so can we Sarah Tolmie Life Love Holistic Community Care Celebrant Sacred Deathcare Practitioner A mother s journey through unbearable loss and grief to finding understanding forgiveness and transformation I didn t know how I was going to survive Ryan s death or at times even if I wanted to I didn t think I could do now let alone tomorrow Some days just one breath at a time was all I could manage but I knew that to make sense of it I needed to be changed I needed my life to be different somehow and I needed to open to the possibilities of a new way of being in relationship with him I needed to understand what happened why and how we could both be transformed by his life and his death It has been a challenging and often confronting journey but I am so grateful to Ryan for his teaching and for the amazing gifts that he has given me along the way

Conscience and Love in Making Judicial Decisions Alexander Nikolaevich Shytov,2013-03-14 THE CONSCIENCE OF JUDGES AND APPLICATION OF LEGAL RULES The book is devoted to the problem of the influence of moral judgements on the result of judicial decision making in the process of application of the established positive law It is the conscience of judges that takes the central place in the research Conscience is understood in the meaning developed in the theory of Thomas Aquinas as the complex capacity of the human being to make moral judgements which represent acts of reason on the question of what is right or wrong in a particular situation The reason why we need a theory of conscience in making judicial decisions lies in the nature of the positive law itself On the one hand there is an intrinsic conflict between the law as the body of rigid rules and the law as an living experience of those who are involved in social relationships This conflict particularly finds its expression in the collision of strict justice and equity The idea of equity does not reject the importance of rules in legal life What is rejected is an idolatrous attitude to the rules when the uniqueness of a human being his well being and happiness are disregarded and sacrificed in order to fulfil the observance of the rules The rules themselves are neither good or bad What makes them good or bad is their application

The Love That Moves the Sun Paul Dominiak ,2024-08-30 The season of Advent traditionally involved meditation upon the Four Last Things heaven hell death and judgement This ancient but nearly lost sacred art of contemplation encouraged Christians to evaluate who they were what they treasured and how they ought to live in view of the world to come The Love That Moves the Sun revives this ancient practice and marries it with contemporary concerns Each chapter considers one of the Last Things in relation to a modern crisis from the climate emergency rise of populism and racial injustice to the economic inequalities of class In a time of compound crises retrieving the sacred art of contemplating the Last Things gives a vision of hope and direction in a chaotic world of uncertainty The first advent began with an angelic messenger announcing the coming of Christ to Mary The Love That Moves the Sun enables us to hear a fresh annunciation in our own time calling us to join in with God s salvation of a groaning creation and the hope of a new earth where justice dwells The True Christian Religion, Etc Emanuel Swedenborg,1873 The True Christian Religion Emanuel Swedenborg,1898 The True Christian Religion Emanuel Swedenborg,1883 Revelations of Divine Love Julian (of Norwich),2015 Julian of Norwich is one of the subtlest writers and profoundest thinkers of the Middle Ages and the earliest woman writer in English Her Revelations describe a loving and merciful God and a positive vision of humanity This sensitive new translation conveys the poise and serenity of her style and includes the two versions of her text The True Christian Religion; Containing the Universal Theology of the New Church, Foretold by the Lord in Daniel, VII. 13, 14, and in the Revelation, XXI. 1, 2 Emanuel Swedenborg,1874 Judgments of Love in Criminal Justice Farhad Malekian,2017-03-31 This volume is a new chapter in the future history of law Its general perspective could not be more original and its critical ethical edge on the state of international law could not be timelier It explores a compassionate philosophical approach to the genuine substance of law criminal procedure international criminal law and international criminal justice It divides law into three interrelated disciplines i e legality morality and love The norm love is derived from human reason for man s advancement and the securing of natural law It is more than a mere mandatory norm Its goal is to generate a normative and positive powerful result therefore avoiding any impurity that may exist in the application of other norms because of political or juridical pressures a one eyed justice The norm love also renders justice with the principles of legal accountability transparency and the high moral authentic values of humanity The notion of justice cannot be trusted in the absence of the norm love The volume indicates the conditions of its efficiency by proving the reasons for its existence in the context of fairness objectivity and concern for all individuals and entities The concept of the norm love should be the core academic corpus for lecturing law in all faculties of law It is simply the enlightenment of the 21st century A lawyer with requisite knowledge and skill is not a lawyer if he cannot understand that the law does not need a lawyer with ethical competence in its provisions for income purposes but one with knowledge of its essence for the advanced morality of justice and the sheer essence of love for justice Anchorhold Kirsten Pinto Gfroerer,2022-07-28 Anchorhold is a unique collection of letters concerning Julian of Norwich

s Revelations of Divine Love addressed to the writer herself Through them Kirsten Pinto Gfroerer explores the meaning of her own life and the transformation that studying and teaching this remarkable text can bring Julian makes extreme claims about the love of God revealed in the crucified Christ Her assertion that in love the human self can truly flourish and that in the end all shall be well and all manner of things shall be well is a hope filled contradiction of much modern thought Central to her theology are a series of meditations on the face and body of Christ which both point to God s love and reveal something of the nature of human vocation Gfroerer s search for meaning in Julian s text eloquently expressed in this series of letters involves the participation of her whole self learning to inhabit the vision given to Julian It is this search and participation that we are invited to join     Rethinking the Enlightenment Henry Martyn Lloyd,Geoff Boucher,2017-12-29

One of the most persistent troubling and divisive of the ideological divisions within modernity is the struggle over the Enlightenment and its legacy Much of the difficulty is owed to a general failure among scholars to consider how history philosophy and politics work together Rethinking the Enlightenment bridges these disciplinary divides Recent work by historians has now called into question many of the clichés that still dominate scholarly understandings of the Enlightenment s literary philosophical and political culture Yet this work has so far had little impact on the reception of the Enlightenment its key players debates and ideas in the disciplines that most rely on its legacy namely philosophy and political science Edited by Geoff Boucher and Henry Martyn Lloyd Rethinking the Enlightenment makes the case for connecting new work in intellectual history with fresh understandings of Continental philosophy and political theory In doing so in this collection moves towards a critical self understanding of the present
