From Bursar To School Business Manager:

School business manager: developing the role The Open University, This 8 hour free course examined the expanding role of the school business manager and its contribution to a school s teaching and learning outcomes From Bursar to School Business Manager Fergus O'Sullivan,Angela Thody,Elizabeth Wood,2000 Business management is becoming increasingly important in schools This text is the first of its kind and offers an insight into how schools are successfully operating their business and teaching support services The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Leadership and Management Discourse Fenwick W. English,2022-10-13 This Handbook explores the discourse within the field of educational leadership and management It provides a clear analysis of the current field as well as older foundational ideas and newer concepts which are beginning to permeate the discussion The field of educational leadership and management has long acknowledged that educational contexts include a variety of leaders beyond school principals and other school officials such as informal and middle level leaders By looking at the knowledge dynamic rather than a static knowledge base this Handbook allows research to be presented in its multidimensional evolving reality Managing Finance and Resources in Education Marianne Coleman,Lesley Anderson,2000-04-14 The book provides an excellent wide and stimulating set of readings and would be useful to anyone taking forward Unit 3 or the Accelerated Route of SQH SQH Newsletter This is a useful addition to the literature on finance and resource management in education Those whose work involves managing resources and finance in schools and colleges will find this a useful or even indispensable addition to their bookshelves whether they are heads principals or middle managers Mentoring and Tutoring This book will provide readers with knowledge and understanding of the theory and practice of managing finance resources and stakeholders in schools and colleges Written specifically for those studying for an academic qualification at Masters level in educational management it provides self study material and links to other key texts in the field The authors deal with the links between finance resources and stakeholders in the context of school and college self management Examples are drawn from international settings as well as from the United Kingdom Building on an examination of theoretical perspectives practical considerations and applications are examined in a format which encourages the reader to explore the context of their own educational institution This book is a core text for the University of Leicester MBA in Educational Management Managing the Business of Schools Iris Keating,Ray Moorcroft,2006-10-12 Written by experienced consultants this book explores the key themes surrounding the role of the School Business Manager and offers guidance for dealing with the practical issues of the job Experts in the field provide practical advice on the essential technical aspects of the role such as managing risk managing facilities and human resources and the book also considers strategic issues and addresses big questions such as the workforce remodelling agenda and extended schools Each chapter contains a useful summary of key points case studies and suggested further reading for continued study Senior Management Team members school governors school business managers students of school business management and anyone involved in and interested in the effective management of schools will find this book an invaluable source of reference

Anatomy of a Professionalization Project Charlotte Woods, 2014-10-23 Public services have been a target for reform in Western style democracies for more than three decades This volume documents and examines the case of School Business Managers SBMs as an example of a growing but scarcely acknowledged phenomenon the government backed creation of new professions within the public sector for groups of support workers not formally recognised as such The dawn of the millennium saw the beginning of an unprecedented professional project as the New Labour government set about the systematic creation of a pool of suitably skilled and qualified School Business Managers in England The Government's stated purpose was to support educational leaders in meeting mounting public expectations for state schools in increasingly complex and challenging circumstances Although the war stories of lead professionals such as teachers and physicians in the context of reform have been extensively documented the contribution of the army of less high status professionals in public service institutions is poorly understood Drawing on first hand accounts of people involved in bringing the SBM professional project about and those whose professional lives the project sought to target the SBMs themselves the book turns the spotlight on an under recognised group It explores the purposes and outcomes of the professionalization initiative comparing the process to the professional projects of SBMs in other countries and to parallel projects within the health sector
