From Idea To Funded Project:

From Idea to Funded Project Julia M. Jacobsen, Jan Fay Kress, 2007-12-30 Ideas are products of individual human minds Some of the ideas that emerge in educational cultural health related community service and faith based organizations are potentially as important to the institutions as their endowments These ideas are the concern of this guidebook how to encourage their articulation how to muster the cooperation necessary to turn them into formal blueprints and how to secure whatever support is needed to see them materialize as projects serving the interests of the originators and their institutions Designed for grant seekers in the digital age this book helps readers make sense of the various printed and Web based resources that are available to improve the quality of proposals and find successful funding The chapters cover origins and early development of an idea drawing up a proposal finding funding sources submitting a proposal evaluation of a project grant administration and basic resources

The Art of Funding and Implementing Ideas Arnold R. Shore, John M. Carfora, 2010-04-07 Takes the reader to a new level in proposal writing The authors have captured the gestalt of grant writing in a lucid fashion In short I think students would appreciate the clarity and insights this book offers Robert J Hard University of Texas at San Antonio As a research scientist who is frequently involved in proposal development myself it is clear to me that the authors have travelled the grant writer s path before John V Stone Michigan State University This resource provides a step by step approach to turning a research idea into a proposal worthy of funding demystifying the process as a result The authors present a proven approach to the development of research ideas alongside a systematic treatment of proposals section by section and project management function by function Highly accessible this book gives examples for each aspect of the proposal development and works through sketches of ideas to fully developed proposal sections Key Features Contains idea development linked to specific proposal sections Supports creativity that can be captured effectively and systematically one step at a time Uses sketches to facilitate idea development and make enhancement and revisions easy Allows for ease in trying out alternative formulations and revising preliminary approaches Provides international research proposals Key to understanding resources for proposing international research collaborations Shows how to manage a funded project Guides researchers and research staff in effectively implementing a funded project This book is appropriate for all graduate students across the health social and behavioral sciences who need guidance on writing successful compelling funding proposals

Rural Health Services Funding, 1995 Local Policies and the European Social Fund Katharina Zimmermann, 2019-10-02 This book reviews how local social and employment policy fields react to the European Social Fund ESF to determine the role of the ESF in local activation policies Drawing on both sociology and political science literature on welfare state reforms the author examines what shapes local policy reactions to ESF and what effects these reactions have on change in local policy fields Comparing data from 18 local case studies across 6 European countries and deploying an innovative mixed method approach the book presents comparative evidence on everyday challenges in the context of the ESF and discusses how these findings are applicable to other funding schemes
