Love, Life and Everything Else Janisha Harris,2010-05-28 Dear Dad Hey dad if you're listening this poem is for you just writing to let you know all the things life has put me through strangers somehow have a tendency to try to take your place but they can't do it it's impossible the pain could never be erased they can't fill this emotional void in my heart inside I still wonder why must we stand so far apart my mom's got a new man he used to treat her right why she stays with him I don't understand because now all they do is fight it's not like I grew up a completely fatherless kid but he can't make up for all the birthdays and christmases you missed he tries a little bit but the job wasn't made for him to do sometimes it's too hard not to cry cause he's not you so why did he have to be the one to see off my first day of school he even took me to the dentist when I lost my first tooth so dad where you at my graduation no way to go not even a congratulations so tell me will you be there to help me blow out my sixteenth candles sometimes life gets hard and the pain is too much to handle I'm a big girl now so I hold my tears inside I already had my first kiss and you were never there to teach me about guys you never took me shopping or fishing you just left me hoping and wishing but you can't always get what you wish for and dreams don't always come true he taught me that but we both know he's not you The End

Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt,2020-09-25 Love s Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard s discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean s Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger s South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan s Atonement

Love's Grateful Striving M. Jamie Ferreira,2001-06-07 In an attempt to rehabilitate Works of Love as one of Kierkegaard s most important works this text shows that Kierkegaard s deliberations on love are relevant to many themes in contemporary ethics including duty equality and mutuality
