Video Movie Guide 1998 Mick Martin, Marsha Porter, 1997 Reviews thousands of movies and rates each film according to a five star rating system and features cross indexing by title director and cast Take One's Essential Guide to Canadian Film Wyndham Wise, 2001-01-01 The most exhaustive and up to date reference book on Canadian film and filmmakers combining 700 reviews and biographical listings with a detailed chronology of major events in Canadian film and television history Culture Wars Roger Chapman, 2010 Although openness and inclusion are cornerstones of life in the United States intolerance and reactionary politics are also very real As the nation prepares to elect a new president The Culture Wars addresses the key defining issues of contemporar Lost Highways, Embodied Travels: The Road Movie in American Experimental Film and Video Kornelia Boczkowska, 2023-02-06 Often identified as one of the most genuine and enduring American film genres the road movie has never been explored in the context of experimental filmmaking To fill this gap Lost Highways Embodied Travels provides the first book length study of over eighty unique and often obscure films and videos and situates them within the corporeal turn in American avant garde cinema so far mostly associated with body genres and sexually explicit films Drawing on unpublished archival materials the book offers a fresh take on both past and current practices of the experimental film community for scholars students makers and film buffs Coast of Dreams Kevin Starr, 2011-06-22 In this extraordinary book Kevin Starr widely acknowledged as the premier historian of California the scope of whose scholarship the Atlantic Monthly has called breathtaking probes the possible collapse of the California dream in the years 1990 2003 In a series of compelling chapters Coast of Dreams moves through a variety of topics that show the California of the last decade when the state was sometimes stumbling sometimes humbled but more often flourishing with its usual panache From gang violence in Los Angeles to the spectacular rise and equally spectacular fall of Silicon Valley from the Northridge earthquake to the recall of Governor Gray Davis Starr ranges over myriad facts anecdotes news stories personal impressions and analyses to explore a time of unprecedented upheaval in California Coast of Dreams describes an exceptional diversity of people cultures and values an economy that mirrors the economic state of the nation a battlefield where industry and the necessities of infrastructure collide with the inherent demands of a unique and stunning natural environment It explores California politics including Arnold Schwarzenegger s election in the 2003 recall the multifaceted business landscape and controversial icons such as O J Simpson Historians of the future Starr writes will be able to see with more certainty whether or not the period 1990 2003 was not only the end of one California but the beginning of another in the meantime he gives a picture of the place and time in a book at once sweeping and riveting in its details deeply informed engagingly personal and altogether fascinating Room to Dream David Lynch, Kristine McKenna, 2018-06-19 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER An unprecedented look into the personal and creative life of the visionary auteur David Lynch through his own words and those of his closest colleagues friends and family Insightful an impressively industrious and comprehensive account of Lynch's career The New York Times Book Review In this unique hybrid of biography and memoir David Lynch opens up for the first time about a life lived in pursuit of his singular vision and the many heartaches and struggles he's faced to bring his unorthodox projects to fruition Lynch's lyrical intimate and unfiltered personal reflections riff off biographical sections written by close collaborator Kristine McKenna and based on more than one hundred new interviews with surprisingly candid ex-wives family members actors agents musicians and colleagues in various fields who all have their own takes on what happened Room to Dream is a landmark book that offers a onetime all access pass into the life and mind of one of our most enigmatic and utterly original living artists With insights into Eraserhead The Elephant Man Dune Blue Velvet Wild at Heart Twin Peaks Twin Peaks Fire Walk with Me Lost Highway The Straight Story Mulholland Drive INLAND EMPIRE Twin Peaks The Return Praise for Room to Dream A memorable portrait of one of cinema's great auteurs provides a remarkable insight into David Lynch's intense commitment to the art life The Guardian This is the best book by and about a movie director since Elia Kazan's A Life 1988 and Michael Powell's A Life in Movies 1986 But Room to Dream is more enchanting or appealing than those classics What makes this book endearing is its chatty calm account of how genius in America can be a matter of fact defiance of reality that won't alarm your dog or save mankind It's the only way to dream in so disturbed a country San Francisco Chronicle

Frames of Minds Eelco F. M. Wijdicks, 2024 As a medium that aims to connect people through the communication and interpretation of experiences cinema is uniquely positioned to showcase cultural misunderstandings around issues of mental health Frames of Minds traces a history of psychiatry in film concentrating on the major paradigm shifts in neuropsychiatry over the last century Oftentimes representations of psychiatry mental illness and psychotic breakdown are reduced to tropes and used by filmmakers as a tool for plot progression Conversely films can be used as an avenue to voice common concerns about the missteps of psychiatry including overdiagnosis and mistreatment Dr Eelco Wijdicks provides fresh insights into the minds of filmmakers and how they creatively tackle this complex topic How do filmmakers use psychiatry and what do they want us to see What is their frame of mind psychoanalytically biologically sociologically anthropologically Were they influenced by their own prejudices about the origins of mental illness How does this influence the direction of their films Examining the history of film alongside developments in neuropsychiatry Frames of Minds uncovers a cinematic language of psychiatry By taking chances to portray mental illness filmmakers aim to achieve a sense of reality and provide catharsis for viewers through the act of dramatization Ultimately the history of psychiatry in film is a history of the public perception of medicine and the ways psychiatry is understood by directors writers actors and audiences

David Lynch's American Dreamscape Mike Miley, 2025-01-09 How are David Lynch's films as much in dialogue with literary and musical traditions as they are cinematic ones By interrogating this question David Lynch's American Dreamscape broadens the interpretive horizons of Lynch's filmography calling for a new approach to Lynch's films that goes beyond cinema and visual art to explore how Lynch's work engages with literary and musical works that have shaped the American imagination. As much as Lynch stands as a singular artistic voice, his work arises from and taps into the cultural zeitgeist in a way that illuminates not only his approach to creativity but also the way works interact with each other in an age of mass media. From children's literature to teen tragedy ballads Nathanael West and Cormac McCarthy to folk music and mixtapes David Lynch's American Dreamscape investigates the cultural frequencies Lynch's films tune into and positions Lynch's work as a conduit for American popular culture, a medium or channel through which the subconscious of American life finds its way into full view. The book expands upon this approach by discussing how artists such as David Foster Wallace and Lana Del Rey graft Lynch's affiliative cinematic sensibility onto their own projects. Reading their work as intertextual engagements with Lynch's films further illustrates the versatile interactions among creators and audiences to generate more works, readers, and readings.

Autopia Peter Wollen, Joe Kerr, 2002 The reach of the car today is almost universal and its effect on landscapes, cityscapes, cultures indeed on the very fabric of the modern world is profound. Cars have brought benefits to individuals in terms of mobility and expanded horizons, but the cost has been very high in terms of damage to the environment and the consumption of precious resources. Despite the growing belief that a Faustian price is now being paid for the freedom cars have bestowed on us, we are none the less manufacturing them in ever greater numbers. Autopia is the first book to explore the culture of the motor car in the widest possible sense. Featuring newly commissioned essays by writers, critics, historians, artists, and film makers, as well as reprinting key texts, it examines the effect of the car throughout the world, including the USA, Western and Eastern Europe, Japan, China, Cuba, India, and South Africa. In this book, the car is treated neither as a technological fetish object nor as an instrument of danger. Instead, it is examined as a hugely important determinant of 20th century culture, neither wholly good nor an unmitigated disaster, and certainly endlessly fascinating. Contributors include Michael Bracewell, Ziauddin Sardar, Al Rees, Martin Pawley, Donald Richie, and Peter Hamilton. Key texts by Marshall Berman, Jane Jacobs, Roland Barthes, Marc Auge, and others.
