Investigations into late medieval and early modern practices of measuring of risk, calculation of ignorance within financial administrations, of conceiving the docta ignorantia as well as the silence of the illiterate are combined with contributions regarding knowledge gaps within identification procedures and political decision making, with the emergence of consciously delimited blanks on geographical maps, with ignorance as a factor embedded in iconographic programs in translation processes and the semantic potentials of reading. Based on thorough archival analysis, these selected contributions from conferences at Harvard and Paris are tightly framed by new theoretical elaborations that have implications beyond these cases and epochal focus. Predatory Priests, Silenced Victims Mary Gail Frawley-O'Dea, Virginia Goldner, 2016-05-06 The sexual abuse scandal in the Catholic Church captured headlines and mobilized public outrage in January 2002 But much of the commentary that immediately followed was reductionistic focusing on single causes of clerical abuse such as mandatory celibacy homosexuality sexual repressiveness or sexual permissiveness anti Catholicism and a decadent secular culture Predatory Priests Silenced Victims The Sexual Abuse Crisis and the Catholic Church a collection of groundbreaking articles edited by Mary Gail Frawley O'Dea and Virginia Goldner eschews such one size fits all theorizing In its place the abuse situation is explored in all its troubling complexity as contributors take into account the experiences respectively of the victim survivor the abuser perpetrator and the bystander whether family member professional clergy or the community at large Setting polemics to the side Predatory Priests Silenced Victims provides a sober and sobering analysis of the interlacing historical doctrinal and psychological issues that came together in the sexual abuse scandal It is mandatory reading for all who seek thoughtful informed commentary on a crisis long in the making and yet to be resolved The Decades of Henry Bullinger Heinrich Bullinger,1852 The Decades of Henry Bullinger, Minister of the Church of Zurich, Translated by H. Henry Bullinger,2010-06-01 History The Parker Society For the Publication of the Works of the Fathers and Early Writers of the Reformed English Church was formed in 1840 and disbanded in 1855 when its work was completed Its name is taken from that of Matthew Parker the first Elizabethan Archbishop of Canterbury who was known as a great collector and preserver of books The stimulus for the foundation of the society was provided by the nineteenth Century Tractarians Some members of this movement e g R H Froude in his Remains of 1838 9 spoke most disparagingly of the English Reformation Really I hate the Reformation and the Reformers more and more Keble could add in 1838 Anything which separates the present Church from the Reformers I should hail as a great good Protestants within the Church of England therefore felt the urgent need to make available in an attractive and accessible form the works of the leaders of the English Reformation To many it seemed that the Protestant foundations of the English Church were being challenged like never before Thus the society represented a co operation between traditional High Churchmen and evangelical churchmen both of whom were committed to the Reformation teaching on justification by faith Subscribers were also involved in the erection of the Martyrs Memorial in Oxford although this was as much anti Roman Catholic as anti Tractarian The society had about seven thousand subscribers who paid one pound each year from 1841 to 1855 thus for fifteen pounds the subscribers received fifty three volumes the General Index and the Latin originals of the 1847 Original Letters relative to the English Reformation being special subscriptions Twenty four editors were used and the task of arriving at the best text was far from easy The choice of publications was controversial and some authors and works were unfortunate not to be included in PS volumes While some of the volumes have been superseded by more recent critical editions today this collection remains one of the most valuable sources for the study of the English Reformation The Decades of Henry Bullinger, Minister of the Church of Zurich Heinrich Bullinger,1852 Publications Parker Society (Great Britain),Parker Society (Great Britain),,1852 *The Parker Society, Instituted M.
