Holy Man Father Damien Of Molokai:

Holy man Gavan Daws,1973 The Spirit of Father Damien Jan De Volder,2010-09-13 Foreword by John Allen
Father Damien famous for his missionary work with exiled lepers on the Hawaiian island of Molokai is finally Saint Damien His sanctity took 120 years to become officially recognized but between his death in 1889 and his canonization in 2009 amid creeping secularization and suspicion of the missionary spirit he so much embodied Fr Damien De Veuster never faded from the world s memory What kept him there What keeps him there now To find an answer Belgian historian and journalist Jan De Volder sifted through Father Damien s personal correspondence as well as the Vatican archives With careful and even handed expertise De Volder follows Father Damien s transformation from the stout somewhat haughty missionary of his youth bounding from Europe to Hawaii and straight into seemingly tireless priestly work to the humble and loving shepherd of souls who eventually succumbed to the same disease that ravaged his flock De Volder finds that as spiritual father caretaker teacher and advocate Father Damien accomplished many heroic feats for these poor outcasts Yet the greatest gift he gave them was their transformation from a disordered lawless throng exiled in desperate anarchy into a living community built on Jesus Christ a community in which they learned to care for one another Every generation seems to have its own image of this world famous priest Already during his life on Molokai and at his death in 1889 many considered him a holy man Even today in the highly secularized Western world he is widely admired In 2005 his native Belgium honored him with the title the greatest Belgian in polling conducted by their public broadcasting service Statues honor his memory in the National Statuary Hall of the U S Capitol in Washington D C and at the entrance to the Hawaiian State Capitol in Honolulu In 1995 in the presence of Mother Teresa of Calcutta Pope John Paul II beatified him in Brussels Belgium and in 2009 Pope Benedict XVI canonized him in St Peter s Basilica in Rome Today Father Damien is the unofficial patron of outcasts and those afflicted with HIV AIDS De Volder contends that the common thread running through the saint s life the spirit of Father Damien that so speaks to the world is at once uniquely Christian fully human and as important today as ever before St.

Philomena Catholic Church (Father Damien's Church) ,1985 Nā Kahu Nancy J. Morris,Robert Benedetto,2019-04-30 Tracing the lives of some two hundred Native Hawaiian teachers preachers pastors and missionaries N Kahu provides new historical perspectives of the indigenous ministry in Hawai i These Christian emissaries were affiliated first with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions and later with the Hawaiian Evangelical Association By the mid 1850s literate and committed Hawaiians were sailing to far reaches of the Pacific to join worldwide missionary endeavors Geographical locations ranged from remote mission stations in Hawai i including the Hansen s disease community at Kalaupapa the Marquesan Islands Micronesia fur trade settlements in Northwest America and the gold fields of California In their reports and letters the pastors and missionaries pour out their hopes and discouragements their psychological and physical pain and details of their everyday lives The first part of the book presents the biographies of nineteen young

Hawaiians studying as messengers of Christianity in the remote New England town of Cornwall Connecticut along with heathen from other lands The second part the core of the book moves to Hawai i tracing the careers of pastors and missionaries as well as recognizing their intellectual and political endeavors There is also a discussion of the educational institutions established to train an indigenous ministry and the gradual acceptance of ordained Hawaiians as equals to their western counterparts Included in an appendix is the little known story of Christian ali i Hawaiian chiefs both men and women who contributed to the mission by lending their authority to the cause and by contributing land and labor for the construction of churches The biographies reveal the views of pastors on events leading to the overthrow of the Hawaiian Kingdom which brought about great divisions between the haole and Hawaiian ministry Many Hawaiian pastors who sided with the new Provisional Government and then the Republic were expelled by their own congregations loyal to the monarchy During the closing years of the century alternate forms of Christianity emerged and those pastors drawn to these syncretic faiths add their perspectives to the book Perhaps the most illuminating biographies are those in which the pastors give voice to a faith that blends traditional Hawaiian values with an emerging ecumenical Christianity

Places of Pain and Shame William Logan, Keir Reeves, 2008-12-05 Places of Pain and Shame is a cross cultural study of sites that represent painful and or shameful episodes in a national or local community s history and the ways that government agencies heritage professionals and the communities themselves seek to remember commemorate and conserve these cases or conversely choose to forget them Such episodes and locations include massacre and genocide sites places related to prisoners of war civil and political prisons and places of benevolent internment such as leper colonies and lunatic asylums These sites bring shame upon us now for the cruelty and futility of the events that occurred within them and the ideologies they represented They are however increasingly being regarded as heritage sites a far cry from the view of heritage that prevailed a generation ago when we were almost entirely concerned with protecting the great and beautiful creations of the past reflections of the creative genius of humanity rather than the reverse the destructive and cruel side of history Why has this shift occurred and what implications does it have for professionals practicing in the heritage field In what ways is this a difficult heritage to deal with This volume brings together academics and practitioners to explore these questions covering not only some of the practical matters but also the theoretical and conceptual issues and uses case studies of historic places museums and memorials from around the globe including the United States Northern Ireland Poland South Africa China Japan Taiwan Cambodia Indonesia Timor and Australia

Colonizing Leprosy Michelle T.

Moran,2012-09-01 By comparing institutions in Hawai i and Louisiana designed to incarcerate individuals with a highly stigmatized disease Colonizing Leprosy provides an innovative study of the complex relationship between U S imperialism and public health policy in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Focusing on the Kalaupapa Settlement in Moloka i and the U S National Leprosarium in Carville Michelle Moran shows not only how public health policy emerged as a tool of empire in America s colonies but also how imperial ideologies and racial attitudes shaped practices at home Although medical personnel at both sites considered leprosy a colonial disease requiring strict isolation Moran demonstrates that they adapted regulations developed at one site for use at the other by changing rules to conform to ideas of how natives and Americans should be treated By analyzing administrators decisions physicians treatments and patients protests Moran examines the roles that gender race ethnicity and sexuality played in shaping both public opinion and health policy Colonizing Leprosy makes an important contribution to an understanding of how imperial imperatives public health practices and patient activism informed debates over the constitution and health of American bodies Texts and Contexts Doug Munro,Brij V. Lal,2005-11-30 Texts and Contexts is concerned with the development of Pacific Islands history as a specialization in its own right Specifically this volume examines the foundational texts that pioneered and consolidated the new subdiscipline and served as the building blocks and stepping stone for further developments in the field Thirty five texts all of which represent defining points in the development of Pacific Islands historiography are examined Much more than retrospective appraisals of the foundational texts the individual chapters consider a text or complimentary texts within the context of the time of writing and gauge what ongoing influence they exerted In some cases they suggest how a particular text has been superseded by subsequent work that breaks new conceptual ground in the ongoing process of revisionism Contributors Chris Ballard on Gavin Souter Ivan Brady on Greg Dening I C Campbell on Norma McArthur Bronwen Douglas and Doug Munro on H E Maude and Dorothy Shineberg Michael Goldsmith on Marshall Sahlins David Hanlon on Francis X Hezel K R Howe on Andrew Sharp and David Lewis Brij V Lal on K L Gillion and Peter Corris Hugh Laracy on Niel Gunson and Ta unga Lamont Lindstrom on Peter Worsley and Peter Lawrence Doug Munro on Douglas L Oliver R P Gilson J W Davidson and K R Howe Vincent O Malley on Keith Sinclair and Alan Ward Jon Osorio on Ralph Kuykendall and Gavan Daws Tom Ryan on Bernard Smith Jane Samson on W P Morrell and Deryck Scarr Francis West on Francis West and Gavan Daws Glyndwr Williams on O H K Spate The Ten Most Important Things Ever Said Dan D. Schinzel,2012-07 Everyone loves a great quote We marvel at those rare souls who can clearly convey an idea and elicit an emotional response from a reader or an audience in a mere sentence or two The economy of their words provides us a nicely packaged expression that is convenient versatile and easily stored perhaps on a slip of paper or perhaps merely tucked away in our memory banks Because ideas are not expressed in a vacuum learning something about the person to whom a quote is attributed is essential if we are to fully appreciate its intended meaning In The Ten Most Important Things Ever Said Dan D Schinzel brings together quotes from a wide variety of sources that span different cultures and times Each of the ten expressions is followed by a fictional scene and conversation created to elaborate on the intentions of the author Each quote is also accompanied by two or three relevant stories from the past some familiar others obscure The end product is a book that is intended to be a starting point for a conversation about how the words of the past can serve as beacons for our future For while the ten different sayings cover an assortment of subjects and are attributed to a variety of sources they all share one common trait the words and their meaning are timeless

K. Clark,2018-04-30 In Kalaupapa Place Names John Clark presents a unique history of the leprosy settlement on Moloka i based on his meticulous research of more than three hundred Hawaiian language newspaper articles He first assembled an extensive list of familiar and long forgotten place names associated with the Kalaupapa peninsula and then searched for them in the online repository of Hawaiian language newspapers With translation assistance by Isona Ellinwood and Keao NeSmith he discovered articles that show a community of Hawaiians from every island except uninhabited Kahoolawe Their stories reveal an active community with its members trying to live their lives as normally as possible in the face of a debilitating disease The first section of the book contains newspaper articles arranged under an alphabetical listing of place names The second section organizes the material into chronological segments from before the establishment of the Kalaupapa Settlement to the death of Mother Marianne Cope in 1918 These two sections are followed by a collection of kanikau or lamentations interviews with Kalaupapa residents and a list of Hawaiian language newspapers Introductory paragraphs for groupings of newspaper articles assist the reader in visualizing the physical landscape and understanding the history and significance of a particular location The poetry of the Hawaiian language is evident throughout the translations especially in the kanikau
