Bebbington, 2014-04-23 The Nonconformist conscience was a major force in late Victorian and Edwardian politics The well attended chapels of England and Wales bred a race of Christian politicians who tried to exert a moral influence on public affairs This book analyses the political impact of the Nonconformists at the peak of their strength when they were near the centre of key debates of the time over such matters as the growth of the British Empire and state provision of social services They had also launched campaigns of their own to disestablish the Church of England and to secure public control of the nation's schools Based on extensive original research this study is the first to examine these themes Gladstone 1809-1898 H. C. G. Matthew, 1997-10-23 William Ewart Gladstone was both the most charismatic and the most extraordinary of Victorians His huge public career in and out of office from 1834 to 1894 and four times prime minister was consistently controversial and dramatic His private life was a most curious blend of happiness and temptation His Christian faith held the extremes of his character in sufficient harmony to avoid disintegration and to produce one of the most powerful political personalities in British history H C G Matthew's writings on Gladstone are generally acknowledged to have transformed understanding of the Grand Old Man of British Politics and indeed his whole age Appearing first as Introductions to his definitive edition of The Gladstone Diaries they have been revised and made available in this volume collected together in paperback for the first time Gladstone 1809 1874 It deserves to become a classic of the genre Illustrated London News For any aficionado of the high politics and low life of the nineteenth century this book is a must Observer the most sensitive and informed insight to date English Historical Review Gladstone 1875 1898 winner of the Wolfson History Prize 1995 Rarely can a single scholar have re mapped a whole historical territory so grandly as H C G Matthew has done in the case of Gladstone in particular and of Victorian politics and culture in general English Historical Review Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson Keith Jeffery, 2006-03-09 Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson an Irishman who in June 1922 was assassinated on his doorstep in London by Irish republicans was one of the most controversial British soldiers of the modern age Before 1914 he did much to secure the Anglo French alliance and was responsible for the planning which saw the British Expeditionary Force successfully despatched to France after the outbreak of war with Germany A passionate Irish unionist he gained a reputation as an intensely political soldier especially during the Curragh crisis of 1914 when some officers resigned their commissions rather than coerce Ulster unionists into a Home Rule Ireland During the war he played a major role in Anglo French liaison and ended up as Chief of the Imperial General Staff professional head of the army a post he held until February 1922 After Wilson retired from the army he became an MP and was chief security adviser to the new Northern Ireland government As such he became a target for nationalist Irish militants being identified with the security policies of the Belfast regime though wrongly with Protestant sectarian attacks on Catholics He is remembered today in unionist Northern Ireland as a kind of founding martyr for the state Wilson s reputation was ruined in 1927 with the publication of an official biography which quoted extensively and injudiciously from his entertaining indiscreet and wildly opinionated diaries giving the impression that he was some sort of Machiavellian monster In this first modern biography using a wide variety of official and private sources for the first time Keith Jeffery reassesses Wilson s life and career and places him clearly in his social national and political context
