My Island Home John Singe, 2003 John Singe first arrived at Thursday Island in 1970 Peopled by many wild and wonderful characters this tropical paradise proved to be no place for the faint hearted As a diver John Singe survived shark attack and frequently faced the Strait's unpredictable moods when sailing the waters from Cape York to Papua New Guinea Hunting and fishing expeditions also provided him with an unexpected education As well as charting one man's Indiana Jones like adventures this entertaining book voyages across contemporary Islander cultures and lifestyles Much more than a travel saga My Island Home traces the rewarding journey of its author who continues to be drawn irresistibly to the gregarious people and unlimited horizons of Torres Strait St Kilda: My Island Home Miles Kerr-Peterson, Michelle H Craig, 2025-05-15 Christina MacDonald MacQueen 1884 1959 was born on St Kilda and grew up there at the close of the 19th century Yearning for the bright modern world beyond the island she was the first woman to leave of her own accord in 1909 settling in Glasgow During the crisis that led to the islands evacuations in 1929 30 she wrote a series of passionate articles about her childhood and the history of the islands These writings about St Kilda offer a personal and uniquely female perspective on the island's story and its imminent abandonment This book includes all seventeen of her articles which tell the full history of the island as she understood it and sets their publication against the dates of the evacuation These are complemented by a historical introduction and commentary Despite extensive literature on the story of St Kilda Christina s contributions have been largely overlooked by historians though they offer valuable insights into the island s history and the evacuation s impact To compliment the articles written by Christina this volume includes a collection of photographs taken by her husband Robert Chalmers in 1930 The Island Home James F. This study considers how island dwellers conceived of themselves and their relation to proximate mainlands and examines the fascination that islands have long held in the European imagination The collection addresses the significance of islands in the Atlantic economy of the eighteenth century the exploration of the Pacific the important role played by islands in the process of decolonisation and island oriented developments in postcolonial writing Islands were often seen as natural colonies or settings for ideal communities but they were also used as dumping grounds for the unwanted a practice which has continued into the twentieth century The collection argues the need for an island based theory within postcolonial studies and suggests how this might be constructed Covering a historical span from the eighteenth to the twentieth century the contributors include literary and postcolonial critics historians and geographers Small Worlds, Global Lives Russell King, John Connell, 1999-10-01 Geologists most from Australia and Britain but with some outliers from continental Europe and North America focus on small islands where the scarcity of people and resources make migration substantially important socially and economically The topics include the Azores historical cultural and literary perspectives on emigration from the minor islands of Ireland Nevis and the post war labor movement in Britain islands and the migration experience in the fiction of Jamaica Kincaid from dystopia to utopia on Norfolk Island Tongans online the changing contours of migrant Samoan St. Lucia, My Island Home Thérèse Robinson,1991 kinship and finding a retirement place in sunny Corfu Music: Latin and North America, Caribbean, India, Asia and Pacific Simon Broughton, Mark Ellingham, Richard Trillo, 2000 The Rough Guide to World Musicwas published for the first time in 1994 and became the definitive reference Six years on the subject has become too big for one book hence this new two volume edition World Music 2 Latin and North America Caribbean India Asia and Pacifichas full coverage of everything from salsa and merengue to gawwali and gamelan and biographies of artists from Juan Luis Guerra to The Klezmatics to Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan Features include more than 80 articles from expert contributors focusing on the popular and roots music to be seen and heard both live and on disc and extensive discographies for each country with biography notes on nearly 2000 musicians and reviews of their best available CDs It includes photos and album cover illustrations which have been gathered from contemporary and archive sources many of them unique to this book and directories of World Music labels specialist stores around the world and on the internet

The first chapter looks at the formation of the Australian state the role that multiculturalism has played and the impact of neoliberal ideas. The second chapter takes nightclubbing in the city of Perth during the 1980s the peak period for official multiculturalism to exemplify how diversity and exclusion functioned in everyday life. The third chapter considers the imbrication of Christianity in the Australian socio cultural order and its impact on the limits of multiculturalism with particular concentration on Islam and the Australian Muslim experience. Subsequent chapters discuss the exclusionary experience of various groups identified as non white
