Homelands And Diasporas Holy Lands And Other Spaces:

Homelands and Diasporas Andreh Le?i,Alex Weingrod,2005 This collection focuses fresh attention on the relationships between homeland and diaspora communities in today s world Based on in depth anthropological studies by leading scholars in the field the book highlights the changing character of homeland diaspora ties Homelands and Diasporas offers new understandings of the issues that these communities face and explores the roots of their fascinating yet sometimes paradoxical interactions The book provides a keen look at how homeland and diaspora appear in the lives of both Israeli Jews and Israeli Palestinians and also explores how these issues influence Pakistanis who make their home in England Armenians in Cyprus and England Cambodians in France and African Americans in Israel The critical views advanced in this collection should lead to a reorientation in diaspora studies and to a better understanding of the often contradictory changes in the relationships between people whose lives are led both at home and away

Revisiting Diaspora Spaces in India: A Contemporary Overview Joydev Maity,2023-09-12 This edited volume is a detailed and critical study of Indian diaspora writings and its diverse themes It focuses on dynamics and contemporary perspectives of Indian diaspora writings and analyzes emerging themes of this field like the experience of the Bihari diaspora migration to Gulf countries the relation between diasporic experience and self translation uprootedness and resistance discourse through ecocritical praxis and many more With the aid of a subtle theoretical framework the volume closely examines some of the key texts such as Goat Days Baumgartner s Bombay An Atlas of Impossible Longing The Circle of Reason and authors including Shauna Singh Baldwin M G Vassanji Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay V S Naipaul and others The book also explores diaspora literature written in regional language and later translated into English and how they align with the fundamental Indian diaspora writings A significant contribution to Indian diaspora writings this volume will be of great importance to scholars and researchers of diaspora literature migration and border studies cultural memory and translation studies

Homelands and Diasporas André Levy,Alex Weingrod,2022 This collection focuses fresh attention on the relationships between homeland and diaspora communities in today s world Based on in depth anthropological studies by leading scholars in the field the book highlights the changing character of homeland diaspora ties Homelands and Diasporas offers new understandings of the issues that these communities face and explores the roots of their fascinating yet sometimes paradoxical interactions The book provides a keen look at how homeland and diaspora appear in the lives of both Israeli Jews and Israeli Palestinians and also explores how these issues influence Pakistanis who make their home in England Armenians in Cyprus and England Cambodians in France and African Americans in Israel The critical views advanced in this collection should lead to a reorientation in diaspora studies and to a better understanding of the often contradictory changes in the relationships between people whose lives are led both at home and away

The Postcolonial Subject in Transit Delphine Fongang,2018-01-19 The Postcolonial Subject in Transit presents in depth analyses of the complex transitional migratory identities evident in emerging African diasporic writings It provides insights into the hybridity of the migrant experience where the migrant struggles to negotiate new cultural spaces It shows that while some migrants successfully adapt and integrate into new Western locales others exist at the margins unable to fully negotiate cultural difference The diaspora becomes a space for opportunities and economic mobility as well as alienation and uncertainties This illuminates the heterogeneity of the African diasporic narrative expanding the dialogue of the diaspora from one of simply loss and melancholia to self realization and empowerment

Palestinians in Syria Anaheed Al-Hardan, 2016-04-05 One hundred thousand Palestinians fled to Syria after being expelled from Palestine upon the establishment of the state of Israel in 1948 Integrating into Syrian society over time their experience stands in stark contrast to the plight of Palestinian refugees in other Arab countries leading to different ways through which to understand the 1948 Nakba or catastrophe in their popular memory Conducting interviews with first second and third generation members of Syria's Palestinian community Anaheed Al Hardan follows the evolution of the Nakba the central signifier of the Palestinian refugee past and present in Arab intellectual discourses Syria's Palestinian politics and the community's memorialization Al Hardan's sophisticated research sheds light on the enduring relevance of the Nakba among the communities it helped create while challenging the nationalist and patriotic idea that memories of the Nakba are static and universally shared among Palestinians Her study also critically tracks the Nakba's changing meaning in light of Syria's twenty first century civil war

African Homecoming Katharina Schramm, 2016-06-16 African Americans and others in the African diaspora have increasingly come home to Africa to visit the sites at which their ancestors were enslaved and shipped In this nuanced analysis of homecoming Katharina Schramm analyzes how a shared rhetoric of the Pan African family is produced among African hosts and Diasporan returnees and at the same time contested in practice She examines the varying interpretations and appropriations of significant sites e.g the slave forts events e.g Emancipation Day and discourses e.g repatriation in Ghana to highlight these dynamics From this she develops her notions of diaspora home homecoming memory and identity that reflect the complexity and multiple reverberations of these cultural encounters beyond the sphere of roots tourism

The Armenian Diaspora and Stateless Power Talar Chahinian, Sossie Kasbarian, Tsolin Nalbantian, 2023-11-02 From genocide forced displacement and emigration to the gradual establishment of sedentary and rooted global communities how has the Armenian diaspora formed and maintained a sense of collective identity This book explores the richness and magnitude of the Armenian experience through the 20th century to examine how Armenian diaspora elites and their institutions emerged in the post genocide period and used stateless power to compose forms of social discipline Historians cultural theorists literary critics sociologists political scientists and anthropologists explore how national and transnational institutions were built in far flung sites from Istanbul Aleppo Beirut and Jerusalem to Paris Los Angeles and the American mid west Exploring literary and cultural production as well as the role of religious institutions the book probes the history and experience of the Armenian diaspora through the long 20th century from the role of the fin de siècle migr Armenian press to the experience of Syrian Armenian asylum seekers in the 21st century It shows that a diaspora's statelessness can not only be evidence of its power but also how this stateless power acts as an alternative and complement to the nation state The Power of Parables, 2023-11-07 The Power of Parables documents the surprising ways in which Jewish and Christian parables bridge religion with daily life This 2019 conference volume rediscovers the original power of parables to shock and affect their audience which has since been reduced by centuries of preaching and repetition Not only do parables enhance the perspective on Scripture or the kingdom of heaven they also change the sensory regime of the audience in perceiving the outer world The theological differences in their applications appear secondary in view of their powerful rhetoric and suggest a shared genre Theatre and the Israel-Palestine Conflict Azza Harras, 2025-02-20 This book delves into the complex narratives surrounding the ongoing Israeli Palestinian dispute through the unique lens of theatre This ground breaking exploration employs postcolonial theory to analyze a diverse array of theatrical works by Israeli Palestinian and Western playwrights By juxtaposing portrayals of significant events such as the Nakba or the Israeli War of Independence the Intifadas and the experiences of diaspora and exile Harras provides a nuanced examination of how these events are represented on stage The book reveals the profound impact of language in constructing and contesting historical narratives and underscores theatre's role as a space for cultural critique and self reflection This comprehensive study offers new insights into the power of artistic expression to challenge historical dichotomies and encourage a deeper understanding of this enduring conflict Essential for scholars of Postcolonial Studies Middle East Studies and the Performing Arts this work invites readers to reconsider the conflict through the transformative lens of theatre

Beyond Hummus and Falafel Liora Gvion, 2012-10-22 Beyond Hummus and Falafel is the story of how food has come to play a central role in how Palestinian citizens of Israel negotiate life and a shared cultural identity within a tense political context At the household level Palestinian women govern food culture in the home replicating tradition and acting as agents of change and modernization carefully adopting and adapting mainstream Jewish culinary practices and technologies in the kitchen Food is at the center of how Arab culture minorities define and shape the boundaries and substance of their identity within Israel Mapping Exile and Return Alain Epp Weaver, 2014 One of the most persistent if vexing issues facing not just theology but also political theory sociology and other disciplines is the ongoing Palestinian Israeli conflict For theology the problem is especially nettlesome on account of the church's shared history and tradition with Israel Palestinians including Palestinian Christians bear the brunt of suffering and dispossession in the current situation yet are burdened even more by Christian political appropriation of Zionism Through an analysis of Palestinian refugee mapping practices for returning to their homeland Alain Epp Weaver takes up the troubled issue of Palestinian dispossession and argues against the political theology embedded in Zionist cartographic practices that refuse and seek to eliminate evidence of co existence Instead Alain Epp Weaver offers a political theology of redrawing the territory compatible with a bi national vision for a shared Palestinian

Israeli future      Leaving Other People Alone Aaron Kreuter, 2023-12-01 Leaving Other People Alone reads contemporary North American Jewish fiction about Israel Palestine through an anti Zionist lens Aaron Kreuter argues that since Jewish diasporic fiction played a major role in establishing the centropерipheral relationship between Israel and the diaspora it therefore also has the potential to challenge trouble and ultimately rework this relationship Kreuter suggests that any fictional work that concerns itself with Israel Palestine and Zionism comes with heightened responsibilities primarily to make narrative space for the Palestinian worldview the dispossessed Other of the Zionist project In engaging prose the book features a wide range of scholarship and new compelling readings of texts by Theodor Herzl Leon Uris Philip Roth Ayelet Tsabari and David Bezmozgis Throughout Kreuter develops his concept of diasporic heteroglossia which is fiction's unique ability to contain multiple voices that resist and write back against national centres This work makes an important and original contribution to Jewish studies diaspora studies and world literature      Development in Central Asia and the Caucasus Sophie Hohmann, Claire Mouradian, Silvia Serrano, 2014-06-25 After the final collapse of the Soviet Union the so called last empire in 1991 the countries of Central Asia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Uzbekistan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and of the Caucasus Armenia Azerbaijan Georgia became independent nations These countries previously production centres under the socialist planning system of the Soviet Union have made enormous economic adjustments in order to develop or attempt to develop along capitalist lines As this study will show however inequality in Central Asia and the Caucasus is widening as the Soviet systems of healthcare and state provisions disappear Rejecting the Cold War era East West paradigm often used to analyse the development of these nations this study analyses development along the North South lines which characterise the migration patterns and poverty levels of much of the rest of the developed world This opens up new avenues of research and helps us understand why it is for instance that this region is better characterised as a new South as skilled workers flood out of the territories and into Russia and Western Europe Development in Central Asia and the Caucasus draws together detailed analyses of the development of migration economics as the region's oil wealth further enhances its strategic and economic importance to Russia the US the Middle East and to the EU      Global Diasporas Robin Cohen, 2008-03-17 In a perceptive and arresting analysis Robin Cohen introduces his distinctive approach to the study of the world's diasporas This book investigates the changing meanings of the concept and the contemporary diasporic condition including case studies of Jewish Armenian African Chinese British Indian Lebanese and Caribbean people The first edition of this book had a major impact on diaspora studies and was the foundational text in an emerging research and teaching field This second edition extends and clarifies Robin Cohen's argument addresses some critiques and outlines new perspectives for the study of diasporas It has also been made more student friendly with illustrations guided readings and suggested essay questions      Israel and Africa Haim Yacobi, 2015-07-03 Israel and Africa critically examines the ways in which Africa as a geopolitical entity is socially manufactured collectively imagined but also culturally denied in Israeli politics Its unique exploration of moral geography and its comprehensive interdisciplinary research on the two countries offers new perspectives on Israeli history and society Through a genealogical investigation of the relationships between Israel and Africa this book sheds light on the processes of nationalism development and modernization exploring Africa s role as an instrument in the constant re shaping of Zionism Through looking at Israel in Africa as well as Africa in Israel it provides insightful analysis on the demarcation of Israel s ethnic boundaries and identity formation as well as proposing the different practices from architectural influences to the arms trade that have formed the geopolitical concept of Africa It is through these practices that Israel reproduces its internal racial and ethnic boundaries and spaces contributing to its geographical imagination as detached not solely from the Middle East but also from its African connections This book would be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East and Jewish Studies as well as Post colonial Studies Geography and Architectural History

Situating Strangeness: Exploring the Intersections between Bodies and Borders Vanessa Longden, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Zygmunt Bauman in his publication Liquid Modernity described the meeting of strangers as a mismeeting a brief encounter which had no past and the unlikely possibility of a future This suggests a meeting which is free from expectation but it also has the potential to fuel alienation and displacement Being a stranger is not synonymous with distant geographies or borderlands though it does include them strangers and peculiar places can be found closer to home Themes of alienation strangeness and foreignness converge in the following accounts The reader will migrate through unrecognisable narratives coming into contact with diasporic identities stand up comedians English Language Educators artists and photographers to mention a few These accounts are diverse but commonalities are tangled between webs of thought Readers are invited to tug at the threads of this web to find their own connections and chance upon unexpected revelations which come through picking the ends

The Challenges of Diaspora Migration Rainer K. Silbereisen, Peter F. Titzmann, 2016-04-01 Diaspora or ethnic return migrants have often been privileged in terms of citizenship and material support when they seek to return to their ancestral land yet for many after long periods of absence sometimes extending to generations acculturation to their new environment is as complex as that experienced by other immigrant groups Indeed the mismatch between the idealized hopes of the returning migrants and the high expectations for social integration by the new host country results in particular difficulties of adaptation for this group of immigrants often with high societal costs This interdisciplinary comparative volume examines migration from German and Jewish Diasporas to Germany and Israel examining the roles of origin ethnicity and destination in the acculturation and adaptation of immigrants The book presents results from various projects within a large research consortium that compared the adaptation of Diaspora immigrants with that of other immigrant groups and natives in Israel and Germany With close attention to specific issues relating to Diaspora immigration including language acquisition acculturation strategies violence and breaches with the past educational and occupational opportunities life course transitions and preparation for moving between countries The Challenges of Diaspora

Migration will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in migration and ethnicity

Diaspora and return migration      The Contexts of Diaspora Citizenship Päivi Armila, Marko Kananen, Yasemin Kontkanen, 2018-10-24 This book explores the social participation identification and transnational practices of Somalis living in Finland and the United States Through a multifaceted collection of chapters which are based on data ranging from legislation and policy documents to welfare indicators and interviews this book explores how Somali migrants experience and explore their identities and belongings and how they strive for participation as diaspora citizens of their sending and receiving societies The case studies are conducted in two countries that differ greatly in terms of their social system migration history and integration policies and as such they provide an opportunity to explore how different social political and legal orders influence the life courses and wellbeing of migrant populations Furthermore the book highlights how the fate of the Somalis as a global diaspora is routinely intertwined with the changes in the global political climate and the state level political processes reflecting it This book will be of great interest to researchers students and lecturers of migration and diaspora as well as individuals working with Somali migrants

Diaspora and Citizenship Claire Sutherland, Elena Barabantseva, 2013-09-13 This collection of papers discusses the impact of diasporas on the articulations and practices of legal political cultural and social citizenship in their country of origin While the majority of current citizenship debates focus on the challenges and directions in which diasporic and migrant communities impact on the citizenship regime in their country of settlement the papers in this volume approach the study of citizenship from the perspective of the link between the sending state and its diasporic communities abroad The papers discuss the role of language religion kinship and other ethnic markers in diaspora politics and trace their implications for the articulations and practices of citizenship Through discussing cases across political and geographical spectrums and from different historical epochs the book broadens and enriches the debate on citizenship by demonstrating important ways in which diasporas impact on the delineation of citizenship regimes and the politics of national identity in their homeland This links to the continued use of language as an ethnic marker but also one which may be learned allowing a certain degree of choice and shifting affiliations amongst putative members of a diaspora This book was published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics

Paul and the Politics of Diaspora Ronald Charles, 2014-11-01 It is a commonplace today that Paul was a Jew of the Hellenistic Diaspora but how does that observation help us to understand his thinking his self identification and his practice Ronald Charles applies the insights of contemporary diaspora studies to address much debated questions about Paul s identity as a diaspora Jew his complicated relationship with a highly symbolized homeland the motives of his daily work and the ambivalence of his rhetoric Charles argues for understanding a number of important aspects of Paul s identity and work including the ways his interactions with others were conditioned by his diaspora space his self understanding and his experience among the nations Diaspora space is a key concept that allows Charles to show how Paul s travels and the collection project in particular can be read as a transcultural narrative

Understanding the dynamics of diaspora also allows Charles to bring new light to the conflict at Antioch Galatians 1-2 Paul's relationships with the Gentiles in Galatia and the fraught relationship with leaders in Jerusalem
