accessed in order to combat the ills that came with colonization such as alcohol and disease Through extensive research especially in the Moravian records of day to day life Wheeler offers an understanding of the lived experience of Mohican communities under colonialism She complicates the understanding of eighteenth century American Christianity by demonstrating that mission programs were not always driven by the destruction of indigenous culture and the advancement of imperial projects In To Live upon Hope Wheeler challenges the prevailing view of accommodation or resistance as the two poles of Indian responses to European colonization colonialism placed severe strains on native peoples yet Indians also exercised a level of agency and creativity that aided in their survival The Life of Our Blessed Lord and Savior Jesus Gardens of Hope Yuki Kato, 2025-05-06 Social changes through urban gardening and Christ John Fleetwood.1874 farming Gardens are often spaces of hope expected to solve many problems in a city including food insecurity and climate resilience In fact there has been a historical trend of urban gardening gaining popularity during times of crisis Gardens of Hope is the story of urban gardening in New Orleans in the decade after Hurricane Katrina Yuki Kato highlights the impact urban gardens have on communities after disasters and the efforts of well intended individuals envisioning alternative futures in the form of urban farming Drawing on repeated interviews with residents who began cultivation projects in New Orleans between 2005 and 2015 Kato explains how good intentions and grit were not enough to implement or sustain urban gardeners visions for the post disaster city's future Coining the term prefigurative urbanism Kato illustrates how individuals tried to realize alternative ways of living and working in the city through pragmatism and innovation Gardens of Hope asks key questions about what inspires and enables individuals to pursue prefigurative urbanism and about the potential and limitations of this form of civic engagement to bring about short and long term changes in cities undergoing transformation from gentrification post pandemic recovery to climate change
