Asian Case Studies on Translating Christianity Heejun Yang, 2024-03-14 Asian Case Studies on Translating Christianity brings historical expressions of Asian Christianity into contemporary theological conversation The book offers case studies of Jingjiao Christianity in Tang China the Jesuit mission in Ming China indigenous theology in colonial Korea and contemporary Asian American theology The case studies especially examine how the names and understandings of the Trinity have been changed in the processes of borrowing erasing and elevating the meanings of Eastern local concepts to translate the message of Christianity Not only are these diverse expressions of Christianity unique and valuable in and of themselves but they testify that diverse understandings are a God given phenomenon Heejun Yang draws on contemporary theological hermeneutics to argue that it is the self communicative nature of God that helps articulate the diverse understandings of God in these cases Yang posits the Triune God as both the starting and ending points of the Christian hermeneutic process and claims that this understanding can be a way for the church to embrace different Christian communities while moving forward in their own unique complexities book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration

Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M

Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B Pinn, 2010-03-01 Liberation Theologies in the United States reveals how the critical use of religion can be utilized to challenge and combat oppression in America. In the nascent United States, religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression. Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations, oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse. As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates, this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism, poverty, and other types of oppression. Stacey M. Floyd Thomas and Anthony B. Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development, context, theory, and goals of a range of U.S.-born liberation theologies: Black Theology, Anthony B. Pinn, Womanist Theology, Stacey M. Floyd Thomas, Latina Theology, Nancy Pineda Madrid, Hispanic/Latino Theology, Benjamin Valentín, Asian American Theology, Andrew Sung Park, Asian American Feminist Theology, Grace Ji Sun Kim, Native Feminist Theology, Andrea Smith, Native American Theology, George Tinker, Gay and Lesbian Theology, Robert E. Shore, Goss, Feminist Theology, Mary McClintock Fulkerson. An extraordinary resource for understanding the vitality of liberation theologies and their relation to social transformation in the changing U.S. context. Written in an accessible and engaged way, this powerful and informative text will inspire beginners and scholars alike. I highly recommend it. Kwok Pui-lan, author of Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology. A delight to read and an exemplary account of the genre of liberation theologies. Religious Studies Review. Gigs from Hell, Sleazegrinder, 2003. Foreword by Vadge Moore, drummer for the Dwarves. From the darkest rat-hole basements to flash arenas, here is a wild ride through Rock's worst moments. Rife with confessionals, Gigs from Hell strips the mythology and starry-eyed allure of life on the road to its barest essentials: puke, rip-offs, come-downs, and the odd stab at glory. Collected and translated from drunken rock-speak by music writer Sleazegrinder, this book offers a rare glimpse at what it's really like to tour, record, and survive in the cut-throat music industry.
