Re-thinking Travel Writing Ben Stubbs, Lee Mylne, 2024-03-30 This book stems from the question that we as co authors grappled with for the past 3 plus years while in our own periods of stasis during the pandemic What place does the travel writing genre hold in a post COVID world With the massive interruptions to travel and travel writing across 2020 2023 as the pandemic forced us indoors and into isolation it also raised many other pertinent questions about the practice of and future of travel writing Part of the prompt for this book comes from the post pandemic assumption that in an ecologically fraught less mobile and more uncertain world there may not be a place for travel writing as we know it to exist in any meaningful way We examine the problems and solutions apparent for travel writing as it engages with a period of re thinking prompted by the pandemic though necessary for a plethora of other reasons as well As academics and travel writing practitioners with decades of experience in the field we offer a unique perspective on this topic as we have the in the field experience of professional travel writers and we have the academic grounding to better understand the history theoretical concerns and contradictions of the genre to provide a more in depth perspective to our travel writing colleagues This grounding allows us to access a unique and valuable perspective for Re thinking Travel Writing The Journey of a Genre for academics aspiring travel writers and contemporary colleagues in the field

Travels with a Writing Brush, 2019-11-07 A rich exquisite and original anthology that illuminates Japanese travel writing over a thousand years Oh journey upon journey my life is a brief moment and I cannot hope that we will meet again Roaming over mountains and along perilous shores this anthology illuminates over a thousand years of Japanese travel writing It takes in songs diaries tales and poetry and ranges from famous works including The Pillow Book and the works of Basho to pieces such as the diary of a young girl who longs to return to the capital and her beloved books or the writings of travelling monks who sleep on pillows of grass Together they illuminate a long literary tradition with intense poetic experience at its heart Translated and edited with an introduction by Meredith McKinney

J. M. Synge and Travel Writing of the Irish Revival Giulia Bruna, 2017-10-31 Between the late 1890s and the early 1900s the young Irish writer John Millington Synge journeyed across his home country documenting his travels intermittently for ten years His body of travel writing includes the travel book The Aran Islands his literary journalism about West Kerry and Wicklow published in various periodicals and his articles for the Manchester Guardian about rural poverty in Connemara and Mayo Although Synge s nonfiction is often considered of minor weight compared with his drama Bruna argues persuasively that his travel narratives are instances of a pioneering ethnographic and journalistic imagination J M Synge and Travel Writing of the Irish Revival is the first comprehensive study of Synge s travel writing about Ireland compiled during the zeitgeist of the preindependence Revival movement Bruna argues that Synge s nonfiction subverts inherited modes of travel writing that put an emphasis on Empire and Nation Synge s writing challenges these grand narratives by expressing a more complex idea of Irishness grounded in his empathetic observation of the local rural communities he traveled amongst Drawing from critically neglected revivalist travel literature newspapers and periodicals and visual and archival documents Bruna sketches a new portrait of a seminal Irish Literary Renaissance figure and sheds new light on the itineraries of activism and literary engagement of the broader Revival movement Journeys of Transformation John D. Barbour, 2022-03-31 Western Buddhist travel narratives are autobiographical accounts of a journey to a Buddhist culture Dozens of such narratives have since the 1970s describe treks in Tibet periods of residence in a Zen monastery pilgrimages to Buddhist sites and teachers and other Asian odysseys The best known of these works is Peter Matthiessen s The Snow Leopard further reflections emerge from thirty writers including John Blofeld Jan Van de Wetering Thomas Merton Oliver Statler Robert Thurman Gretel Ehrlich and Bill Porter The Buddhist concept of no self helps these authors interpret certain pivotal experiences of unselfing and is also a catalyst that provokes and enables such events The writers spiritual memoirs describe how their journeys brought about a new understanding of Buddhist enlightenment and so transformed their lives Showing how travel can elicit self transformation this book is a compelling exploration of the journeys and religious changes of both individuals and Buddhism itself A Traveller's Year ,2015-10-01 A collection of anecdotes for each day of the year on the subject of travel and exploration from Charles Darwin Michael Palin Evelyn Waugh and others With an emphasis on the period 1750 1950 the classic era of both European exploration and diary writing this anthology features excerpts that convey men and women s experiences of travel and discovery from the sixteenth to the early twenty first centuries The authors of the pieces range from famous explorers such as Captains Cook and Scott to modern travel writers journeying through the contemporary world from people who pushed back the boundaries of geographical knowledge to people who wrote about what they did on their summer holidays The book includes an introduction explanatory notes and mini biographies of all the contributors including Gertrude Bell woman traveller in the Middle East James Boswell travels in Scotland and the Hebrides William Cobbett Rural Rides through England Christopher Columbus journals of his voyages to America Charles Darwin Voyage of the Beagle Captain James Cook voyages in the Pacific Washington Irving American writer travelled in Europe in first decades of nineteenth century Edward Lear landscape painter and nonsense writer produced journals of his travels in Greece Corsica Near East etc Lewis Clark journals of famous journey of American exploration William Morris wrote a journal of a trip to Iceland in 1870s Michael Palin a Python abroad Mungo Park African explorer in early nineteenth century Captain Robert Falcon Scott doomed journey to South Pole Evelyn Waugh diaries of 1930s travels in Mediterranean and beyond William John Wills explorer of Australia The Journal of Intercultural Studies ,1999

Travel and Transformation Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, 2016-02-24 Travel and tourism have a long association with the notion of transformation both in terms of self and social collectives What is surprising however is that this association has on the whole remained relatively underexplored and unchallenged with little in the way of a corpus of academic literature surrounding these themes Instead much of the literature to date has focused upon describing and categorising tourism and travel experiences from a supply side perspective with travellers themselves defined in terms of their motivations and interests While the tourism field can lay claim to several significant milestone contributions there have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues arising from the travel transformation nexus The opportunity to explore the socio cultural dimensions of transformation through travel has thus far been missed Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature

Travel Writing, Form, and Empire Julia Kuehn, Paul Smethurst, 2008-11-19 This collection of essays is an important contribution to travel writing studies looking beyond the explicitly political questions of postcolonial and gender discourses it considers the form poetics institutions and reception of travel writing in the history of empire and its aftermath Starting from the premise that travel writing studies has received much of its impetus and theoretical input from the sometimes overgeneralized precepts of postcolonial studies and gender studies this collection aims to explore more widely and more locally the expression of imperialist discourse in travel writing and also to locate within contemporary travel writing attempts to evade or re engage with the power politics of such discourse There is a double focus then to explore further postcolonial theory in European travel writing Anglophone Francophone and Hispanic and to trace the emergence of postcolonial forms of travel writing The thread that draws the two halves of the collection together is an interest in form and relations between form and travel
