The Book of Legends/Sefer Ha-Aggadah Hayyim Nahman Bialik, Y.H. Rawnitzky, 1992-11-10 The first complete English translation of the Hebrew classic Sefer Ha Aggadah brings to the English speaking world the greatest and best loved anthology of classical Rabbinic literature ever compiled First published in Odessa in 1908 it was recognized immediately as a masterwork in its own right and reprinted numerous times in Israel The Hebrew poet Hayim Nahman Bialik and the renowned editor Yehoshua Hana Ravnitzky the architects of this masterful compendium selected hundreds of texts from the Talmud and midrashic literature and arranged them thematically in order to provide their contemporaries with easy access to the national literary heritage of the Jewish people the texts of Rabbinic Judaism that remain at the heart of Jewish literacy today Bialik and Ravnitzky chose Aggadah the non legal portions of the Talmud and Midrash for their anthology Loosely translated as legends Aggadah includes the genres of biblical exegesis stories about biblical characters the lives of the Talmudic era sages and their contemporary history parables proverbs and folklore A captivating melange of wisdom and piety fantasy and satire Aggadah is the expressive medium of the Jewish creative genius The arrangement of this compendium reflects the theological concerns of the Rabbinic sages the role of Israel and the nations God good and evil human relations the world of nature and the art of healing Here the reader who wants to explore traditional Jewish views on a particular subject is treated to a selection of relevant texts at his fingertips but will soon become immersed in a way of thinking exploring and questioning that is the hallmark of Jewish inquiry Whatever the imagination can invent is found in the Aggadah wrote the historian Leopold Zunz its purpose always being to teach man the ways of God The Book of Legends Sefer Ha Aggadah now available in William Braude's superbly annotated translation enables modern Jews to experience firsthand the richness and excitement of their cultural inheritance Death, Ecstasy, and Other Worldly Journeys John J. Collins, Michael Fishbane, 1995-03-09 Belief in a spirit world and a blissful or agonizing afterlife is one of the most pervasive and deeply rooted characteristics of religion This volume offers a wide ranging exploration of this basic religious theme Most of the case studies are drawn from Jewish and Christian tradition providing in depth coverage of Judaism and Christianity from late Antiquity through the Medieval period There are also examples from Islamic Japanese and Chinese traditions for a comparative perspective with Western traditions Several chapters deal with the formative period of Jewish and Christian apocalypticism which is concerned not only with the end of the physical world but also with the eternal heavenly world These chapters are also important for illustrating the development of mysticism in Western traditions The most distinctive aspect of this book is that it does not deal with antiquity alone but juxtaposes the historical essays with a survey of modern day near death experiences It raises issues of fundamental importance for the psychology of religion as well as for its history The most distinctive aspect of this book is that it does not deal with antiquity alone but juxtaposes the historical essays with a survey of modern day near death experiences It raises issues of fundamental importance for the psychology of religion as well as for its history Journeys with God Carolyn J. Christianity is a journey it is a journey most of us start when God finds us in our sinfulness and delivers us to our righteousness for his names sake Psalm 23 3 It is a process that we have to be aware of and we have to be aware of our responsibility at each stage in order to progress to the next stage of our journey The scriptures tell us of the journey the children of Israel had from their place of slavery Egypt where God rescued them with his powerful arm and then journeyed with them in the wilderness to bring them to their Promised Land Canaan a land he had promised to their ancestors Abraham

Isaac and Jacob This journey that the Israelites had is quite similar to the journey that we Christians have the only difference is that they did their journey physically and God was with them physically as well while ours is a spiritual journey and he is in us as the Holy Spirit guiding us The canon has recorded their journeys story for us to learn from and do ours better 1 Corinthians 10 6 Ive noted through the scriptures that it was just through Gods mercy that they made it through to the Promised Land even though most of them died in the wilderness those who made it did so only because he was merciful to them Ive realised that I have also survived thus far just by his grace This is what this book is all about this mercy that has covered me thus far the same mercy that carried the children of Israel on their journey from Egypt to Canaan Biblical Theology Jeong Koo Jeon, 2017-01-31 Dr Jeon s Biblical Theology is a timely must read for church leaders seminarians pastors and missionaries in the Global Mission Field It examines God s redemptive history in creation fall redemption and consummation as revealed in the Old and New Testaments Dr Jeon delves into the grand redemptive drama progressively demonstrated through the divine covenants as well as the manifestation of the eschatological Kingdom of God This book provides not only a proper redemptive historical vision of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation but also key ideas for the formation of a solid biblical worldview Dr Jeon demonstrates the intersection and union between biblical and systematic theology while exploring redemptive history Dr Jeon also emphasizes that we currently live in the eschatological age inaugurated after Jesus Christ s death and resurrection as the Mediator of the New Covenant This inaugurated eschatological Kingdom of God will be consummated after the Second Coming of Jesus Meanwhile the present age is occurring during the last days in which we live in the era of Global Missions by God s grace The community of the New Covenant church should humbly respond by participating in evangelism and missions demonstrating to the world that God s final judgment is coming
