Joyous Patriot The Life And Letters Of Sir Ralph Verney:

The Joyous Patriot David Verney, 1989-03-27 Ralph Verney was born in 1879 His grandfather Sir Harry Verne had married as his second wife Parthenope Sister of Florence Nightingale who was Ralph's Godmother In 1900 he joined the Rifle Brigade and was sent to South Africa where the Boer War was then in progress A dutiful son he wrote regularly to his parents describing every detail of his daily life Fortunately these letters have survived and have now been edited for publication by Ralph's own son David Quite apart from the intrinsic interest of what the letters actually say they have another rarer quality in that they lay bare the standards by which a young man of aristocratic birth was then guided Old fashioned they may sound but not a few still regret their passing In 1907 Ralph became ADC to Lord Chelmsford then Governor of Queensland and two years later falls in love and marries Nita Walker daughter of a distinguished Australian banker and politician Now some of Nita's letters enliven the correspondence and soon a baby is on the way So too is the First World War and Ralph finds himself back with his regiment in France where he has what must ironically be regarded as the good fortune of the wounded At the end of his first volume we leave him on the road to recovery and to India where he will shortly rejoin Lord Chelmsford

Ashes and Blood Peter B. Boyden, Marion Harding, Alan James Guy, 1999 A collection of essays by twelve historians guides the reader through the history of the British Army's experiences in South Africa in the 120 years leading up to the First World War Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1975

British Generalship on the Western Front 1914-1918 Simon Robbins, 2004-12-17 This book explores how British Army learnt from the pyrrhic victories of 1915-17 and developed the new tactics leadership and doctrine of combined arms to overcome the tactical stalemate hitherto bedevilling Allied offensives to defeat the A Kingdom United Catriona Pennell, 2012-03 In this the first fully documented study of British and Irish popular reactions to the outbreak of the First World War Catriona Pennell explores UK public opinion of the time and successfully challenges the myth of British war enthusiasm A Kingdom United explores what people felt and how they acted in response to an unanticipated and unprecedented crisis It is a history of both ordinary people and elite figures in extraordinary times Dr Pennell demonstrates that describing the reactions of over 40 million British and Irish people to the outbreak of war as either enthusiastic in the British case or disengaged in the Irish is over simplified and inadequate Emotional reactions to the war were ambiguous and complex and changed over time By the end of 1914 the populations of England Scotland Wales and Ireland had largely embraced the war but the war had also embraced them and showed no signs of relinquishing its grip The five months from August to December 1914 set the shape of much that was to follow A Kingdom United describes and explains that twenty week formative process Pennell draws from a vast array of diaries letters journals and newspaper accounts by the very people who experienced the war in its first dramatic five months She outlines the variety of responses felt amongst both the ordinary people and elite figures from across the country
