International Law and the Politics of History Anne Orford, 2021-08-05 As the future of international law has become a growing site of struggle within and between powerful states debates over the history of international law have become increasingly heated International Law and the Politics of History explores the ideological political and material stakes of apparently technical disputes over how the legal past should be studied and understood Drawing on a deep knowledge of the history theory and practice of international law Anne Orford argues that there can be no impartial accounts of international law's past and its relation to empire and capitalism Rather than looking to history in a doomed attempt to find a new ground for formalist interpretations of what past legal texts really mean or what international regimes are really for she urges lawyers and historians to embrace the creative role they play in making rather than finding the meaning of international law

Hermeneutics, Social Criticism and Everyday Education Practice Wiktor Żłobicki, Monika Humeniuk, Grażyna Lubowicka, Iwona Paszenda, Beata Pietkiewicz-Pareek, 2020-06-03 The individual chapters written by scholars of the Department of General Pedagogy at the University of Wrocław included in the volume offered to the Readers showcase selected variants and problems of the hermeneutical and critical approaches to educational practice and research The general pedagogy we practice in this way reveals its interdisciplinary character drawing on the resources and achievements of philosophy sociology psychology cultural anthropology religious studies and political sciences By deliberately adopting such an approach general pedagogy becomes the basic science of pedagogy one of its major tasks is the integration and criticism of knowledge about education and the study of education and its broadly understood contexts a knowledge which is produced not only in numerous disciplines of humanities and social sciences This ambitious task undertaken by many theoreticians and researchers of education all over the world calls for a continuous effort to review the resources of dynamically changing and transforming scientific knowledge and to draw on contemporary and historically significant philosophy Translating these experiences into the resources of general pedagogy requires from us the effort of understanding the languages of contemporary humanities social sciences and multicultural societies as well as the effort of critical thinking which can recognize and take into account the entanglement of scientific knowledge in social ideas and practices its conflicts inequalities and asymmetric discourses Hence the general pedagogy we practice exploring the area of ideology religion and utopias present in everyday educational practice implements the vision of bringing closer these two approaches hermeneutical and critical We believe that such a general pedagogy engaged practiced with passion aware of its present social context and its past and of the urgent needs theoretical and practical difficulties a pedagogy that explores the possible shapes of the future is both necessary and inspiring It addresses new topics and offers novel approaches revises well established and newly proposed findings is aware of opportunities and threats Nevertheless the chapters written by us are integral self contained wholes just as their authors retain their intellectual and research autonomy which can be seen in the issues we choose the mode of their presentation and addressing The Historian's Scarlet Letter Melissa McFarland Pennell,2018-04-12 This annotated edition of The Scarlet Letter enhances student and reader comprehension of a standard work studied in literature classes exploring names places objects and allusions Mamluk History through Architecture Nasser Rabbat,2010-09-30 The most enduring testament to the Mamluk Sultanate is its architecture Not only do Mamluk buildings embody one of the most outstanding medieval architectural traditions Mamluk architecture is actually a key to the social history of the period Analysing Mamluk constructions as a form of communication and documentation as well as a cultural index Mamluk History Through Architecture shows how the buildings mirror the complex and historically unique military political social and financial structures of Mamluk society With this original and authoritative study Nasser Rabbat offers an innovative approach to the history of the Mamluks through readings of the spectacular architecture of the period Drawing on examples from throughout both Egypt and Syria from the Citadel and Al Azhar Mosque of Cairo to the Mausoleum of al Zahir Baybars in Damascus Rabbat demonstrates how Mamluk architecture served to reinforce visually the spirit of the counter Crusade when the Muslim world rebounded from the setbacks of the First Crusade Both holistically and in case studies Rabbat demonstrates how history is inscribed into and reflected by a culture s artefacts This is a groundbreaking work in the study of architecture and social history in the Middle East and beyond Proceedings of ...
