Farewell to Alexandria Charēs Tzalas, Harry E Tzalas, 2004 The eleven short stories in this book take us back to an Alexandria past the cosmopolitan city as it was experienced by the author in the years before during and following the Second World War Against a backdrop of major events in Alexandria s history from the halcyon days of the late 1930s through the alarms of the War to the 1952 Revolution and the dispersion of almost the entire foreign community of the city Tzalas weaves his stories peopled with characters from his youth These are ordinary people people of different nationalities and faiths but all Alexandrians living side by side in the Great City In describing each character with great sensitivity and perception Tzalas succeeds not only in capturing the essence of the city itself but in poignantly foretelling the fundamental changes and exodus that were to come The events surrounding among others a German family caught in the city during the Second World War three French monks an old Greek musician and a group of cultivated elderly Alexandrian gentlemen are told with an affection often tinged with sadness Through these characters Tzalas tells the story of everyday lives caught up in the turbulent currents of history and the transformation of a beloved city the end of an era Each of the eleven stories is accompanied by an evocative illustration by Anna Boghigian

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

Farewell to Alexandria Suzanne Roberts, 1993 Lori

Coleman still distraught over her fiancé's death wins a trip to romantic Egypt The Weird and Wonderful Adventures of Tim Wessurp, 'TWERP' Derek Adie Flower, Broken Shackles Peter Meyler, 2007-01-26 In 1889 Broken Shackles was published in Toronto under the pseudonym of Glenelg. This very unique book containing the recollections of a resident of Owen Sound, Ontario, an African American known as Old Man Henson, was one of the very few books that documented the journey to Canada from the perspective of a person of African descent. Now over 112 years later, a new edition of Broken Shackles is available. Henson was a great storyteller and the spark of life shines through as he describes the horrors of slavery and his goal of escaping its tenacious hold. His times as a slave in Maryland, his refuge in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and his ultimate freedom in Canada are vividly depicted through his remembrances. The stories of Henson's family, friends, and enemies will both amuse and shock the readers of Broken Shackles. Old Man Henson: From Slavery to Freedom. It is interesting to discover that his observations of life's struggles and triumphs are as relevant today as they were in his time.

The Untethered SW Southwick, 2017-02-01 THE UNTETHERED is a philosophical techno thriller that spans the globe, weaving five seemingly unrelated characters into a web of impossible conflict and unlikely friendship. And while they battle against their own internal demons in an attempt to achieve their selfish pursuits, the self-righteous mobs of the world are closing in to stop them. The characters: Juvenile delinquent Roble Santos chases his radical vision to build the most controversial aircraft in history, but with the threat of betrayal, prison, and death all around him, he's running out of time. Political star Alexandria Patra rises to the envy of the masses, yet to reach the top, she is forced to decide between what everyone expects and her long-abandoned childhood dream. Rogue geneticist Stock Brant reinvents nature in order to save the very world he hates, unaware the price of his plan may be his own soul. Savant tennis player Nicolette Popov employs precise mathematics and youthful spunk to become the best player in the world, but unwilling to follow the rules off the court, she risks everything she fought to achieve. Manga artist Danny Sands goes to the ends of the earth to make his father proud, blind to the reality his submission may cost everything and everyone he ever held dear. When all five lives collide beneath the streets of Las Vegas, each must make a choice, and none of them will ever be the same again. A thought-provoking novel that will appeal to fans of Atlas Shrugged. BookBub: bookbub.com/books/the-untethered-by-s-w-southwick. Quote from the back cover: Alexandria counted her shallow breaths. Roble: "What? What is it you need?" He pulled his arrowhead out from his shirt and rubbed it. "I don't need to hear how scary the world is, and how I shouldn't try anything. I don't need to know how much suffering there is out there," he pointed out the window, "or how bad I should feel about it. What I need," he looked up, his grey eyes pleading, "is to see someone who is still happy after growing up." Lowering his head, he added, "I need to see living Ms. Patra because I actually want to live." Quote from inside: The East China Sea glistened like an endless glass sheet. The F-22 Raptor Super Kai flashed just above its surface, ripping twin aerated water plumes into the air. A grey destroyer sat broadside in the water just ahead. Roble hurtled toward its bow without slowing. Crossing above the ship, the jet's sonic shockwave rocked sailors to the deck as if Roble's soul had exploded through their bodies Sea spray from the wake doused the ship's hull like an exclamation point Advisory This novel contains sex drugs and fighter jets The Bloomsbury Group Memoir Club S.
