Farmers Movement And Prebure Group Politics:

Farmers' Movement and Pressure Group Politics Kehar Singh,1990 Political Parties, Pressure Groups and Social Movements Dr. Ram Ayodhya Singh,2021-09-15 A political party is a political organization that typically seeks to influence government policy usually by nominating their own candidates and trying to seat them in political office Parties participate in electoral campaigns and educational outreach or protest actions Parties often espouse an expressed ideology or vision bolstered by a written platform with specific goals forming a coalition among disparate interests An advocacy group is a group or an organization which tries to influence the government but does not hold power in the government A single issue group may form in response to a particular issue area sometimes in response to a single event or threat Some have developed into important social political institutions or social movements Some powerful Lobby groups have been accused of manipulating the democratic system for narrow commercial gain and in some instances have been found guilty of corruption fraud bribery and other serious crimes lobbying has become increasingly regulated as a result Some groups generally ones with less financial resources may use direct action and civil disobedience and in some cases are accused of being a threat to the social order or domestic extremists Research is beginning to explore how advocacy groups use social media to facilitate civic engagement and collective action Contents Political Parties The Role of Political Parties in Constitutionalising Governance The Systemic Role of Parties and Interest Groups Functions of Pressure Groups Growth of Pressure Groups Legal Representation of Interests Social Movement Social Movement in India Farmers, Subalterns, and Activists Trent Brown,2018-07-05 In theory chemical free sustainable agriculture not only has ecological benefits but also social and economic benefits for rural communities By removing farmers expenses on chemical inputs it provides them with greater autonomy and challenges the status quo where corporations dominate food systems In practice however organisations promoting sustainable agriculture often maintain connections with powerful institutions and individuals who have vested interests in maintaining the status quo This book explores this tension within the sustainable farming movement through reference to three detailed case studies of organisations operating in rural India New Farmers' Movements in India Tom Brass,1995 The essays in this collection focus on the reasons for and background to the emergence during the 1980s of the new farmers movements in India In addition to a more general consideration of the economic political and theoretical dimensions of this development there are case studies which cover the farmer s movements in Maharashtra Uttar Pradesh Punjab and Karnataka Reinventing Revolution Gail Omvedt,2019-09-16 This study describes and analyses the new social movements that have arisen in India over the past two decades in particular the anti caste movement of both the untouchables and the lower middle castes the women s liberation movement the farmers movement centred on struggles arising out of their integration into a state controlled capitalist market and the environmental movements opposition to destructive development including resistance to big dam projects and the search for alternatives Rooted in participant observation it focuses on the ideologies and self understanding of the movements themselves The central themes of this book are the origin of movements in the socio economic contradictions of post independence India their effect on political developments in particular the disintegration of Congress hegemony their relation to traditional Marxist theory and Communist practice and their groping toward a synthesis of theory and practice that constitutes a new social vision distinct from traditional Marxism

Hungry Nation Benjamin Robert Siegel, 2018-04-26 This ambitious and engaging new account of independent India's struggle to overcome famine and malnutrition in the twentieth century traces Indian nation building through the voices of politicians planners and citizens Siegel explains the historical origins of contemporary India's hunger and malnutrition epidemic showing how food and sustenance moved to the center of nationalist thought in the final years of colonial rule Independent India's politicians made promises of sustenance and then qualified them by asking citizens to share the burden of feeding a new and hungry state Foregrounding debates over land markets and new technologies Hungry Nation interrogates how citizens and politicians contested the meanings of nation building and citizenship through food and how these contestations receded in the wake of the Green Revolution Drawing upon meticulous archival research this is the story of how Indians challenged meanings of welfare and citizenship across class caste region and gender in a new nation state

Resistance, Space and Political Identities David Featherstone, 2011-06-20 Utilizing research on networked struggles in both the 18th century Atlantic world and our modern day Resistance Space and Political Identities The Making of Counter Global Networks challenges existing understandings of the relations between space politics and resistance to develop an innovative account of networked forms of resistance and political activity Explores counter global struggles in both the past and present including both the 18th century Atlantic world and contemporary forms of resistance Examines the productive geographies of contestation Foregrounds the solidarities and geographies of connection between different place based struggles and argues that such solidarities are essential to produce more plural forms of globalization

Non-Violence Movements after Gandhi Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-07-23 In this book we will study about the global influence of Gandhi's non violence ideology on movements led by Martin Luther King Jr Nelson Mandela and others across civil rights and anti apartheid movements
