Fast Company:

Dreamcrafting Paul Levesque, Art McNeil, 2003-02-16 Many people set out to achieve a dream starting a business or learning to play the piano or publishing a book but they don't succeed and the dream fizzles away. In many cases these people have lots of skills and expertise such as deep knowledge of the business or career they are interested in so why don't they succeed? Paul Levesque and Art McNeil have discovered that making a dream come true requires cultivating skills of a higher order: macroskills that inevitably spell the difference between success and failure no matter what the specifics of a person's dreams are. These are the skills Dreamcrafting outlines in detail. The Greatest Sniper Stories Ever Told Tom McCarthy, 2016-05-01 In The Greatest Sniper Stories Ever Told editor Tom McCarthy has pulled together some of the finest writings about snipers that capture readers' imaginations meticulously culled from books, magazines, movies, and elsewhere. It is an unforgettable collection and includes stories by Chris Kyle, author of American Sniper, Joe LeBleu, Gina Cavallaro, and Matt Larsen, and many others. Harper, 2011-01-04 This insightful guide showcases a new psychological framework through which business leaders can transform themselves and their organizations. Most managers, author Stephen C. Harper writes, do not understand what is involved in transforming organizations. His book The Ever-Evolving Enterprise: Guidelines for Creating Your Company's Future is intended to remedy that by focusing on ten areas proactive business leaders must address as they guide their companies through everyday activities and into the future. The book stresses the need for firms to evolve to remain in sync with an ever-changing marketplace. It explores the multifaceted nature of transformational leadership and offers specific guidelines, ideas, and techniques leaders can institute to seize new opportunities and develop innovative products and services that offer sustainable competitive advantages. But it also invites executives to take a closer look at how they lead their firms, promoting a fresh psychological framework that will keep business leaders and their companies anticipatory, perceptive, agile, innovative, results-oriented, and able to execute so that their visions become realities. Leapfrogging Soren Kaplan, 2012-08-06 Today's business environment demands leapfroggers: those who create rapid, disruptive innovation, not small improvements. A leading innovation pioneer shows that businesses often ignore the very thing that could lead them to game-changing products: the power of surprise.
