Bureau of Entomology,1901 Friendship Francesco Alberoni,2016-09-19 In Friendship Francesco Alberoni offers a wide ranging analysis of intimacy Traversing disciplines he untangles the meanings of friendship from family and friendly relations from love and passion and the everyday experiences of coupledness Friendship is the just relationship Rather than based on exchange it is an encounter between two intimates that repudiates the logics of the market the depersonalizing norms of modern bureaucracy and the objectives of collectivities whether they be couples or social movements Intimate and just friendship partakes of the world while resisting its dehumanizing drift Marrying philosophical poetics with social science sensibility Alberoni shows that the extent to which we live up to the ideals of friendship marks our capacities to realize the republican virtues in concrete everyday life Bulletin ,1902 West African Studies Conflict Networks in North and West Africa OECD,Sahel and West Africa Club,2021-03-29 Conflicts in North and West Africa have become more violent and widespread than in the past They have also become more difficult to resolve due to the complex relationships between a growing number of belligerents with diverging agendas This report maps conflict networks and the evolution of rivalries and alliances in 21 North and West African countries An Open-Hearted Life Russell Kolts,Thubten Chodron,2015-03-31 A life overflowing with compassion It sounds wonderful in theory but how do you do it This guide provides practical methods for living with this wonderful quality based on traditional Buddhist teachings and on methods from modern psychology particularly a technique called Compassion Focused Therapy CFT The methods presented by the two authors a psychotherapist and a Tibetan Buddhist nun turn out to have a good deal in common In fact they complement each other in wonderful ways Each of the sixty four short chapters ends with a reflection or exercise for putting compassion into practice in various life situations John Huighen Van Linschoten, His Discours of Voyages Into Ye Easte [and] West Indies Jan Huygen van Linschoten,1598 Journal of Education ,1901 The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1901 Choosing Terror Marisa Linton,2013-06-20 Choosing Terror Virtue Friendship and Authenticity in the French Revolution examines the leaders of the French Revolution Robespierre and his fellow Jacobins and particularly the gradual process whereby many of them came to choose terror These men led the Jacobin Club between 1789 and 1794 and were attempting to establish new democratic politics in France Exploring revolutionary politics through the eyes of these leaders and against a political backdrop of a series of traumatic events wars and betrayals Marisa Linton portrays the Jacobins as complex human beings who were influenced by emotions and personal loyalties as well as by their revolutionary ideology The Jacobin leaders entire political careers were constrained by their need to be seen by their supporters as men of virtue free from corruption and ambition and concerned only with the public good In the early stages of the Revolution being seen as men of virtue empowered the Jacobin leaders and aided them in their efforts to forge their political careers However with the onset of war there was a growing conviction that political leaders who feigned virtue were the enemy within secretly conspiring with France s external enemies By Year Two the year of the Terror the Jacobin identity had become a destructive force in order to demonstrate their own authenticity they had to be seen to act virtuously and be prepared if the public good demanded it to denounce and destroy their friends and even to sacrifice their own lives This desperate thinking resulted in the politicians terror one of the most ruthless of all forms of terror during the Revolution Choosing Terror seeks neither to cast blame nor to exonerate but to understand the process whereby such things can happen

Prose Quotations from Socrates to Macaulay Samuel Austin Allibone,2024-06-13 Reprint of the original first published in 1876 Enmity and Feuding in Classical Athens Andrew Alwine,2015-11-01 Much has been written about the world s first democracy but no book so far has been dedicated solely to the study of enmity in ancient Athens Enmity and Feuding in Classical Athens is a long overdue analysis of the competitive power dynamics of Athenian honor and the potential problems these feuds created for democracies The citizens of Athens believed that harming one s enemy was an acceptable practice and even the duty of every honorable citizen They sought public wins over their rivals making enmity a critical element in struggles for honor and standing while simultaneously recognizing the threat that personal enmity posed to the community Andrew Alwine works to understand how Athenians addressed this threat by looking at the extant work of Attic orators Their speeches served as the intersection between private vengeance and public sanction of illegal behavior allowing citizens to engage in feuds within established parameters This mediation helped support Athenian democracy and provided the social underpinning to allow it to function in conjunction with Greek notions of personal honor Alwine provides a framework for understanding key issues in the history of democracy such as the relationship between private and public realms the development of equality and the rule of law and the establishment of individual political rights Serving also as a nuanced introduction to the works of the Attic orators Enmity and Feuding in Classical Athens is an indispensable addition to scholarship on Athens
