When an occasion demands words as they do it s all too easy to blabber on and never actually say what we mean to say Words then become hidden like a raindrop from a cloudburst disappears into a puddle emotions diluted by a tumultuous outburst Being a bit of a blabbermouth myself I decided to apply a little restraint and employ the economy of word when writing this collection Saying all you need and making the point with four short lines has been the order of the day well for this day at least Bulletin of Friends' Historical Society of Philadelphia ,1922 A Prose English Translation of the Mahabharata Manmatha Nath Dutt,1905 The American Friend ,1926 Along the Trenches Navid Kermani,2019-11-11 Between Germany and Russia is a region strewn with monuments to the horrors of war genocide and disaster the bloodlands where the murderous regimes of Hitler and Stalin unleashed the violence that scarred the twentieth century and shaped so much of the world we know today In September 2016 the German Iranian writer Navid Kermani set out to discover this land and to travel along the trenches that are now re emerging in Europe from his home in Cologne through eastern Germany to the Baltics and from there south to the Caucasus and to Isfahan in Iran the home of his parents This beautifully written travel diary enlivened by conversations with the people Kermani meets along the way brings to life the tragic history of these troubled lands and shows how this history leaves its traces in the present It will be of great interest to anyone concerned with current affairs and with the events that have shaped and continue to shape the world in which we live today Friend's in Fur and Feathers Gwynfryn,1875
