Fringe Dwellers:

The Fringe Dwellers Nene Gare,1986 Fringe Dwellers ,1962 The Secrets of Life Stuart Wilde,2006-11-01

The thoughts and ideas in this book form the basis of Stuart Wilde s philosophy on how to develop a more liberated mind set and thus a more carefree and delightful life The thoughts and essays are from his best selling books as well as his unpublished writings You can just open the book anywhere and start reading Usually you ll find that the first few pages you read will feature some helpful hints that are very relevant to some aspect of your current life somehow synchronicity will always lead you to exactly what you need to know So if you want your spiritual concepts short and sweet then this book will suit you perfectly As Stuart says Any philosophy that you can t haul down to the bank or up to the airport ain t worth having Newly revised and updated The Circle & the Spiral Eva Rask Knudsen,2021-11-01 In Aboriginal and M ori literature the circle and the spiral are the symbolic metaphors for a never ending journey of discovery and rediscovery The journey itself with its indigenous perspectives and sense of orientation is the most significant act of cultural recuperation The present study outlines the fields of indigenous writing in Australia and New Zealand in the crucial period between the mid 1980s and the early 1990s particularly eventful years in which postcolonial theory attempted to centre the margins and indigenous writers were keen to escape the particular centering offered in search of other positions more in tune with their creative sensibilities Indigenous writing relinquished its narrative preference for social realism in favour of traversing old territory in new spiritual ways roots converted into routes Standard postcolonial readings of indigenous texts often overwrite the difference they seek to locate because critical orthodoxy predetermines what difference can be Critical evaluations still tend to eclipse the ontological grounds of Aboriginal and M ori traditions and specific ways of moving through and behaving in cultural landscapes and social contexts Hence the corrective applied in Circles and Spirals to look for locally and culturally specific tracks and traces that lead in other directions than those catalogued by postcolonial convention This agenda is pursued by means of searching enquiries into the historical anthropological political and cultural determinants of the present state of Aboriginal and M ori writing principally fiction Independent yet interrelated exemplary analyses of works by Keri Hulme and Patricia Grace and Mudrooroo and Sam Watson Australia provided the thick description that illuminates the author s central theses with comparative side glances at Witi Ihimaera Heretaunga Pat Baker and Alan Duff New Zealand and Archie Weller and Sally Morgan Australia Artificial Horizon Thomas, Martin,2014-05-20 Martin Thomas takes the reader on a journey through a compelling study of culture landscape and mythology For both Aboriginal people and their colonisers the rugged landscape of the Blue Mountains has stood as an intriguing riddle and a stimulus to the imagination The author evokes this dramatic and bewildering landscape and leads his readers through the cultural history of the locality in order to probe the dreamwork of imperialism Fringe Dwellers: Part 1 and ScreenSound Australia, Gunyah, Goondie + Wurley Paul Memmott,2007 When Europeans first reached Australian shores a long held and expedient perception developed that Australian Aboriginal people did not have houses or settlements that they occupied temporary camps sheltering in makeshift huts or lean tos of grass and bark This book redresses that notion exploring the range and complexity of Aboriginal designed structures spaces and territorial behaviour from minimalist shelters to permanent houses and villages Gunyah Goondie and Wurley encompasses Australian Aboriginal Architecture from the time of European contact to the work of the first Aboriginal graduates of university based courses in architecture bringing together in one place a wealth of images and research Publisher s website Indigenous Homelessness Evelyn Peters,Julia

Christensen,2016-10-28 Being homeless in one s homeland is a colonial legacy for many Indigenous people in settler societies The construction of Commonwealth nation states from colonial settler societies depended on the dispossession of Indigenous peoples from their lands The legacy of that dispossession and related attempts at assimilation that disrupted Indigenous practices languages and cultures including patterns of housing and land use can be seen today in the disproportionate number of Indigenous people affected by homelessness in both rural and urban settings Essays in this collection explore the meaning and scope of Indigenous homelessness in the Canada Australia and New Zealand They argue that effective policy and support programs aimed at relieving Indigenous homelessness must be rooted in Indigenous conceptions of home land and kinship and cannot ignore the context of systemic inequality institutionalization landlessness among other things that stem from a history of colonialism Indigenous Homelessness Perspectives from Canada New Zealand and Australia provides a comprehensive exploration of the Indigenous experience of homelessness It testifies to ongoing cultural resilience and lays the groundwork for practices and policies designed to better address the conditions that lead to homelessness among Indigenous peoples FRINGE DWELLERS NENE GARE,1961 Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2005 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature Whispering Winds of Change Stuart Wilde,1995-03-07 Stuart Wilde one of the most profound and original thinkers of our time brings us Whispering Winds of Change Whispering Winds of Change will appeal to lovers of alternative ideas and philosophies Stuart Wilde challenges us to stand outside the usual paradigms of consciousness as fringe dwellers He asks us to observe the dying throes of what he calls the world ego the embodiment of the manipulative and dominating force of the status quo With his characteristic candor and wit he plots a fascinating comparison between the overall global destiny and an individual s personal sacred inner journey Wilde believes through quieting the ego and creating a rotation out of the three dimensional world of external reality to the fourth dimension of the inner being we can each offer serenity and healing to ourselves and the rest of the world Like his other books this work is full of compelling ideas unusual perceptions and esoteric concepts for individuals who want to progress inwardly while making a success of their lives in the external world Obligated to be Difficult Tim

Rowse,2000-04-03 Since the 1967 constitutional referendum Australian governments have moved towards policies of indigenous self determination Obligated to be Difficult first published in 2000 presents the central issue of self determination as seen by Dr H C Coombs the most important policy maker since the referendum through what political mechanisms will indigenous Australians find their own voice Coombs was singularly influential within government in the years 1967 to 1976 and he remained a tireless critic and policy advocate from 1977 to 1996 Rowse s narrative of his work drawing on many unpublished sources illuminates the interplay of government policy with indigenous practice This book is both an account of government policies and a biographical slice of an outstanding Australian In attempting a critical celebration of Coombs vision and methods it invites informed reflection on the issues of land rights sovereignty and reconciliation in these conservative and highly anxious times

The Art of Redemption Stuart Wilde,2010 For decades modern seekers have experimented and studied with many diverse teachers and religions but Stuart Wilde says in that toward the end of a long spiritual journey we all seek the same thing redemption None of us is perfect and yet through embracing that imperfection and reconciling it we become a complete being encompassing both the light and the dark As Stuart says Many mystics holy people and even the Hopi Indians have predicted a new age of enlightenment and they are not wrong in my view It has arrived and with it has come a whole host of fascinating phenomena never seen before We are stepping into a magical new era the age of forgiveness It is when the ivory tower of the ego s ideas falls that we can then embrace a new humility allowing us to become ever more genuine compassionate and real In this fascinating book Stuart makes the point that the process of redemption and forgiveness comes from incorporating the Three Graces in one s heart tenderness generosity and respect

Uncanny Australia Ken Gelder,Jane Margaret Jacobs,1998 Aboriginal claims for sacredness in modern Australia may seem like minor events but they have radically disturbed the nation s image of itself Minorities appear to have too much influence majorities suddenly feel embattled What once seemed familiar can now seem disconcertingly unfamiliar a condition Ken Gelder and Jane M Jacobs diagnose as uncanny In Uncanny Australia Gelder and Jacobs show how Aboriginal claims for sacredness radiate out to affect the fortunes and misfortunes of the modern nation They look at Coronation Hill Hindmarsh Island Uluru and the repatriation of sacred objects they examine secret business in public places promiscuous sacred sites ghosts and bunyips cartographic nostalgia reconciliation and democracy postcolonial racism and New Age enchantments Uncanny Australia is a challenging and thought provoking work that offers a new way of understanding how the Aboriginal sacred inhabits the modern nation

REMNANT Lesley Barklay,2009-12-04 When the old world is overcome by nuclear holocaust Talina is drawn into a land of wizards kings and intrigue Uncertain of her past plagued by memories of times long gone and bound to her future Talina is left to decide whether to follow her heart or the destiny of magic that is the legacy of a forgotten race And it shall come to pass that the Old World will be tested and found wanting it will pass through the fires of destruction One must journey to the wronged land and pay the price the blood of the Saviour must be spilled to renew the land Kicking Down the Doors Briann Kearney, Brian Syron, 2016-11-20 A history of Indigenous filmmakers from 1968 1993 including non Indigenous films for and about Indigenous people Annotation pending Law, Women Judges and the Gender Order Kasey McLoughlin, 2021-11-18 This book seeks to understand how women judges are situated as legal knowers on the High Court of Australia by asking whether a near equal gender balance on the High Court has disrupted the Court's historically masculinist gender regime This book examines how the High Court's gender regime operates once there is more than one woman on the bench It explores the following questions How have the Court's gender relations accommodated the presence women on the bench How have the women themselves accommodated those pre-existing gender relations How might legal judgments and reasoning change as a result of changing gender dynamics on the bench To develop answers to these and other questions the book pursues a methodology that conceptualises the High Court as an institution with a particular gender regime shaped historically by the dominant gender order of the wider society The intersection between the gendered individuals and the gendered institution in which they operate produces and reproduces that institution's gender regime Hence the enquiry is not so much asking have women judges made a difference but rather is asking how should we understand women judges relationship with the law a relationship that is shaped as much by the individual judge as by the institutional context in which they operate Scholars legal practitioners and researchers interested in judicial reasoning gender diversity and the legal profession gender and politics will be interested in this book because it breaks new ground as a case study of a Court's gender regime at a particular time Sovereign Bodies, Sovereign Spaces Maria John, 2025-03-18 Statistics indicate that Indigenous people worldwide suffer disproportionately poor health outcomes Since the mid twentieth century health activism has become increasingly central to expressions of Indigenous sovereignty and survivance In this innovative comparative study Maria John assesses the histories of urban Indigenous health activism in the United States and Australia and how it has sought to counter the medical mistreatment and neglect that Indigenous people have historically faced in these nations From the crisis of health care access in the 1970s to the strength of Indigenous community responses to COVID 19 John shows how the creation of Indigenous community controlled health clinics has been a vital response to settler colonial structures of neglect in medical care John illustrates that these clinics have also created a new kind of political space where Indigenous people from different tribal nations and geographies can develop and practice new ideas of nonterritorial sovereignty and pan Indigenous solidarities across regions and nations John's arguments expand our understanding of the ways urban places and spaces foster possibilities for Indigenous communities and her focus on health reveals how Indigenous people strategize struggle and work against systems they were never meant to survive Burnt Sienna Sky Jackie Smith, 2022-08-01 Burnt Sienna Sky explores the passage of time and how it shapes one's existence It's about acceptance and being comfortable in your own skin But most of all Burnt Sienna Sky is about finding the courage of resilience and speaking up when you think something needs to change even if you think no one will listen Film Criticism as Cultural Fantasy Andrew McGregor, 2010 This book presents an unprecedented analysis of the dynamics of cultural representation and interpretation in film criticism It examines how French critical reception of Australian cinema since the revival period of the 1970s has evolved as a narrative of perpetual discovery and how a clear parallel can be drawn between French critics reading of Australian film and their interpretation of an exotic Australian national identity In French critical writing on Australian cinema Australian identity is frequently defined in terms of extremes of cultural specificity and cultural anonymity On the one hand French critics construct a Euro centric orientalist fantasy of Australia as not only a European Antipodes but the antithesis of Europe At the same time French critics have tended to subordinate Australian cultural identity within the framework of a resented Anglo American filmic and cultural hegemony The book further explores this marginalisation by examining the influence of the French auteur paradigm particularly in reference to the work of Jane Campion as well as by discussing the increasingly problematic notion of national identity and indeed national cinemas within the universal framework of international film culture
