More Than an Ally Michael L. Boucher, 2020-09-15 The Caring Solidarity framework is both descriptive and aspirational It is an attempt to empower White teachers to do the work of interrogating their racial privilege and join in Caring Solidarity with their African American students The framework can be used to describe teachers who are working in Caring Solidarity with their students and to develop teachers with intention toward Caring Solidarity We are in a unique historical moment that demands White teachers become more effective in their schools classrooms and communities and for researchers to find ways to describe those teachers who build relationships of solidarity with students Considering today's tenor of the conversation around race picking up this book and considering its contents is an act of defiance of the current climate and or one of devotion to the art and craft of teaching children Caring Solidarity is not a replacement for current frameworks such as Culturally Sustaining Pedagogy or Abolitionist Pedagogy but is a map for White teachers to journey toward those pedagogies Everyone starts from somewhere The path is winding and long but the goal to create an equitable and humane classroom is worth the trip The purpose of this theory is to point the way Refusing Racism

Cynthia Stokes Brown, 2002-04-12 Why and how have whites joined people of colour to fight against white supremacy in the United States What have they risked and what have they gained For anyone who has wondered about the character motivations and contributions of white civil rights activists Refusing Racism offers rich portraits of four contemporary white American activists who have dedicated their lives to the struggle for civil rights Drawing heavily on interviews and memoirs this volume offers honest accounts of their thoughts and experiences and shows how their commitments are central to our ongoing history Meet the White Allies Virginia Foster Durr J Waties Waring Anne McCarty Braden and Herbert R Kohl
