In Love and War Melody M. Miyamoto Walters, 2015-09-09 The events of December 7 1941 rocked the lives of people around the world The bombing of Pearl Harbor had intimate repercussions too especially in the territory of Hawaii In Love and War recounts the wartime experiences of author Melody M Miyamoto Walters's grandparents two second generation Japanese Americans or Nisei living in Hawaii Their love story narrated in letters they wrote each other from July 1941 to June 1943 offers a unique view of Hawaiian Nisei and the social and cultural history of territorial Hawaii during World War II Drawing on her grandparents' letters Miyamoto Walters fleshes out what it meant to live and work on the islands of Kauai Oahu and Hawaii during the war years Although to outsiders twenty somethings Yoshiharu Ogata and Naoko Tsukiyama were both Japs the couple came from different socioeconomic classes and cultures Naoko the author's grandmother hailed from a prosperous Honolulu merchant family whereas Yoshiharu grew up poor part of the laboring class on a sugar plantation on Kauai Their courtship was riddled with challenges He stayed on Oahu then moved to Kauai she moved to the Big Island Yoshiharu faced the possibility of being drafted into the military After the bombing of Pearl Harbor they both lived under martial law Some Americans operating under nativist and xenophobic beliefs questioned Japanese Americans' loyalty to the United States But as the letters collected here show the Nisei were patriots Naoko and Yoshiharu spoke English participated in the YMCA and the USO and taught in public schools They embraced American popular culture quoting lines of pop songs in their correspondence and celebrated both Japanese and American traditions Through their experiences Miyamoto Walters shows how Japanese Americans' negotiation of race ethnicity and cultural space in wartime indelibly shaped Hawaii's postwar economic political and social landscape

The Regime of the Brother Juliet Flower MacCannell, 2002-01-22 The Regime of the Brother is one of the first attempts to challenge modernity on its own terms Using the work of Lacan Kristeva and Freud Juliet MacCannell confronts the failure of modernity to bring about the social equality promised by the Enlightenment On the verge of its destruction the Patriarchy has reshaped itself into a new and often more oppressive regime that of the Brother Examining a range of literary and social texts from Rousseau's Confessions to Richardson's Clarissa and from Stendhal's De L'Amour to James's What Maisie Knew and Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea MacCannell illustrates a history of the suppression of women revealing the potential for a specifically feminine alternative

Hewitson,2020-11-25 This book looks at the representations of modern war by analysing texts and examining the ways in which authors relate to the atrocious horrors of war Rejecting the assumption that violence is simply a denial of reason or at best a pathological form of collective sadism this book considers it a cultural act that needs to be understood as underpinned by a series of shared and accepted norms and values stemming from a society at a given moment of its history and shaped by its language Traditional vocabulary and language seem inadequate to describe soldiers experience of modern warfare The problem for writers is to depict and render intelligible a dramatically unprecedented reality through recourse to something familiar For some historians and literary critics the absurdity of the First World War has shaped our ironic and disenchanted reading of the entire twentieth century Yet these ways of coping with the urge to communicate inexpressible feelings and emotions in most cases are not sufficient to overcome the incoherence of the sentiments felt and the events witnessed The contributors attempt to address the questions and issues that are posed by the highly ambiguous views texts and representations examined in this volume This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal European Review of History Revue Européenne d'Histoire Love Thyself Masaru Emoto,2011-01-23 The common language that the people of the world have been seeking is found in water crystals Water speaks for what is in our mind Water awakens the subconscious memory in each person I now know why water is indispensable to the phenomenon of life and why alternative therapies exist and why they re effective Water helped me understand religion and prayer and gave me a clue to understanding the nature of energy It helped me understand the relationship between humanity and the cosmos It gave me a clue to help me understand what dimensionality is I could come one step closer to understanding the eternal theme of humanity that asks where we come from why we are here and what happens when we die Thus for the release of this the third volume in my series of The Message from Water I decided to choose what the world most urgently needs at present as a theme That is of course the need to eliminate war and terrorism throughout the world The theme I have chosen is prayer When I thought about it more deeply I realized that prayer is most effectively sent when each person in the world raises their energy of love by imagining a scene where the peoples of the world are living in peace I ve been taught this through the process of asking water many questions For this reason the title of this book is Love Thyself First you must shine with positive high spirited vibrations and be full of love In order to do that I think it s important to love thank and respect yourself If that s the case then each of those vibrations will be sent out into the world and the cosmos and the great symphony of that harmonic vibration will wrap our planet in waves of love that serve to cherish our Heaven granted lives This is the message from water The Hidden Ground of Love Thomas Merton,2011-04-01 Thomas Merton 1915 1968 is the most admired of all American Catholic writers His journals have recently been published to wide acclaim The collection of Merton s letters in The Hidden Ground of Love were selected and edited by William H Shannon Literature and Spirituality David Bevan,2023-12-18
