Jankowitz, 2018-10-03 This book explores how the construction and contestation of victims in societies emerging from conflict impact processes of peacebuilding It locates its inquiry in Northern Ireland where highly politicized unresolved narratives of violence and a so called hierarchy of victims illuminate inherent paradoxes of victimhood in intergroup conflict The author critiques how mechanisms designed to address the legacy of conflict often reify exclusive victim and perpetrator identities and obscure complex harm Adopting an interdisciplinary lens the book examines how the image of the ideal victim interacts with intergroup processes in a polarizing and intractable victim perpetrator paradigm The analysis of these issues in Northern Ireland suggests that exclusive policies and mechanisms reinforce rather than repair societal divisions and that inclusive complex approaches to victimhood are necessary to build sustainable peace This book will be of particular interest to scholars of peace studies transitional justice and criminology Multi-Level Reconciliation and Peacebuilding Kevin P.

cons of state level reconciliation and their outcomes while presenting theoretical insights into dialogical processes upon which reconciliation studies can develop further The second part presents a series of empirical case studies from around the world which examine the process of social reconciliation at community levels through the lens of social psychology and discourse analysis This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution social psychology discourse analysis and international relations in general     Reconciling Enemy States in Europe and Asia Seunghoon Emilia Heo,2012-04-24 Heo conceptualizes reconciliation in International Relations theory and fills a gap by building a theoretical framework for interstate reconciliation Combining historical and political scientific approaches she analyses case studies from Europe the Middle East and Northeast Asia     War and Reconciliation William J. Transitional Justice in Troubled Societies Aleksandar Fatic,Klaus Bachmann,Igor Lyubashenko,2018-11-26 This book discusses the crucial strategic topic for the practical implementation of transitional justice in post conflict societies by arguing that the dilemma is defined by the extent to which the actual achievement of the political goals of transition is a necessary condition for the long term observance and implementation of justice While in many cases the blind criminal justice does not enhance and even militates against the achievement of political transitions an understanding of transitional justice as a fundamentally political process is novel controversial and a concept which may shape the future of transitional justice This collection contributes to developing this concept both theoretically and through concrete and current case studies from the worlds most pronounced crisis spots for transitional justice     The Impact of Protracted Peace Processes on Identities in Conflict Joana Ricarte,2022-11-29 This open access book discusses the impact of protracted peace processes on identities in conflict It is concerned with how lingering peace processes affect in the long term patterns of othering in protracted conflicts and how this relates with enduring violence Taking Israel and Palestine as a case study the book traces different representations of success and failure of the protracted peace process as well as its associated policies narratives norms and practices to analyze its impact on identity and its contribution to the maintenance and or transformation of the cultural component of violence On the one hand drawing from an interdisciplinary approach comprising International Relations IR History and Social Psychology this book proposes an analytical framework for assessing the specificities of the construction of identities in protracted conflicts It identifies dehumanization and practices of reconciliation in ongoing conflicts what is called peace less reconciliation as the main elements influencing processes of othering and violence in this kind of conflicts On the other hand the book offers an empirical historical analysis on how the protracted peace process has impacted identity building and representations made of the other in the case of the Israeli Palestinian conflict since the end of the 19th century to the present day Conflict Resolution and Global Justice Nikola Tomić, Ben Tonra, 2021-07-09 This book examines how the different normative foundations of conflict resolution held by various global actors their understandings of justice and the differences between types of conflict influence the varying means by which conflicts can be prevented managed and ultimately resolved By combining insights from political theory conflict studies and European Union EU foreign policy studies the book identifies the EU as the key case of a conflict manager that is both a product and a defender of a global liberal order It focuses on three aspects of conflict resolution that pose their own sets of both normative and empirical dilemmas resolving border disputes strengthening the resilience of weak or divided states and societies after regime change and intervention in humanitarian crises Furthermore it offers a comparative analysis between a potentially distinctive European approach and that of other global actors and reflects critically on situations where policy practice may not always reflect a concern for justice asking what countervailing forces prevail and why This book will be of key interest to scholars and students in European and EU Studies Area studies Conflict Resolution War Studies EU Foreign Policy Political Theory International relations as well as policymakers
