Frog and Dog Go to the Moon John Astrop,1986      Frog and Dog Go to the Moon John Astrop,1986-06-30      The Whole Story John E. Simkin,1996 This work is the only comprehensive guide to sequels in English with over 84 000 works by 12 500 authors in 17 000 sequences      Ostyak Texts in the Obdorsk Dialect Irina Alekseevna Nikolaeva,1999      The Final Four of Everything Mark Reiter,Richard Sandomir,2009-12-15 Edited by Mark Reiter and Richard Sandomir and featuring contributions from experts on everything from breakfast cereal and movie gunfights to First Ladies and bald guys The Final Four of Everything celebrates everything that s great surprising or silly in America using the foolproof method of bracketology to determine what we love or hate and why As certain to make you laugh as it will start friendly arguments The Final Four of Everything is the perfect book for know it alls know a little and anyone with an opinion on celebrity mugshots literary heroes sports nicknames or bacon Bracketology is a unique way of organizing information that dates back to the rise of the knockout or single elimination tournament perhaps in medieval times Its origins are not precisely known but there was genius in the first bracket design that hasn t changed much over the years You of course may be familiar with the bracket format via the NCAA basketball tournament pairings each March If you ve ever watched ESPN or participated in a March Madness office pool you know what a bracket looks like The Final Four of Everything takes the idea one step further and applies the knockout format to every category BUT basketball In areas where taste judgment and hard earned wisdom really matter we ve set out to determine truly the Final Four of Everything      Book Smart Anne E. Cunningham PhD,Jamie Zibulsky PhD,2013-12-30 Authored by two passionate psychologists and educators Book Smart How to Develop and Support Successful Motivated Readers is a how to guide rich with stories lessons activities and ideas aimed at supporting reading development and addressing the broad range of interpersonal social emotional and motivational skills that can be fostered by reading with young children The early chapters in this book will help you get your child ready for school and ready to read and the later chapters will help you foster your child s lifelong love of reading Throughout the book the authors also provide tips for building a special bond with your child through reading together from giving appropriate praise to modeling persistence Perhaps most importantly this book serves as a guide along the path to raising an independent reader This journey begins with a discussion of oral language and early reading skills and then moves into early writing attempts story comprehension general knowledge development and social emotional growth This book will help parents bring the joy of reading into the home      Patricia Ann Lynch,2004-01-01 Designed specifically for young readers the Mythology A to Z series explores the world s most important myths and legends in an accessible and entertaining manner Each volume includes vividly written entries on the major figures places stories objects and themes of a given mythology A vast continent Africa is the home of the first humans and the birthplace of many cultures ranging from nomadic bands to farmers to sophisticated civilizations With four major language families and myriad peoples Africa is also the source of a diverse and engaging body of myth African Mythology A to Z is a clearly written reference guide to this lore Containing 42 illustrations two maps a time line a bibliography an index and extensive cross references African Mythology A to Z is a comprehensive and accessible reference guide for anyone interested in learning more about various African myths traditions and beliefs The Origin of Death Hans Abrahamsson,1977 Developmental Spans in Event Comprehension and Representation Paul van den Broek,Patricia J. Bauer,Tammy Bourg,2013-12-16 This book is about building metaphorical bridges all sorts of bridges At the most basic level it concerns the bridges that individuals build to understand the events that they experience the bridges that connect the events in the mind s eye At another level it is about bridges that interconnect findings and theoretical frameworks concerning event comprehension and representation in different age groups ranging from infancy to adulthood Finally it is about building bridges between researchers who share interests yet may not ordinarily even be aware of each other s work The success of the book will be measured in terms of the extent to which the contributors have been able to create a picture of the course of development across a wide span in chronological age and across different types of events from the fictional to the actual The individuals whose work is represented in this book conduct their work in a shared environment they all have an intellectual and scholarly interest in event comprehension and representation These interests are manifest in the overlapping themes of their work These include a focus on how people come to temporally integrate individual snapshots to form a coherent event that unfolds over time to understand cause and effect and to appreciate the role of the goal of events Another overlapping theme involves the possibility of individual differences These themes are apparent in work on the early development of representations of specific episodes and autobiographical memories and comprehension of complex events such as stories involving multiple characters and emotions The editors of this volume had two missions to create a development span by bringing together researchers working from infancy to adulthood and to create a bridge between individuals working from within the text comprehension perspective within the naturalistic perspective and with laboratory analogues to the naturalistic perspective Their measure of success will be the extent to which they have been able to create a picture of the course of development across a wide span in chronological age and across different types of events from fictional to actual Reproducible Little Books for Sight Words, Grades K-2 Patricia Tilton,2004-08-24 Help students develop word recognition skills and fluency through the use of high frequency words Students who automatically recognize sight words can devote more attention to comprehension Journal of American Folklore ,1922 Rascal Ken Wells,2011 No Marketing Blurb The Storyteller Brandon Hobson,2023-05-02 From National Book Award finalist Brandon Hobson a kaleidoscopic middle grade adventure that mixes the anxieties friendships and wonders of a Cherokee boy s life with Cherokee history and lore Ziggy has ANXIETY Partly this is because of the way his mind works and how overwhelmed he can get when other people especially his classmate Alice are in the room And partly it s because his mother disappeared when he was very young making her one of many Native women who ve gone mysteriously missing

Ziggy and his sister Moon want answers but nobody around can give them Once Ziggy gets it in his head that clues to his mother's disappearance may be found in a nearby cave there's no stopping him from going there Along with Moon Alice and his best friend Corso he sets out on a mind bending adventure where he'll discover his story is tied to all the stories of the Cherokees that have come before him Ziggy might not have any control over the past but if he learns the lessons of the storytellers he might be able to better shape his future and find the friends he needs

Wishbone Laura C. Jarmon, 2003 Jarmon English U of Tennessee Martin studies the history and attempts to trace the origins of several prevalent themes in

African American folklore using folk tale collections from the US and Africa The themes link subjects with symbolic content such as tar baby with binding and transcription and the skull with presence and propriety An introduction presents Jarmon's methodology her thesis is that these narratives are a type of modal discourse that is symbolized by the motifs of the wishbone and crossroads which she sees as emblematic of the concept of margins and reflective of a mood of indeterminacy Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com
