Potlatch at Gitsegukla Marjorie M. Halpin, Margaret Seguin Anderson, 2011-11-01 William Beynon was born in 1888 in Victoria to a Welsh father and a Tsimshian mother He was an accomplished ethnographer and had a long career documenting the traditions of the Tsimshian Nisga'a and Gitksan In 1945 he attended and actively participated in five days of potlatches and totem pole raisings at Gitksan village of Gitsegukla There he compiled four notebooks containing detailed and often verbatim information about the events he witnessed For over 50 years these notebooks have seen limited circulation among specialists who have long recognized them as the most perceptive and complete account of potlatching ever recorded In Potlatch at Gitsegukla the almost 200 pages of the notebooks are published for the first time Sketches and a selection of photographs taken by Beynon are also included augmented by photographs taken by Wilson Duff in 1952 In addition to meticulously transcribing and annotating the text of the notebooks Margaret Anderson and Marjorie Halpin provide a comprehensive introduction that puts Beynon s account into a Gitskan cultural perspective as well as extensive appendices listing names places and Gitskan terms in the notebooks There is also an excellent timeline of key events in Gitskan history by James McDonald and Jennifer Joseph William Beynon s notebooks are among the most significant written records of Northwest coast potlatching and are an unsurpassed resource documenting these activities among the Gitskan This rare first hand ethnographic account of a potlatch reveals the wonderful complexities of the events that took place in Gitsegukla in 1945

Our Box Was Full Richard Daly,2007-10-01 For the Gitksan and Witsuwit en peoples of northwest British Columbia the land is invested with meaning that goes beyond simple notions of property or sustenance Considered both a food box and a storage box of history and wealth the land plays a central role in their culture survival history and identity In Our Box Was Full Richard Daly explores the centrality of this notion in the determination of Aboriginal rights with particular reference to the landmark Delgamuukw case that occupied the British Columbia courts from 1987 to 1997 Called as an expert witness for the Aboriginal plaintiffs Daly an anthropologist was charged with helping the Gitksan and Witsutwit en to prove they existed and to make the case for Aboriginal self governance In order to do this Daly spent several years documenting their institutions system of production and exchange dispute settlement and proprietorship before Pax Britannica and colonization His conclusions which were originally rejected by Justice MacEachern were that the plaintiffs continue to live out their rich and complex heritage today albeit under very different conditions from those of either the pre contact or fur trade eras Our Box Was Full provides fascinating insight into the Delgamuukw case and sheds much needed light on the role of anthropology in Aboriginal rights litigation A rich compassionate and original ethnographic study the book situates the plaintiff peoples within the field of forager studies and emphasizes the kinship and gift exchange features that pervade these societies even today It will find an
