From A Ruined Garden:

From a Ruined Garden, Second Expanded Edition Zachary M. Baker, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, 1998-07-22 An indispensable sourcebook Emphasis falls on the variegated often joyful culture of the Polish Jews on what existed before the garden was ruined Geoffrey Hartmann The New Republic From these marvelous selections one can see an entire culture unfolding Curt Leviant New York Times Book Review This newly revised version of the classic study is a pleasure for the eye and the soul One of the seminal studies of the impact of the Shoah on European Jewry it is even more moving in its new incarnation than in its original version More than a collection of studies of books of remembrance and mourning this volume asks how one can mourn for a world lost and still live in the present and the future Sander L Gilman Kugelmass and Boyarin have done a splendid job of combing the vast memorial book literature to select the most revealing accounts of Jewish life in interbellum Poland Ordinary people speak in this volume with an immediacy and poignancy that cannot help but touch the reader In the time since it first appeared From a Ruined Garden has become a classic Its reappearance in an updated and expanded form is most welcome Barbara Kirshenblatt Gimblett In this magnificent collection the editors combine a profound feel for the vanished world of Polish Jewry the anthologist's skill at selecting the telling example and the anthropologist's sophisticated understanding of how these testimonies should be read A marvelous introduction to this rich literature Peter Novick Polish Jewish survivors of the Holocaust compiled memorial books to preserve the memory of their destroyed communities They describe daily life in the shtetl as well as everyday life during the Holocaust and the experiences of returning survivors These memories paint a haunting picture of a way of life lost forever

during the first half of the twentieth century During the Holocaust especially entire communities were wiped out In response survivors sometimes compiled memorial books or Yizker books in an attempt to preserve historical biographical and cultural information about their shtetls This multipart collection provides a concise history of the memorial books and their cultural contexts eight analytical essays on or using Yizker books key reviews in some cases translated from the Yiddish from the 1950s and later and a bibliographic overview of secondary sources and collections

Place and Memory in the Singing Crane Garden Vera Schwarcz, 2014-11-05 The Singing Crane Garden in northwest Beijing has a history dense with classical artistic vision educational experimentation political struggle and tragic suffering Built by the Manchu prince Mianyu in the mid nineteenth century the garden was intended to serve as a refuge from the clutter of daily life near the Forbidden City In 1860 during the Anglo French war in China the garden was destroyed One hundred years later in the 1960s the garden served as the ox pens where dissident university professors were imprisoned during the Cultural Revolution Peaceful Western involvement began in 1986 when ground was broken for the Arthur Sackler Museum of Art and Archaeology Completed in 1993 the museum and the Jillian Sackler Sculpture Garden stand on the same grounds today In Place and Memory in the Singing Crane Garden Vera Schwarcz gives voice to this richly layered corner of China s cultural landscape Drawing upon a range of sources from poetry to painting Schwarcz retells the garden s complex history in her own poetic and personal voice In her exploration of cultural survival trauma memory and place she reveals how the garden becomes a vehicle for reflection about history and language Encyclopedic in conception and artistic in execution Place and Memory in the Singing Crane Garden is a powerful work that shows how memory and ruins can revive the spirit of individuals and cultures alike

Styles of Creation George Edgar Slusser, Eric S. Rabkin, 1992 The impetus behind this collection of original essays is the tension between the aesthetic emphasis on stylistics in science fiction and fantasy writing and the critical limitations imposed by prevailing literary theory From a variety of perspectives the contributors show how a new or expanded set of methods and models can enrich critical exchange within the genre and between it and other types of fiction The focus of the book is not entirely on critical restraints but also on the genre s robustly subversive creative drive its unwillingness or inability to pause for critical validation The essays examine the proliferation of stylistic acts and experiments in science fiction and fantasy writing as assess the genre s revolutionary qualities its reordering of narrative priorities inversion of consecrated categories and elevation of minor devices

The Object of Jewish Literature Barbara E. Mann, 2022-07-26 A history of modern Jewish literature that explores our enduring attachment to the book as an object With the rise of digital media the death of the book has been widely discussed But the physical object of the book persists Here through the lens of materiality and objects Barbara E Mann tells a history of modern Jewish literature from novels and poetry to graphic novels and artists books Bringing contemporary work on secularism and design in conversation with literary history she offers a new and distinctive frame for understanding how literary genres emerge The long twentieth century a period of tremendous physical upheaval and geographic movement witnessed the production of a multilingual canon of writing by Jewish authors Literature s objecthood is felt not only in the physical qualities of books bindings covers typography illustrations but also through the ways in which materiality itself became a practical foundation for literary expression Women and the Collaborative Art of Gardens Victoria E.

Pagán, Judith W. Page, 2023-11-30 Women and the Collaborative Art of Gardens explores the garden and its agency in the history of the built and natural environments as evidenced in landscape architecture literature art archaeology history photography and film Throughout the book each chapter centers the act of collaboration from garden clubs of the early twentieth century as powerful models of women s leadership to the more intimate partnerships between family members to the delicate relationship between artist and subject Women emerge in every chapter whether as gardeners designers owners writers illustrators photographers filmmakers or subjects but the contributors to this dynamic collection unseat common assumptions about the role of women in gardens to make manifest the significant ways in which women write themselves into the accounts of garden design practice and history The book reveals the power of gardens to shape human existence even as humans shape gardens and their representations in a variety of media including brilliantly illuminated manuscripts intricately carved architectural spaces wall paintings black and white photographs and wood cuts Ultimately the volume reveals that gardens are best apprehended when understood as products of collaboration The book will be of interest to scholars and students of gardens and culture ancient Rome art history British literature medieval France film studies women s studies photography African American Studies and landscape architecture From Home to Home to Home Gloria

Glantz, 2019-03-11 There was great joy in the Przepiorka home in Wegrow when Mendl and Esther welcomed their little princess Gitele born after two boy siblings already nine and twelve years old It was spring of 1939 but the bliss was short lived When Gitele was three months old Hitler s army marched into Poland and stole her happy childhood Yet there was a flicker of light in the darkness Over the years the light grew and blazed into bright sunshine Its source was the unlikely love and courage of a woman who dared defy her countrymen s hatred by loving and sheltering a Jewish child Thus this testimony of Gloria Glantz though it is a Holocaust memoir is truly about love and compassion She is here because people loved her even before they knew her Herein is a gripping tale of fear danger and loss and of going from home to home to home to eventual redemption and renewal It is a story all of us and future generations must know and remember Pigs That Ate the Garden Peter D. Dwyer, 2025-10-01 In The Pigs that Ate the Garden Peter D Dwyer examines the subsistence ecology of 109 Etolo people who live on the wet forested mountain slopes of Papua New Guinea Dwyer describes the community s method of deliberately placing pigs in gardens so that the pigs depredate the vegetation there He shows how this practice is actually the community's method of sending a message to itself that serves to resynchronize a switch from sweet potato gardening to sago starch processing. The interrelationships of the different food producing activities of the Etolo: gardening, hunting, tree crop cultivation etc. are shown to have seasonal rhythms and these rhythms maximize the Etolo's use of food resources at appropriate times and areas. Dwyer argues that the shape of Etolo ecology is ultimately driven by socio-cultural rather than environmental forces and is set within a theoretical frame concerning processes of communication and change in open systems.

China's Christian Colleges Daniel Bays, Ellen Widmer, 2009-02-27. A new generation of China scholars offers a fresh look at the unusual cross-cultural territory constituted by China's missionary established Christian colleges before 1950 in this fascinating work.
