From Creation To New Creation Old Testament Perspectives:

From Creation to New Creation Bernhard W. Anderson, 2005 Implied Law in the Abraham Narrative James K. Bruckner, 2002-01-01 A study of the significance of implied law in the Abraham narrative Bruckner examines legal and juridical terminology in the text with a close reading of legal referents in Genesis 18 16 20 18 He demonstrates that the literary and theological context of implied law in the narrative is creational since the implied cosmology is based in Creator created relationships and the narrative referents are prior to the Sinai covenant The narrative s canonical position is an ipso jure argument for the operation of law from the beginning of the ancestral community The study suggests trajectories for further research in reading law within narrative texts pentateuchal studies and Old Testament ethics Theological Themes of the Old Testament Marty E. Stevens, 2010-07-19 The Old Testament is an ancient collection of theological reflections on life with God that the church has claimed as authoritative Scripture Whereas most introductory books march from Genesis to Malachi this book engages four prominent themes across the breadth of the Old Testament canon creation covenant cultus and character By taking this approach Stevens articulates key issues that impact the reading of the entire Old Testament This engaging volume is intended for laypeople who want to know more about the Old Testament whether in personal study church groups college classrooms or seminary courses Theology of the Old Testament Walter Brueggemann, 2012-06-01 In this powerful book Walter Brueggemann moves the discussion of Old Testament theology beyond the dominant models of previous generations Brueggemann focuses on the metaphor and imagery of the courtroom trial in order to regard the theological substance of the Old Testament as a series of claims asserted for Yahweh the God of Israel This provides a context that attends to pluralism in every dimension of the interpretive process and suggests links to the plurality of voices of our time Essays in Faith and Learning Michael Bollenbaugh, Steven N. Goetz, 2015-12-07 This book represents the collected thinking of a few people who have had strong personal connections to Dr Song Nai Rhee Because the integration of faith and learning is a core value held by Dr Rhee the various authors have written essays on this topic in honor of his life and work Such a book is typically referred to as a Festschrift a celebratory writing given for a special person Dr Rhee s robust career at Northwest Christian College University is celebrated by the essays brought together in this book All the authors have known Dr Rhee as students or as academic colleagues or both What they write about ranges from topics found in biblical literature to expressly theological ideas to matters that are eminently practical Yet each essay is held in place by its relevancy to the ongoing conversations about how faith and learning are integrated in the context of the Christian liberal arts university More important each author has a deep and abiding respect for Dr Song Nai Rhee His teaching and mentoring at Northwest Christian College University have left an indelible mark on each of their lives Old Testament Theology Robin Routledge, 2020-05-21 Numerous useful books on Old Testament theology are now available However they often give too much information or too little Some can seem large and daunting to the ordinary student or pastor and because of their layout information may be hard to access Others take a more introductory approach and do not deal with many of the theological issues and questions that the Old Testament raises Robin Routledge s aim is to bridge this gap He provides a substantial overview of the central issues and themes in Old Testament theology in the main body of the text with more detailed discussion and references for further reading in the footnotes His purpose is to examine the theological significance of the various texts in their wider canonical context noting unity and coherence within the Old Testament and to some extent between the Old and New Testaments whilst also being aware of diversity A brief outline of the relationship between exegesis and biblical theology within the overall task of interpreting and applying biblical material is given in the first chapter His hope as a Christian minister is that while this volume has grown out of a teaching context and is intended for students it will also be of benefit to others who want to take the theological content of the Old Testament seriously and to apply its message to the life and ministry of the church today

In His Own Image and Likeness Randall

Garr,2003-06-01 This book is about nothing less than Genesis 1 or human creation Humanity the author convincingly argues is created within the Priestly tradition as a replacement of God s divine community human creation marks the decisive moment that P s God separates himself from other gods and institutes monotheism After discussing the references of God s self inclusive yet plural first person speech and examining the ramifications of this speech pattern in other biblical texts Randall Garr discusses the divine human relationship as it is represented by carefully analysing the prepositions and nouns that characterize it After highlighting some themes and theological concepts elaborated in Gen 1 it clearly situates the creation of humanity within the programmatic agenda of the Priestly tradition

Explorations in Interdisciplinary Reading

Robbie F. Castleman,Darian R. Lockett,Stephen O. Presley,2017-05-31 The tension between reading Scripture as primarily a historically situated text on one hand and binding canon addressed to a community of faith on the other constitutes a crucial issue for biblical interpretation Considering the ways the disciplines of Biblical Studies Biblical Theology Patristics and Systematic Theology approach Scripture and biblical interpretation the Biblical Theology Hermeneutics and Theological Disciplines study group within the Institute of Biblical Research established a four year project aimed at clarifying the relationships between these diverse lines of inquiry into scriptural interpretation found in each of these disciplines The goal of this project was to foster a sustained discussion where exploratory papers might be proposed composed and rewritten for final form using a collaborative process This research project and the present volume resulting from it offers valuable insights into the integration of Biblical Studies and Theology as subdisciplines within the academy The essays collected here fall naturally into the following sections Exegetical Explorations Reception Historical Explorations and finally Theological Practical Explorations

Jeremiah s Little Book of Consolation is an intriguing text that provokes a series of interpretative difficulties Is the text originally from Jeremiah Can it be construed as a literary coherence or is a complex literary process of emergence to be accepted What is meant by the New

Covenant In this monograph Jer 30 31 is read applying a variety of methods The text critical chapter argues for the reinforcement of the editorial theory according to which MT and LXXJer are to be construed as two different versions Much attention is paid to the delimitation criticism of these two chapters leading to the assumption that they are composed of ten Sub Cantos Five of these Sub Cantos are interpreted taking into account Ancient Near Eastern textual material in order to understand the mental framework of the ancient reader The final chapter pleads for the conceptual coherence of Jer 30 31 which is seen as based on the idea of divine changeability Genesis James McKeown,2008-03-03 Bridging the gap between biblical studies and systematic theology this book includes an exegetical commentary based on the Hebrew text and reflections on the theology of Genesis and its contribution to theology today Christianity and Earthkeeping Ernst Marais Conradie,2011-04-01 Why should Christians engage in earthkeeping as Christians and from within Christian communities What is the underlying theological rationale for that In this book some 19 reasons why Christians may be encouraged to engage in earthkeeping are identified juxtaposed and assessed in order to call for clarity to invite discussion and to elicit creative tensions No single position is advocated it would be helpful if Christians could engage in earthkeeping on the basis of any of these motivations Mark's Gospel C. Genesis 1-11 Thomas A. Keiser, 2013-08-21 Although the object of centuries of study only relatively recently has Genesis 1-11 been analyzed with attention to its literary unity and theological purpose With the latter twentieth century's increased attention to synchronic approaches many scholars began to consider Genesis 1-11 from the perspective of a literary unity in its final form and therefore to consider matters of intent and theological content Yet in spite of these treatments there have been virtually no attempts to view the entire section of Genesis 1-11 as a literary and theological unity presenting a coherent message This book begins to fill this void by seeking to identify the message of these chapters through utilization of a literary theological approach The study focuses on literary features including the broader issues of surface and deep structure while other topics of special concern include rhetoric as the art of composition for the purpose of communication and persuasion and the use of speech as an important indicator of key issues in Hebrew narrative
