From Here To District Six:

Language in Cape Town's District Six Kay McCormick, 2002 The book is a sociolinguistic case study of District Six an inner city neighbourhood in Cape Town characterized by language mixing and switching of English and Afrikaans Its early inhabitants included indigenous people freed slaves of African and Asian origin and immigrants from Europe and elsewhere The ravages of apartheid affected the residents attitudes towards their languages in various ways which are described The book examines the norms and practices regarding language choice for various functions and domains in the only surviving sector of District Six It also contains detailed analyses of extended bilingual conversations showing a range of social linguistic and discourse features Of particular interest is the paradoxical polarization and blending of the two languages They are strongly polarized symbolically and functionally yet they are also habitually blended in vernacular speech through lexical borrowing and intrasentential language switching This paradox has interesting implications for the construction of individual community and language identity From Colonization to Democracy Alan Lester, 1998-12-31 This account of the development of modern South African society seeks to establish the geographical and historical context in which change has taken place The author describes important historical continuities in South Africa which have shaped present society including social groupings and their stratification political institutions the patterns of human geography economic structure and external links and influences Postcoloniality - Decoloniality - Black Critique Sabine Broeck, Sabine Bröck-Sallah, Carsten Junker, 2014-11-06 How can Western Modernity be analyzed and critiqued through the lens of enslavement and colonial history The volume maps out answers to this question from the fields of Postcolonial Decolonial and Black Studies delineating converging and diverging positions approaches and trajectories It assembles contributions by renowned scholars of the respective fields intervening in History Sociology Political Sciences Gender Studies Cultural and Literary Studies and Philosophy Minnesota Highways, 1967 AF Press Clips United States Department of State. Bureau of African Affairs, 1988 Telling Stories of Pain and Hope Mary Elizabeth Lange, Ruth Teer-Tomaselli, 2024-06-07 The histories of South Africa and Ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic Both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today Their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty Both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices Recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in South Africa and Ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future The primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people s ancestors who were caught up in the conflict while interweaving the stories of the authors as well Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Narratives of Nation

Post-Apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro, 2020-05-11 In this book Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation building heritage projects in South Africa during the postapartheid period The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how smell memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial African and South African heritage status This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities Proceedings of the ... Annual Convention ...

Richards, 2020-03-15 This guide describes ascents of 36 Lake District fells that can be climbed from the valleys of Mardale Haweswater Kentmere and Longsleddale and from the east side of Ullswater With few settlements the area feels wild and remote and the easternmost fells in particular see few visitors offering a perfect getaway for walkers seeking solitude Slightly further west lie some fantastic ridge lines including the much loved Kentmere Horseshoe and High Street Roman road Unlike other guidebooks which describe a single or limited number of routes to a particular destination the aim of the Walking the Lake District Fells series is to offer all the options These are presented as numbered sections which can be combined to create infinite possibilities from simple ascents to longer ridge routes You ll find the classics and popular routes alongside less traditional alternatives perfect for the wandering spirit The series gives you both the freedom to devise your own routes and the information to make informed decisions thanks to the clear descriptions of the routes terrain hazards interesting features and safe descent paths should the weather close in Also included are a handful of classic ridge routes for longer fell days Mark Richards inimitable text is complemented by HARVEY mapping and the author s own beautiful sketch topos and panoramas Perfect for keen hillwalkers and peak baggers alike and ideal both for pre planning and use on the hill Walking the Lake District Fells is the new incarnation of the Fellranger series which sees the volumes updated and trimmed to a more practical size These true connoisseurs guides are sure to inspire you to get out and explore the beautiful fells of Lakeland For those collecting fell summits a Fellrangers hill list register can be found on the Long Distance Walkers Association website
