The Bookman ,1905 The Future Life Emanuel Swedenborg,1853 The Logical Alien Sofia Miguens,2020-01-14 Is our logical form of thought merely one among many or must it be the form of thought as such From Kant to Wittgenstein philosophers have wrestled with variants of this question This volume brings together nine distinguished thinkers on the subject including James Conant author of the seminal paper The Search for Logically Alien Thought Restructuring Capitalism Rogene Buchholz,2017-04-21 The main theme of this book is that within contemporary capitalist societies a materialist outlook informed by science has triumphed creating the lack of a spiritual dimension to give meaning and purpose to the activities that are necessary for a capitalist society to function effectively Capitalist societies are in trouble and need to be restructured to provide for the material needs of all the people who work within the system not just the one percent but because of the lack of a spiritual connection with each other and with nature this is not likely to happen It has been said that society and the organizations within treat one another as objects to be manipulated in the interests of promoting economic growth and treat nature as an object to be exploited for the same purpose This way of treating each other and nature is consistent with the way a capitalist system has worked in the past and was supposed to enable it to function efficiently to provide a fulfilling and enriched life for all its adherents through growth of the economy However as capitalist societies have become dysfunctional they will need a different kind of orientation to continue in existence Restructuring Capitalism Materialism and Spiritualism in Business argues that what is needed is a new sense of a spiritualization of the self and its relation to others and to the establishment of a spiritual connection with nature in order for capitalism to be restructured to work for everyone and for the society as a whole The Fortnightly ,1908 Man's First Estate and High Revolt Zenas Campbell,1829 The Free Animal Lee MacLean,2013-10-28 Free will is a key but contested concept in the work of Jean Jacques Rousseau while the famed philosopher is known to have asserted that free will distinguishes human beings from animals several interpreters have argued that he merely pretends to have this belief for the sake of healthy politics and to avoid persecution by religious authorities Through careful readings of key texts and letters The Free Animal offers a new and original exploration of Rousseau's views on free will Lee MacLean shows that Rousseau needs and uses the idea of human consciousness of free will to explain the development of morality convention and vice MacLean bases her argument on a broad range of texts from canonical works to Rousseau's untranslated letters and drafts Featuring careful analyses and an extensive engagement with the secondary literature The Free Animal offers a novel interpretation of the changing nature and complexity of Rousseau's intention Nineteenth-Century Religion, Literature and Society Richa Dwor,2020-12-14 This four volume historical resource provides new opportunities for investigating the relationship between religion literature and society in Britain and its imperial territories by making accessible a diverse selection of harder to find primary sources These include religious fiction poetry essays memoirs sermons travel writing religious ephemera unpublished notebooks and pamphlet literature Spanning the long nineteenth century c 1789 1914 the resource departs from older models of the Victorian crisis of faith in order to open up new ways of conceptualising religion This third volume looks at religious feeling as an important and distinct category for understanding the ways in which religion is embodied and expressed in culture
